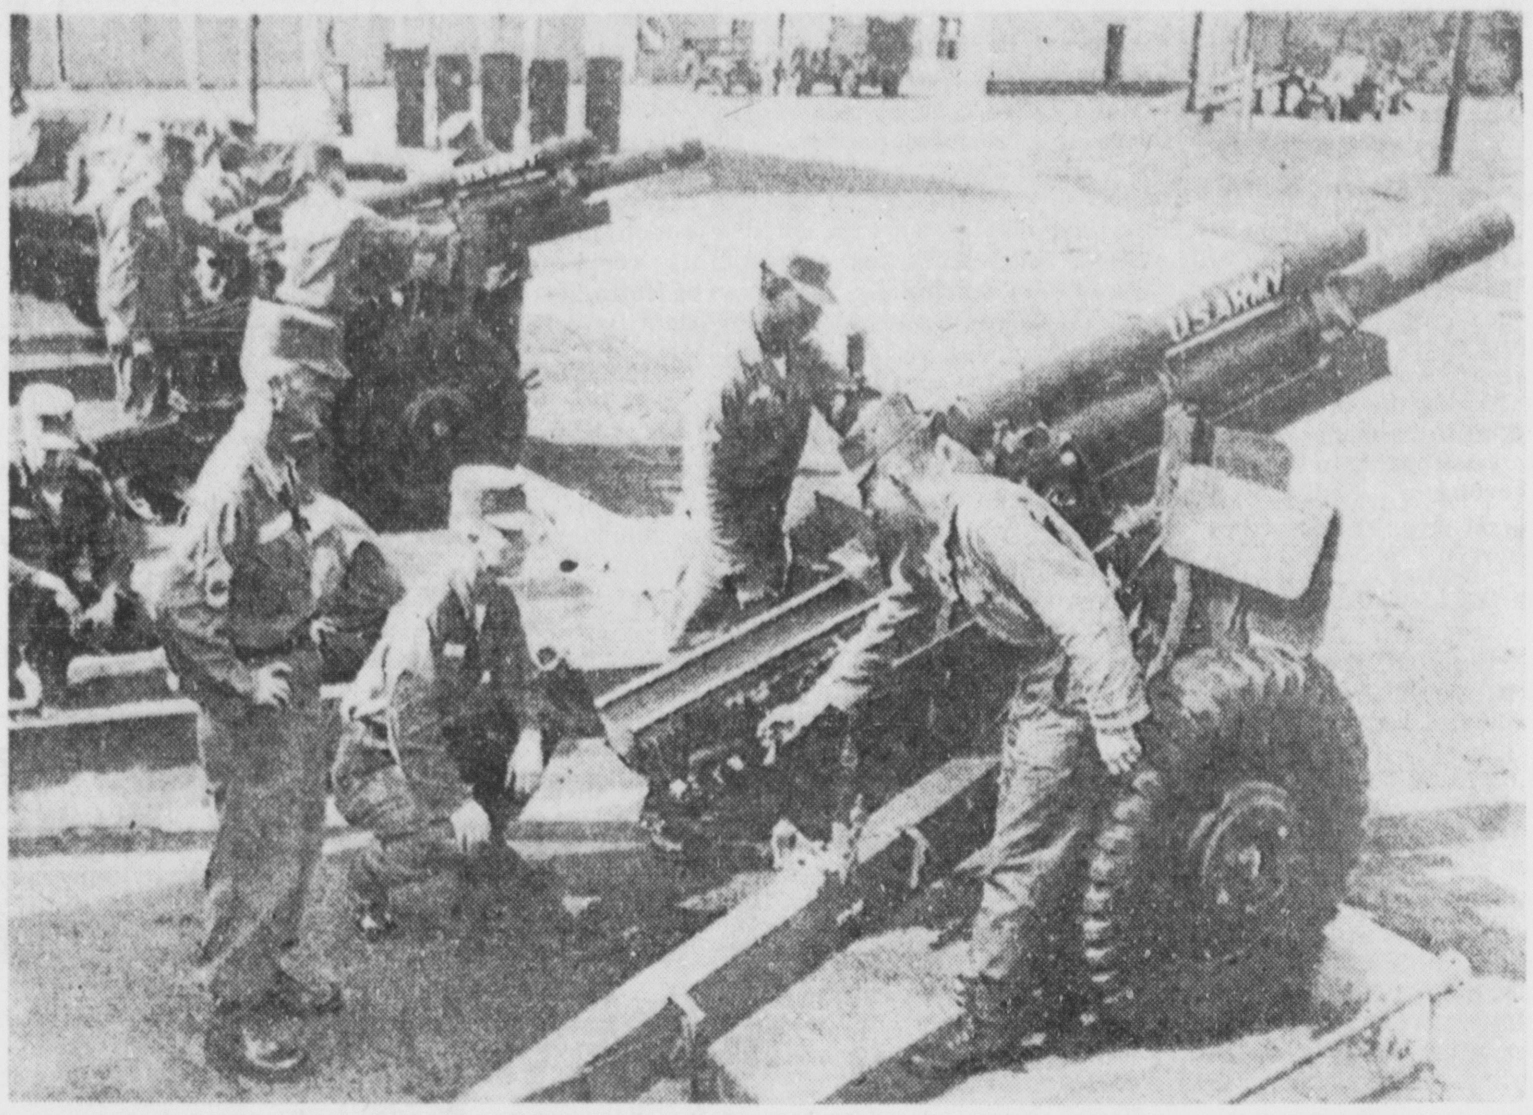
GI Troops Show Force During Border Violence



ARTILLERY SUPPORT — U.S. artillerymen ran through a practice session with 150-mm howitzers at garrison headquarters in West Berlin today. It is the first time since 1946 the Berlin garrison has had artillery support. (AP Wirephoto)

But Crisis In Berlin Has Light Side, Too

COMBINED AP & UPI

BERLIN—There was a show of force by American troops in this city today as East Berlin troops fired over the heads of West Berliners who defied orders to draw back from the border.

Governments of the Western Big Three continued to consult on a possible meeting with the Moscow powers at which the thorny Berlin problem might be solved.

There was mob violence in the city, and attempts at sabotage. But there also was a lighter side.

Pretty girls tried to flirt with some of the American troops newly called to duty. Children clambered over and around military trucks, peering through windows and staring at the embarrassed GIs.

West Berlin police, probably the most patient in the world, had a tough time trying to keep men, women and children out of the way of maneuvering tanks, speeding jeeps and field telephone lines.

Among the curious crowds of Germans were a few Americans, including a soldier's wife in search of her husband. She had forgotten the key to their apartment.

FIELD GLASSES

Americans and "vopos" stared at each other across the rapidly rising concrete walls and bales of barbed wire. The "vopos," a nickname for East German police, trained field glasses on the Western sector. An Allied soldier said the East German was surveying the American lines. "They're looking for pretty girls," he said.

Sausage stands and beer parlors on the border at Friedrickstrasse were doing a booming business. Hundreds of persons roamed in and out of the military lines, some of them stopping to have beer at a nearby cafe.

At Mannheim, in Western Germany, the 300 American wives of the 1,500 men of the First Battle Group, 19th Infantry, who were sent to Berlin last week, waited for word of their own fate. They set up an information center to sift through rumors on whether they, too, would be sent to Berlin, and to plan cheery letters and telephone calls—and avoid the passing on of rumors to their husbands.

LINERS TO FLY

U.S. authorities have declared that civilian airliners will keep flying into West Berlin despite a "scarely veiled threat" by the Soviet Union to clamp down on the three air corridors from West Germany to the Red-encircled city.

These events, or most of them, were on the brighter side. Here are other developments:

MOB ATTACK — American military and West Berlin police rescued 25 Soviet soldiers traveling to the Red army's war memorial near the Brandenburg Gate from a mob of West Berliners shouting "swine." With fists raised the crowd charged the us and tried to overturn a smaller Soviet military car.

SABOTAGE—A Communist protest appeared likely over two attempts to Sabotage traffic on the Red-run railway and elevated lines that still operate

Richardson Bay Shark Is Reported

A shark that appeared as if it were trying to get up on shore near the Richardson Bay Bridge was reported today by 15-year-old Robert Drolla of Mill Valley.

Drolla said he was fishing under the north side of the bridge Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. when he heard a "real large splash—I thought someone fell in." He looked to his right, the youth continued, and "saw a shark which looked like he was trying to get on shore.

"He was in a little mud flat and stuck there. It was so shallow, it was half out of water. He splashed around and then, before I could get over there, it was gone."

Drolla described the shark as about six to seven feet long, having a medium sized fin and as "possibly a leopard shark" since it had spots. Drolla is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drolla of 16 Strawberry Circle.

Tony Konatich, fisherman and proprietor of Tony's Seafood at Marshall, said today he was removing a shark from a 14-foot display tank at the restaurant because the fish was too big. "He can't turn around in the tank," Konatich said. The 250-pound, seven-foot non-maneater would be killed, he said.

BEST-DRESSED GI—This is what the well-dressed, man-about-Berlin is wearing these days. GI buddies of Sgt. Pedro Cortes of Puerto Rico call him the best-dressed guard on the border. What he really looks like is a one-man army with his rifle, smoke and tear gas grenades and bandoliers of ammunition. (AP Wirephoto)

Cuba Says U.S. Has Atom Base In Puerto Rico

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Cuba accused the United States today of setting up an atomic base and a "remote control rocket base" in Puerto Rico.

"This certainly puts Puerto Rico in danger of extermination,"" Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia-Inchaustegui told a special session of the General Assembly debating the French-Tunisian dispute concerning Bizerte.

"The United States, which has bases all over the world, reasons along colonial lines when its bases are being considered," he said.

Garcia-Inchaustegui renewed the attack he began yesterday with a charge that the U.S. was marshalling mercenary forces at Guantanamo Bay and in Puerto Rico for aggression against Latin American countries.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson observed after the Cuban's first attack that "some respect for the truth would improve the credibility, if not the emotional quality, of the gentleman's rhetoric."

Nevada Hit By Storm —Flash Floods Loosed

SPARKS, Nev. (AP)—The second thunderstorm in two days hit Western Nevada yesterday afternoon. It loosed a flash flood, stopped Southern Pacific trains again, and swept away a taxi.

Four persons were trapped in an office. They climbed up under the ceiling and escaped.

RENO MURDER CASE

Teener's Petition Fights Extradition

Attorney Benjamin Dreyfus of San Francisco filed a petition in Marin Superior Court today in an effort to save a Mill Valley teen-ager from being hauled into Nevada Court on a murder charge.

The youth is Jeffrey Kelley Connell, who observed his 18th birthday in Marin Juvenile Hall yesterday.

Connell and two Reno youths are charged with the holdup-murder of Reno grocer Jack Griffis, 54, last March 3. Griffis' wife Belva, 50, was indicted for the murder and held in fail for four months before the boys admitted they were the ones who shot the grocer.

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court ordered a hearing for 2 p.m. Sept. 5 on the petition by attorney Dreyfus.

The petition contends that Connell's arrest and detention for extradiction to Nevada as a fugitive is illegal because the youth did not flee Reno. Dreyfus alleges that Connell was compelled to leave Reno by order of the probation officer in Washoe County. Furthermore, says the complaint, the death penalty cannot be imposed on a person who is not yet 18 at the time of the crime.

Dreyfus asks the court to free Connell, or have him put under the jurisdiction of juvenile court instead of being handled in adult court. Connell, only 17, at the time, says he accompanied Richard Worrell, 16, of Reno into the grocery store on March 3 with the intention of robbing Griffis. Connell told officers Worrel fired at the grocer, and they fled without getting anything.

Connell, who lived at 65 Marguerita Avenue in Mill Valley, was arrested July 11 after the Reno youths implicated him in the holdup-murder.

Carpenter Is Guilty In Marijuana Case

A San Francisco carpenter, who formerly lived in Mill Valley, was found guilty today of having marijuana at his Mill Valley apartment last March 4.

He is Frank Charles Fisher, 26, who lived at 424 Shoreline Highway at the time of his arrest. Judge Thomas F. Keating set 2 p.m. Sept. 18 as the time for a probation report and sentencing. Fisher could get a penalty of up to one year in county jail or up to 10 years in state prison.

A jury of eight men and four women heard the cast until last night, when the defense suddenly waived the jury. The jury waiver came when Deputy Dist. Atty. P. Roy Vallarino put San Francisco bartender Abe Katz on the witness stand.

Katz, who knew Fisher for four years, was located by Inspector Donald E. Midyett yesterday and rushed into court. He at first refused to testify on grounds he might incriminate himself. When Vallarino offered him immunity to testify, Katz said he would tell all he knew.

At this point, defense attorney George Walker of San Francisco asked that the jury be called off, and the case heard by the judge alone.

Another prosecution witness, an attractive 20-year-old blonde from Fairfax, testified for two days against Fisher. She said she had met Fisher at Country Club Bowl on March 4 and had gone to his apartment where they smoked marijuana.

A.F. Callup Announced

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force will call seven reserve units to active duty Oct. 1, it was learned today. No California units were involved.

ECLIPSE OF MOON TONIGHT

There will be a nearly complete eclipse of the moon this evening but not much of it will be seen over Marin.

Nearly 100 per cent of the moon's face will be obscured by the earth's shadow at the midpoint, at about 6:18 p.m. before darkness is complete, The Museum of Natural History-Hayden Planetarium in San Francisco reported.

The eclipse will begin in daylight at about 4:45 p.m. and end about 9:50 p.m. after darkness is complete.

Women's Air Speed Record Is Reclaimed

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (UPI)—Aviatrix Jacqueline Cochran today reclaimed the world's speed record for women.

Still the nation's No. 1 woman pilot at 55, Miss Cochran announced at a news conference today that she had flown a T-38 Talon jet trainer 842.6 miles an hour over a 15 kilometer closed course yesterday at this desert base.

The mark, as certified by the National Aeronautics Assn., breaks the old record of 715.97 mph held by Madam Jacqueline Auriol of France, set in May of 1955. Madam Auriol's 1955 flight surpassed a record Miss Cochran had held since 1953 when she became the first woman to break the sound barrier.

U.S. Launches Scout Rocket

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Scout rocket roared skyward today from the Virginia coast in a new attempt to loft a "beer can satellite" to study tiny space bullets that might kill improperly protected astronauts.

The 72-foot, 36,000-pound Scout booster shot up from a seaside launching pad at Wallops Island at 1:30 p.m., carrying a 127-pound instrument payload intended for an orbit between 280 and 610 miles up.

President Quadros Of Brazil Quits

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (UPI) President Janio Quadros resigned today.

Quadros was inaugurated president last Jan. 31, succeeding Juscelino Kubitschek was Brazilian chief executive.

Quadros has been increasingly criticized for his leftist leanings.

Motorman Testifies At Trial Of Four Boys

"I know he was under the car, but I didn't want to look at him," a San Francisco Municipal Railway motorman told the jury yesterday at the murder trial of four minor youths.

He referred to William P. Hall, 27-year-old Ross School teacher, who died under the wheels of his "J" line car last April 29 near Dolores Park.

The state charges the youths —Lawrence McGee, 18; Michael Kilkenny, 17; William Castillo, 17, and Alexander Robert Hall, 17— beat and robbed the schoolteacher, then left him to die on the tracks.

Giblin said: "I first saw the body when we were about 30 feet away. The body wasn't moving. I slammed on the brakes, but it was too late."

Giblin was the first prosecution witness. The case is being tried before Judge Charles Peery in San Francisco Superior Court.

Tunnel Work Will Begin On Monday

Filling of the railroad tunnel cave-in on Lincoln Avenue as a temporary measure to restore two-way traffic will be started Monday, it was reported today by Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael, contractors on the job.

A company spokesman said equipment might be moved to the scene this afternoon. Brown-Ely is to restore the street to grade under contract from Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co.

Meantime, Mayor John F. McInnis announced a meeting regarding the tunnel of engineering staff representatives of the railroad, the city of San Rafael, the California Division of Highways and the Bay Area Rapid Transit District next Wednesday at 10 a.m. will be in the supervisors' chambers of the courthouse. A Public Utilities Commission hearing on a Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. request for "extended service" among San Rafael, Ignacio, Belvedere and Sausalito exchanges is scheduled at that time in the city council chambers.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Tunisian Charge

TUNIS (AP) — The Tunisian government claims France summarily executed 100 persons—many of them women—during last month's bloody fighting for the Bizerte naval base. France has denied Tunisian charges of atrocities.

Russ Death Sentence

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet court sentenced a truck driver to death by shooting for hijacking furs and textiles from a state enterprise, the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

Cost Of Living Up

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Living costs crept up to another new high in July, government sources said today.

They made the disclosure in advance of release of the Labor Department's monthly consumer price index.

The index was expected to be up slightly from June, when it reached a record high for the first time in six months. The index usually rises in July, when fresh food prices advance to a pre-harvest high.

Murder Suspect

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (UPI)—A 28-year-old porter was arrested late last night and charged with first-degree murder in the fatal stabbing of Dr. Paul Behrendt, 64, a well-to-do German-born physician.

Police said the suspect, identified as Theodore R. Stovall of Jamaica, N.Y., was picked up a little before midnight, less than 24 hours after a housebreaker killed Behrendt and seriously wounded his radiologist wife in their two-story, Tudor-style home.

A telephone conversation between Stovall and a friend led to the arrest. Police said Stovall left a phone number in the telephone booth at the bar and a quick check enabled them to learn the suspect's identity.

Vehicles Deputy

SACRAMENTO (AP)—After 38 years with the Department of Motor Vehicles, Mrs. Beth Bennett of La Mesa will take over as deputy director.

Mrs. Bennett was named deputy director of motor vehicles yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. She succeeds Tom M. Bright, who was appointed director last week.

Mrs. Bennett, a Republican, will receive $1,274 a month.

Brown said she will continue to work in San Diego where she has managed the branch office since 1947.

USIA On Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Information Agency (USIA) is waging an intensive campaign around the world to inform people on the Berlin issue.

It has run into disinterest in neutral and underdeveloped countries of Africa, Asia and Latin America. There the common attitude is that the Berlin crisis is a big power or a white man's struggle that has no bearing on more pressing questions like food for the next meal.

USIA wants to spread the idea that the Soviet threat to Berlin is a danger to free people everywhere.

USIA portrays the Berlin situation as "Khrushchev's crisis," brought on by bankruptcy of the Communist system. USIA stresses unity and determination of the Western allies and their preference for negotiation rather than conflict to settle the issue.

Oust Churchill?

LONDON (UPI)—A campaign is under way in Sir Winston Churchill's Wanstead-Woodford constituency to have him resign from Parliament to make way for a younger man.

The 86-year-old Sir Winston has been returned to the House of Commons regularly since 1945.

In editorials and news dispatches in the past several weeks the constituency's local weekly, "The Woodford Guardian," has raised the question: "Sir Winston: Shouldn't he resign?" In an editorial below that headline, the newspaper stated:

"Churchill should go. That is the cry that is getting stronger in some circles in Wanstead-Woodford."

Audrey Meadows Wed

HONOLULU (UPI) — Actress Audrey Meadows and Continental Airlines President Robert F. Six, former husband of actress Ethel Merman, were married yesterday at St. Andrews Episcopal Cathedral in Honolulu.

The couple will leave for Tokyo tonight for an extended Asian honeymoon. They plan to make their home in Denver and Los Angeles.

Segregation Ruling

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A federal judge has ruled that public funds may not be used to support private segregated education in Prince Edward County as long as the county's public schools remain closed.

But Judge Oren R. Lewis, in a 19-page opinion made public yesterday, did not rule on a more fundamental question—whether Prince Edward can be compelled to reopen its public schools.

He said a suit on the state constitutional questions involved in this issue should be brought in state courts within 60 days.

He also ordered the county to submit by Nov. 15 a report on plans for desegregation of elementary schools as he had directed April 20, 1960.

EICHMANN'S SON TAKES BRIDE

Horst Eichmann, 21-year-old son of Adolf Eichmann, and his bride, the former, Elvira Teresa Pummer, 21, stood in the registry office at Tigre, near Buenos Aires, following their civil marriage yesterday. Horst is the son of the man now on trial in Israel for the murder of six million Jews. The bride is a member of an Argentine family. (AP Wirephoto)

Shakeup Gives French Premier More Power

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle's drastic shakeup of the French Cabinet appeared today to have concentrated control of the government more directly in the hands of Premier Michel Debre.

Yesterday's re-shuffle was de Gaulle's first major cabinet shakeup since he took office in January, 1959.

One of Debre's bitterest opponents, minister for the Sahara and overseas territories Robert Lecourt, resigned. To assume Lecourt's functions, deputy Jean de Broglie was appointed secretary of state in charge of the Sahara and overseas territories, attached to Minister of State Louis Jacquinot.

DeGaulle created a new post—a state secretariat for refugees to handle any influx or Frenchmen from Algeria—but no new ministers for information or for overseas territories were named.

The only other notable change was the replacement of Henri Rochereau as minister of agriculture by Sen. Edgard Pisani.

Observers saw the move as a sop to French farmers, irate because of falling prices and what they consider "inadequate" government supports. The farmers, who set up roadblocks around market towns earlier this year, have threatened new demonstrations.

Favorable U.N. Vote Expected For Tunisia

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly winds up its Tunisian debate tonight, and all indications point to overwhelming approval for a resolution calling on France to take her troops off Tunisian soil.

In an effort to reach a vote tonight, Assembly President Frederick H. Boland of Ireland scheduled morning, afternoon and night sessions to clean up the list of 15 speakers.

Supporters of the resolution predicted it would poll far more than the two-thirds vote needed for adoption despite expected abstentions by the United States and other allies of France.

The sponsors anticipated no more than half a dozen negative votes from colonial powers. Others opposed to the resolution in effect censuring France were expected to abstain.

Cape Area Gets Ready For Moon Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) Brevard County, which missiles transformed from a sleepy citrus area to the nation's fastest growing county, prepared for a new boom today in the wake of Cape Canaveral's selection as America's jumping-off place to the moon.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced yesterday that it will purchase 80,000 acres of land north and west of the Cape on which to construct launch pads and facilities for the monster Nova rocket, the multimillion-pound thrust vehicle assigned to carry astronauts to the moon and beyond.

Several other sites had been considered.

60 MILLION DOLLARS

The land acquisition, which NASA reported would cost 60 million dollars, may erase thousands of acres of lush citrus groves, three Atlantic Ocean recreation beaches and three unincorporated towns and will force about 500 persons to move from their homes.

The citrus groves, some of the richest in Florida, are located on North Merritt Island, west of the Cape. The beaches, popular with central Floridians, are on a narrow strip of land extending about nine miles north of the Cape.

Most persons who will have to relocate were unhappy with the news. But the majority felt the government would give them a fair price for their property.

'HURTS FARMERS'

Charles W. Skelly, an orange grove owner, commented: "It hurts anyone who is a farmer at heart to lose land. But if it is the proper action and for the good of the majority, we naturally will go along with it."

Gov. Farris Bryant termed the decision "the biggest development ever in the Florida economy." He estimated the project would mean a long-term expenditure of $80 billion in the state.

Many missile companies which have been awaiting naming of the moon base are expected to establish plants in the state.

An official estimated a billion dollars would be spent on construction of at least four Nova and two additional Saturn launch pads.

Hoffa, Meany Clash Over Revolting Locals

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamster President James R. Hoffa was embroiled today in another clash with AFL-CIO President George Meany, one of his bitterest enemies.

This time the battle was over the recent defection of 4,000 Cincinnati Teamsters.

Hoffa called Meany's role in the revolt a "shameful performance." He called on all member unions of the AFL-CIO to refute their chief. Otherwsie, he warned, the Teamsters will "rise to the challenge."

The scrappy Teamster boss delivered his blast yesterday in a telegram to the presidents of all 134 unions. Meany had no immediate comment on the wire but was said to feel that few AFL-CIO officials would take it seriously.

Hoffa's attack was prompted by the vote of a group of Cincinnati dairy workers last wek to break with the Teamsters union. They asked the National Labor Relations Board to schedule an election designed to protect their bargaining rights.

Meany met with leaders of the rebels for an hour Monday. He issued a statement afterward, welcoming their defection and promising any aid they needed. He praised them for voting to break with what he called the "gangster dominated" teamsters.

Hoffa countered with his bristling telegram.

"This shameful performance by a former local officer who boasts he never walked a picket line demonstrates a complete indifference to the international union which pays his salary," Hoffa stated.

Hoffa also said Meany's action in the Cincinnati revolt amounted to an "open season" invitation to other unions to raid Teamster locals.

The Teamsters were expelled from the AFL-CIO on corruption charges several years ago. The action followed a Senate rackets committee investigation of Hoffa, former Teamster President Dave Beck and other officials.

Negro Rider Convicted In Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A 12 man, all-white jury yesterday convicted Henry Thomas, 19 of St. Augustine, Fla., on a breach of peace charge in the first appeal trial of a convicted "Freedom Rider."

The jury deliberated 45 minutes.

Thomas, a Negro and student at Howard University, had appealed his earlier conviction in City Court.

"Turn him loose . . . and blood will flow and there will be violence," said Hinds County Prosecutor Jack Travis in his final argument.

Defense counsel William Kunstler countered: "What Travis is telling you is that if any person, including yourselves, fails to move on, regardless of whether he has committed an offense, blood will flow in the street."

Expert Says Way To Beat Sharks Is To Eat Them

HONOLULU (UPI) — Experts attending the 10th Pacific Science Congress say man's best bet to reduce the menace of shark attacks on swimmers is to eat more sharks.

But the world's leading authorities on sharks told newsmen following a session on the subject yesterday the problem is to get people to eat the ugly monsters whose meat mostly is highly edible but subject to worldwide prejudice as a menu item.

Dr. Perry W. Gilbert, chairman of the shark research panel of the American Institute of Biological Sciences, said his group had been meeting every two months since 1958 in the constant search for a "surefire" repellent or control of sharks.

"We think that one of the most effective ways to reduce the shark population is to fish for them," Gilbert said. But he said this was costly unless the sharks could be sold to the public and this meant eating them.

Hawaii was cited as an example of an area which was relatively free from shark attacks on swimmers until fishing of the underwater beasts ceased commercially several years ago when they lost favor as a food. They were made into fish cakes and canned, but sales dropped off rapidly when a new law required that the shark source be shown on can labels.

Only in Australia, where shark meat is known as "flake," is there a ready market for it in "fish and chip" shops and elsewhere.

Leonard P. Schultz, another member of the AIBS shark panel, said there have been 906 recorded attacks on human beings since 1580, of which 655 were unprovoked. He said those "which concern us most are the unprovoked attacks" and so far no discernible sure pattern of behavior can be determined even among sharks of the same species.

Gilbert said a "shark is highly individualist" and "it poses a great problem in getting at a universal repellent or control." He said every once in a while they go into "feeding frenzies" which are unpredictable "and then they will eat anything that will fit into their mouths" whether it be a man, a case of beer or a log.

"Exactly what causes this, we don't know either," he said.

Firefighting Now Colorful

EAST PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI)—Fire Chief Earl C. Griffith says the familiar red "has lost its distinctiveness for firefighting equipment."

The chief rushes to fires in a "Corinthian white" sedan which matches his helmet and raincoat.

Most of the city's firefighting equipment still is red but the fire hydrants are a variety of colors.

Caught With A String

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Police reported a thief took $13 in quarters from a change machine in a self-service laundry. He would drop in a half dollar, pull it back with a string, and pocket the quarters it brought out.

Constant Visitor

NORFOLK, Ohio (AP)—Patrolman Fred Childress is getting to be well known in Norfolk hospitals. He has been hospitalized for treatments three times in six months. Twice he was in automobile accidents and once he fell through a roof.

A Lucky Shot For Fisherman

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — John Kastner, 35, of Denver, was fishing in the Arapahoe Lake area south of Laramie when he accidentally dropped his .44 caliber revolver.

A single bullet wounded him in four places. The bullet struck the calf of his right leg, grazed his right thigh, nicked his right wrist and struck his upper right arm.

He was not seriously hurt.

WANDERING STREET COMES TO HALT

The extension of Doherty Drive, Larkspur's street that doesn't want to stay put, had settled down today in this pattern. The big cracks developed Wednesday where mud from the slough of Corte Madera Creek had been piled against the roadway to strengthen the old levee that forms its base. James M. de la Montanya, estimator for Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael, contractors for the street job, refused to guess whether the road base will stay put this time, however. "It's like looking into a crystal ball," he said. (Independent-Journal photo)

A.F. Colonel Innocent Of Drunk Charge

A Hamilton Air Force Base officer, who led the first daylight raids over Berlin in World War II, was acquitted of a drunken driving charge in Marin Municipal Court yesterday.

Lt. Col. James Oscar Crutchfield, 46, of Headquarters, Air Reserve, Region, Sixth Air Force, was found innocent by a jury of six men and six women who heard the case before Judge Harold J. Haley. The jurors deliberated less than two hours and decided that the colonel had not been intoxicated when arrested by highway patrolmen on Highway 101 at Black Point cutoff last April 6.

John G. Buresh, attorney for the colonel, argued that it was a personality clash between Crutchfield and arresting Patrolman Richard O'Brien which caused the colonel to be belligerent toward the officer.

The colonel took the witness stand in his own defense and testified he had a couple of beers but nothing more.

Span Board Again Plans Transit Meet

Golden Gate Bridge District directors today decided to meet as a committee on Sept. 5 to try again to decide whether to approve appointing an engineering board of review to settle the question of whether the bridge can carry trains.

The board met in committee this morning for that purpose, reached no decision. Later, during the regular board meeting, the decision was reached to try again Sept. 5 at 10 a.m.

The directors first heard a report from Carl H. Gronquist, New York consulting engineer retained by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District to study bridge-crossing problems.

Gronquist, who earlier had found transit on the bridge feasible and practical, answered a series of objections made by the bridge district's consulting engineer, Clifford E. Paine.

Point by point he attempted to refute Paine's contentions that the bridge would sag so low as to be detrimental to ship traffic, that the stress on the cable wire would be too great, and that the trusses on the bridge could not be satisfactorily reinforced.

After Gronquist's presentation, opponents of transit on the bridge, led by directors Peter Gasser of Napa and Leland Murphy of Marin, subjected Gronquist to a series of questions. He stuck to his insistance that trains on a lower deck would pose no threat to the bridge's safety.

Second Suit Filed For Damages In Tavern Accident

A second damage suit, for $25,000, was filed today in Marin Superior Court for injuries suffered when a car crashed into the bar at 751 Club in San Rafael last May 24.

Mrs. Ethel Schiller, 52, of 17 Redwood Drive, who runs Abardean Plastics on C Street, is suing for $25,000 general damages plus medical and court costs. She says she suffered sprains, shock, and numerous injuries as she sat at the bar.

A car driven by Phyllis Wellen, 16, of 18 Sirard Lane, San Rafael, jumped the curb and crashed through the wall at the club. Most severely hurt was Raymond Edwin Fetz, 53, a brick mason of 1333 Fourth Street, San Rafael. He sued for $100,000 last week.

Named as defendants are Miss Wellen, and her father, Fred D. Wellen, who owns a typewriter company in San Rafael.

BERLIN

between the Eastern and Western parts of the city. Bars had been placed across the tracks and were discovered just in time to avert a disaster.

FATALITY—The first known fatality of the nerve war came when Communist police killed an East German who plunged into a waterway near the old Reichstag building and tried to swim to the west.

BRITISH WARNING—Great Britain has warned the Soviet Union again that any attempt to interfere with Western flying rights into West Berlin would create a dangerous situation and that Moscow would be to blame. The Foreign Office, however, has advised Britishers contemplating visits to East Germany, to travel at their own risk.

WARNING SHOTS—Communist police have fired warning shots over the heads of West Berliners when they defied Red orders to draw back from the border. No one was injured but West Berlin police moved about 30 persons back to safety. Western spokesmen said this did not represent any acceptance of a Communist attempt to set up a 100-meter no man's land along both sides of the border.

CONFERENCE TRY — The U.S. and Britain are trying to get France to agree to calling a foreign minister meeting with the Soviet Union on the Berlin Crisis in New York next month. French President Charles de Gaulle fears that any sign of excessive western eagerness to negotiate might be regarded by the Kremlin as a sign of Allied weakness.

U.S. RESPONSE—The U.S. has told Russia that an attempt to blockade Berlin would be an "aggressive act," and the Russians would be responsible for the consequences, and accused Russia of slander, deception, attempted intimidation, heightening world tensions, cynicism and irresponsibility. The accusation was in response to a recent Soviet note that charged West German spies and saboteurs were being flown into West Berlin.

SHOW OF FORCE—Two U.S. Army tanks put on a show of force by rumbling up to the East-West Berlin city border in open defiance of an East German demand that a no man's land be established. Artillery units have also been added.

EAST GERMANY—Communist boss Walter Ulbricht said East Germany would honor the four-power agreements on Allied access to Berlin until a German peace treaty is signed. He said the Russians will continue to control Western Allied traffic through East Germany. Ulbricht said he stressed the agreement would be observed until a peace treaty is signed. The Soviets have said they will sign a treaty this year.

A.F. Reserve Region At Hamilton AFB Is Getting New CO

ANDREW B. CANNON
New reserve region chief

Brig. Gen. Andrew B. Cannon will take over in October as commander of the Sixth Air Force Reserve Region with headquarters at Hamilton Air Force Base.

He will take the place of Brig. Gen. George S. Cassady, commander of the region since March. Cassady will retire from the Air Force in ceremonies at the base tomorrow after 30 years service.

GEORGE S. CASSADY
Retiring from Air Force

A review, fly-by by jet planes and award of commendation medals will be included in ceremonies which will begin at 10 a.m. at the base and one open to the public.

Cassady in World War II served in the China-Burma-India theater, commanding a unit of C-46 transports which flew over "The Hump."

He has been a civilian airlines pilot and has held posts with the Bureau of Air Commerce.

Since the war he has commanded various transport groups and was commander of Lajes Field in the Azores. He attended the National War College in 1952. Since 1953 he has been deputy commander of three military air transport divisions.

Cannon comes to Hamilton from his post as commander of the 63rd Troop Carrier Wing at Donaldson Air Force Base, S.C. He began his flying career following World War I and has been an airline pilot.

He too served in the C-B-I Theater as commander of a wing of transport planes flying the Himalayas.

Following the war, cannon became superintendent of maintenance for Capital Airlines. As commander of the 63rd Troop Carrier Wing, he commanded planes which air-supplied Operation Deep Freeze in the Antarctica.

'GOOD SHOW, GANG'

'Dark Of The Moon' Opens In Sausalito

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"Good show" best describes "Dark of the Moon" which opened last night at Sausalito's Gate Playhouse.

Gate Five Productions' initial opener is the story by Howard Richardson and William Berney of a witch boy who wanted to be human. He was granted this wish with the provision his beloved, Barbara Allen, would remain faithful to him for one year.

But witch boy (Tom Anderson) "don't have no soul" and then again "humans never understand each other."

Well qualified, actor Anderson makes the eagle-riding witch boy a strong and believable character. His cohorts in the sky are well played by female witches Myrl Britton and Sally Lacey, conjur woman Romie Drexler and conjur man Robert Allen.

Folk singer Nan Fowler, playing zither, narrates the song Barbara Allen. She is excellent.

Everybody loved "Barbry Allen." Likewise, She is pert red headed Ruth Lewis, a fine performer.

Comedy is provided professionally by Ann Carroll, James Robinson, Mary Diederich and Edward Kimberly amongst others. Dean Cyr, as preacher, leads his flock to the Lamb of God in a highly delightful revival meeting. Cyr is good.

Will Marchetti, who once played the part of witch boy, directs. Assisting him is Meg Whiting. Lighting was done by J. R. Turner, sound by Chuck Royster and costumes by Myrl Britton.

There were a few first night jitters and one light failure for the Gate Fiv'ers but with the quality of the show, that "makes no never mind" as they say on Chunky Gal Mountain where Barbara Allen comes from.

"Dark of the Moon" plays at 8:30 p.m. today and tomorrow and will run for several weekends.

Recreation Unit For Twin Cities To Sponsor Play

Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission last night decided to again sponsor the Twin-City troopers' little theater presentation of "Suds in Your Eye" this fall.

The show had a three-run engagement in May at the Corte Madera recreation center. The commissioners said the fall showing of the play may be held in the Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur.

Elizabeth Boissebain, program leader at Eastman Hall for the summer program, reported sewing, arts and crafts and the teen dances held in the hall were all successes.

The commissioners will receive a full written report on the six-week summer program which ended on Aug. 12 after recreation director Bill Gordon returns from his vacation. Secretary Ruth Stephenson said the report will be presented at the next commission meeting on Sept. 28.

4 Buildings Approved For College

The Marin Junior College District board last night voted 4-to-0, with George G. Washburn abstaining, to approve the master plan for four new buildings on the College of Marin's Kentfield campus.

The vote was taken after a report by Wesley Hull, of the architectural firm of Falk and Booth. It calls for construction of:

1—A gymnasium and aquatic center. The college never has had a swimming pool. Washburn did not agree a pool should have such high priority. The present gym may not be used for spectator sports, having been condemned by the state fire marshal.

2—A student center (including book store, cafeteria, lounge, student government offices and, possibly, college administration).

3 — A speech - drama - music building.

4—A science building. The current building is one of the oldest on the campus, and deemed inadequate for present needs.

Later in the evening, the trustees went into executive session for 35 minutes with County Counsel E. Warren McGuire regarding a condemnation suit for acquiring additional land for expansion of the Kentfield campus.

Washburn did not take part in this session. He went home shortly after it began.

COLLEGE BOARD VOTE

Parent Education Will Be Continued

Education in how to be a parent will be continued by College of Marin—but with the trustees holding the junior college district's obligation to underwrite the program to $1,800 for the school year.

The Marin Junior College District board voted last night 4-to-0, with trustee George G. Washburn abstaining, to continue the parent education program, with cooperative nursing school workshops in Mill Valley, Corte Madera-Larkspur and San Anselmo.

The vote was taken after an hour and a half discussion, joined by a number of young parents in the audience who urged the program be continued. Washburn repeated objections he made Aug. 3 to costs to the college district. Trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy and Rupert E. Kempf argued over statistics.

At one point Mrs. Deedy said, "You are going to use an expensive man's time to figure pro rata statistics" and Kempf retorted, "You could get statistics to prove the world is flat."

All trustees agreed with mothers and fathers in the audience on the worth of the program in developing better parents and making the children better future citizens. But Kempf to some degree joined with Washburn in wondering where the money would come from if costs continued to rise.

Dr. Ellsworth Briggs, dean of extended day and adult education, in presenting a report urging continuance of the program, played a 15-minute tape-recorded talk by Dr. Milton Babitz, parent education specialist of the State Department of Education.

The board voted:

1—That $15 tuition per semester be continued (Kempf asked about raising this but got no support).

2—That customary supervision continue. This includes employment of instructors, visitation of day and evening programs and assistance on curriculum especially for night joint meetings.

3—That parents and instructors help the college earn highest possible average daily attendance by continuing the policy of enrolling groups with attendance average of 29; also that fathers be urged to continue, if possible to increase, their attendance at night meetings.

4—That the board limit obligation of the district to underwrite the program to $600 per unit or not over $1,800 for the three units.

As he did Aug. 3, Norman Bird, college business manager, reported the total cost of the program is in the budget which the trustees earlier approved.

A bronze figure of Frederick August Bartholdi will be unveiled Oct. 28 near the base of the Statue of Liberty. Oct. 28 is the 75th anniversary of the dedication of the statue, Bartholdi's greatest piece of sculpture.

Double Sessions Planned For 3 Lagunitas Grades

First through third graders at the Lagunitas School will be on double sessions for about two weeks after the opening of school, the district trustees were told last night.

Supt. Clifford L. Frye said five new classrooms and a multi-purpose room would not be completed before that time. The new rooms will house the upper grades.

A new 67-passenger bus, approved for purchase earlier this year, will be delivered next week by Bianco Motors of San Rafael at a cost of $8,530, Frye said.

The trustees approved hiring of two new teachers. They are Miss Mary Ann Kolanoski of San Geronimo, sixth, seventh and eighth grades; and Mrs. Joan Rose Sims of 11 Merrydale Road, San Rafael, second grade.

Mrs. Douglas Hubbard of Forest Knolls was hired as part time bus driver.

Contracts were not awarded for science demonstrations tables, benches and tote trays pending a review of specifications, Frye said.

Recreation Site Will Be Graded

Trustees of the Strawberry Recreation District last night decided to authorize completion of the grading of their recreational site on Belvedere Drive by accepting a $3,000 note from Piombo Brothers of San Rafael. The note, at six per cent interest, bears interest April, 1962.

Mrs. James Gowen, secretary, said it was announced that a 200-foot covered drainage ditch will be installed at the site tomorrow by community volunteer labor.

San Rafael High School Registration

Students entering San Rafael High School who did not attend San Rafael elementary schools or high school last year must register next Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, Principal Alfred N. Thomson said today.

They may receive counseling on their programs and register any time after 8:30 a.m. on those three days, he said. He asked that a parent accompany each entering student.

Those who attended San Rafael elementary schools last year received help last spring in arranging programs for the term which starts Sept. 5. They will attend freshman orientation sessions next Thursday at 9 a.m. at San Rafael High and 9:30 a.m. at Terra Linda High School.

Thomson and Principal Webster Wilson of Terra Linda High said there will be no registration of new students on Sept. 5, the opening day of school. Those who fail to register in advance must arrange for registration appointments Sept. 6 or later, the principal said.

Jumps Wrong Way

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—When a 17-year-old youth held up a neighborhood branch of a Savings and Loan Assn., he wasted no time falling into the clutches of the law. He leaped a fence and fell into the clutches of off-duty Lt. Rocco Navarro, sunbathing in his back yard. The $3,000 loot was recovered.

PARENTS OF 4-YEAR-OLDS:
Let's look ahead
—to the year 1975. Johnny, Jim and Sue, babies now—are ready for college. Or are they? Do they have the study habits—the inquiring minds—and, let's face it, the grades, necessary to attend the college of their choice. FYT Pre-Schools, dedicated to the task of making scholars, points out that the need for effective training is during the formative years, before the child is of school age. Often this training is not possible in the home—and, often, outside the home it is not successful. FYT PRE-SCHOOLS have made a careful study of methods of presenting this first exposure to school atmosphere, and have developed a program based on the "pleasure principle". Their fine staff is especially skilled in creating a happy experience for the child—and their program offers a gradual introduction to academic programs of study with instruction in languages, music, science and the important life as a member of a group. Give your child the opportunity to start HIGH—research shows he'll stay at the top all through his school experience. Call FYT Pre-Schools, GReenfield 9-7711, for information or an interview—or, visit open house Wednesday night at eight—Saturday at one at FYT Pre-Schools, 10 Joseph Court, Redwood Highway, opposite Terra Linda.

FILM FARE

'Fanny' Opening Sunday

By LES DARD

Like the man says in the travelog, come with me now, on a conducted tour of Marin County's cinematic wonderland:

COUPLE OF CHARACTERS — Charles Boyer and Maurice Chevalier glare at each other in a Marseilles waterfront cafe in a scene for the technicolor production "Fanny," coming to the Rafael Sunday. On the same bill is "One Eyed Jacks," starring Marlon Brando.

RAFAEL THEATER

The enchanting "Fanny" steps elfin-like onto the Rafael Theater screen on Sunday, a sure candidate for 1961's motion picture sweetheart.

The screenplay was taken from the hit Broadway musical by S. N. Behrman and Joshua Logan, based on a trilogy by French author Marcel Pagnol. Logan is director-producer.

Fanny is the central figure in this tender melodrama placed on the Marseilles waterfront. She is bewitchingly young, the dancing flame who lights the lives of all who know her.

Fanny loves and is loved by a handsome youth who is torn between the girl and his longing for the sea. Not wishing to deny him his dream, the selfless Fanny tricks him into running off to sea, not telling him she is expecting his baby.

After he is gone, Fanny accepts the love of an aging widower who gives her baby his name and Fanny the security of marriage. Years later the young man returns and eventually their love finds a way.

Fanny is radiantly played by Leslie Caron, her lover by the new idol of the younger set, Horst Buchholz.

The outstanding characterizations, however, are by two famous gentlemen you never expected to see in roles like this. Maurice Chevalier turns in the finest acting of his career as the widower who worships Fanny. Charles Boyer, gray and grizzled, convincingly plays the father of Fanny's lover.

You will enjoy meeting Fanny, and expect to encounter her again in the Academy Awards race.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Lovers of science fiction will take delight in "Master of the World," starting Sunday at the Tamalpais.

It's the Jules Verne story of a 19th Century mad scientist —Vincent Price—who invents an indestructible flying machine with which he flies around destroying the world's armies and navies to rid the world of war.

A party of balloonists falls into his clutches and he forces them to stay aboard the impossible aircraft while he drops bombs on ships in the Atlantic and an Arab uprising in Egypt. He showers leaflets on Washington and London ordering them to "disarm or die."

Playing important roles are Charles Bronson, our hero, who messes up the mad scientist's plans, Henry Hull and Mary Webster.

It's 104 minutes of lively, enjoyable hokum.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Tammy Tell Me True" takes to the Sequoia screen on Sunday.

Sandra Dee plays the gamin off a southern shanty boat who spouts old-fashioned proverbs in an early-American tongue. As Tammy says, she's "hunger bit" and "discombabbled," but she's cute.

Tammy was reared on a riverboat by a grandpappy preacher who talks backwoods English and makes corn liquor on the side, until he's caught and sent to jail. Thus alone, Tammy decides to get some schoolin', and ties up at good old Seminola College.

Co-featured is the nerve-jangling "Village of the Damned," starring George Sanders. If terror is your dish, this is a tasty one.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Two first-class offerings are on-screen at the Tiburon Playhouse: "Butterfield 8" and "Libel."

"Butterfield 8" stars Elizabeth Taylor in a picture about a mixed-up beauty who meets Laurance Harvey and finds real love for the first time.

"Libel" stars Olivia de Havilland and Dirk Bogarde in an exciting courtroom drama made in England.

MOTOR MOVIES

A couple of years ago, Columbia made a frothy comedy about young people titled "Gidget." Lots of young people went to see it. Thus we now have "Gidget Goes Hawaiian," opening Sunday at Motor Movies.

A screen newcomer, Deborah Walley, portrays Gidget, the charming scatterbrain whose adolescent over-dramatization gets her into trouble. James Darren is a boy friend from whom she's temporarily estranged, and Michael Callan the interim romance. by Carl Reiner and Jeff Donnell, Peggy Cass and Eddie Foy Jr.

Another good one for the family.

LARK THEATER

Going into its fourth week at the Lark Theater is a whimsical British comedy starring Peter Sellers, "The Battle of the Sexes."

Sellers plays head clerk in a sleepy Scottish tweed firm invaded by a beautiful but officious American efficiency expert, Constance Cummings.

She wants to clear out the oldsters who've been running the company successfully for years, and install electronic gadgets to take over some of the jobs.

Sellers reaches the point of murder, but comes up with a much cleverer solution that will amuse you.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Operation Petticoat" and "Wackiest Ship in the Army" both weighed anchor at the Fairfax last night, with lots of nautical nonsense.

"Petticoat" stars Cary Grant as a wartime submarine commander and Tony Curtis as one of his lieutenants.

"Wackiest Ship" stars Jack Lemmon and Ricky Nelson in another World War II farce. Lemmon plays a Navy lieutenant assigned to command a rickety old sailing ship with a crew that doesn't know port from starboard.

But when the old ship gets into action, the Japanese realize they're in real trouble.

NOVATO THEATER

"The Naked Edge," last picture by the late Gary Cooper, comes to the Novato screen on Sunday.

The made-in-England picture depicts Coop as a British clerk who mysteriously comes into money after testifying at the murder trial of an office associate. He parlays the money into a fortune.

Five years later, a blackmail letter revives the mystery and sends Coop's wife, Deborah Kerr, on mysterious wanderings to determine whether he is a killer.

DINING OUT AND INNS

Fleur d'Lys Takes Its Place With Elite Of Marin County

If it isn't a complete renaissance for Fleur d'Lys, at least it's a healthy summer upsurge that bodes new life for the little San Anselmo French restaurant on the hill. Recent midweek attendance would do credit to Saturday or Sunday—gratifying to see, for it's really a colorful spot, now well established among Marin elite dineries.

All of which is reflected in its most recent menu. Though still featuring the popular $3.75 and $4.95 dinners, an excellent choix a la carte has been emphasized, bound to run you more with the trimmings but it wouldn't be there at all without the demand. Other equally fine selections can be had on call.

Among the latter we'd suggest an outstanding tournedos Rossini, topped with a gooseliver pate and truffles.

The wine list, too, has both imports and fine California wines, selected, we note, from among the best the state has to offer.

YEE FOO MEIN—it's a new dish at Confucius Restaurant in Greenbrae and the English breakdown is: Fried noodles cooked in thick sauce with bamboo shoots, water chesnuts, mushrooms, snow peas and diced chicken.

Horace Fong says it's favored among diet conscious people, high in proteins, low in calories, and a meal in itself. This is true of most Chinese dishes which are cooked in vegetable and peanut oils.

Here's a snack for you late owls who might wander in on a Friday or Saturday night when the place is open until 4 a.m.—Confucius ham or bacon and eggs with pineapple, banana fritter and fried rice.

Horace also wants it known his place specializes in American dishes from the farm and from the sea, besides the Cantonese delicacies

IT'S A SLEEPER: Chicken lasagne served with a delectable tomato sauce Neapolitan style (no meat sauce)—prepared for two. The place: Nero's Room at the Nave Lanes, Ignacio.

VOCALIST MAKING A NAME — Vocalist Dale Corliss, appearing at the Colonel's Ranch Wagon with the Gene Byrnes Trio has proved to be a popular atraction.

Chef Louis Paini has more than one trick up his sleeve here. You can eat something different every day of the week.

Mothers who can't altogether escape the responsibilities of their young ones can leave them at the Nave Lanes nursery while bowling or eating.

JERRY TONELLI has been ribbed so much on the deferred opening of his luncheon patio on Lootens Place, San Rafael he's shut up tighter than one of his clams when the subject comes up.

But he did open up long enough today to say that his wine and beer license has been validated, so about all he needs is tables and he's ready to go. Look for it to happen (maybe) next week.

He says, too, after the restaurant is under way he'll begin making deliveries to housewives in Terra Linda and Marinwood from his retail store.

SCOTTO'S BUFFET at 535 Fourth Street, San Rafael, is back serving food again—buffet style as per its name, both lunches and dinners.

In charge of this department is John Morrow who used to operate Morrow's Drive-In on the Miracle Mile. He's recently returned to Marin County from Eureka.

BLUE ROCK INN in Larkspur has long been noted for its steaks. I've heard confirmed regulars hold that as far as they are concerned it's the one place to go for juiciness and tenderness—and good seafood on Fridays.

But seafood galore is on the menu throughout the week—I've counted seven different items.

Bob Hosmer prides himself on the abalone. "Blue Rock abalone has as much right to a blue ribbon as our beef," he affirms.

So—I've told you about it. The rest is up to you.

GOOD FOOD IS MY LINE
By COL. MAX HOROWITZ

From time to time, "GOOD FOOD IS MY LINE" will pass on information regarding items of food which might interest you as much as they do me. Today we'll talk about carrots. It's hard to imagine, but every year Americans eat 1½ billion pounds of carrots. Because of this great demand, carrots have become a commercial crop in twenty-one states of the union. This vegetable can be harvested during every season of the year. Another fact about carrots is that they are not native to this continent. They were brought over here with the Jamestown settlers in 1609, and although the carrot is one of the primary sources of vitamin A, it has been a popular food only since the 1920's.

In line with the above—the Colonel's Ranch Wagon uses carrots for various purposes. We use them with peas or pearl onions as a hot vegetable. We always have carrot salad at our Salad Bar. Why not come in and try this delicious food—we're on Hwy. 101 just north of the Richardson Bay Bridge.

PAINTINGS OF CHRIST'S PASSION

Artist In Sausalito Completes Work On Stations Of Cross

By BRUCE COLEMAN

A non-Catholic and a declared Pantheist, Sausalito artist Franc Snyder has completed what he considers to be his most important work of art—the Stations of the Cross.

The stations, or Way of the Cross as they are sometimes called, are 14 scenes showing the stages of Christ's passion. Catholics, in services, offer a prayer at each of the 14 stations.

Snyder said the work was two years in planning and nine months in actual painting. "I started it," he said, "because of miss-mixing media."

He ruined a painting, Snyder said, then, looking at the damage, got the idea of using the technique in other paintings. From then on he controlled the use of his "mistake."

Rich in color, the technique, which is done in oil, gives the effect of painting on stained glass as well as of mosaic work. Blue is used in the paintings as a focal point and the paintings have a three-dimensional effect.

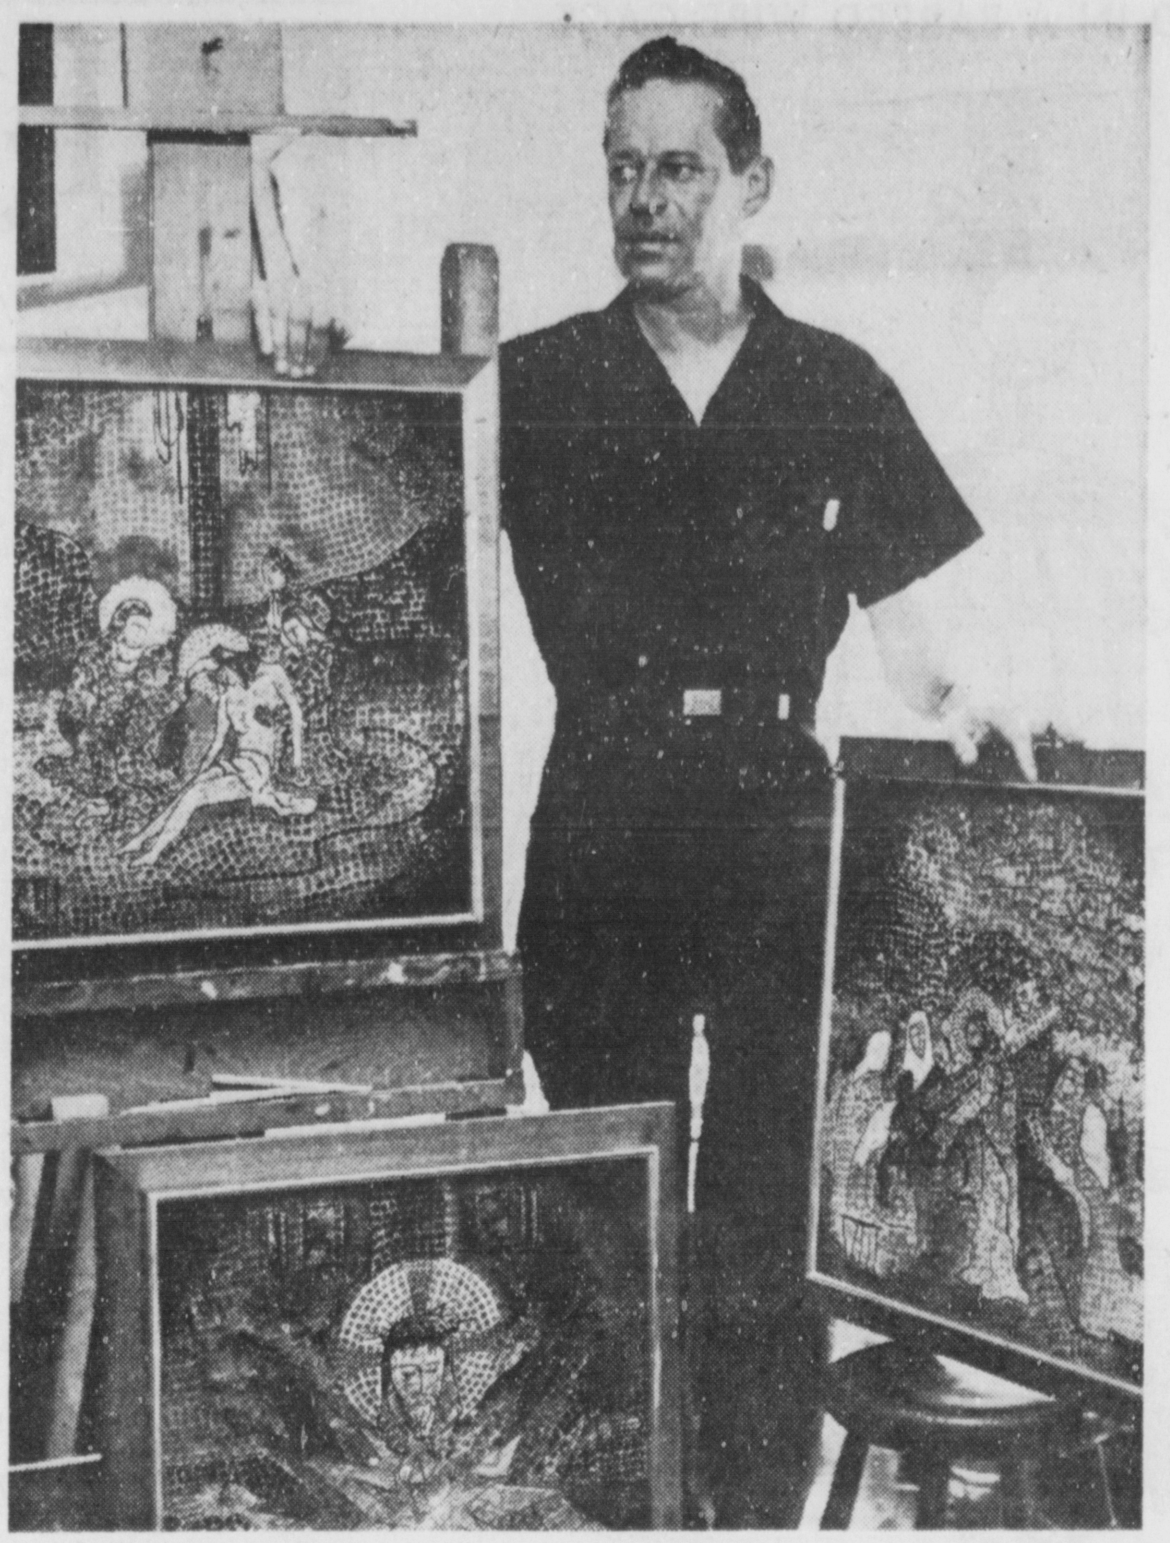
Snyder said he has always been interested in the study of religious history.

"I have a Pantheistic approach to life. I feel there is a deity in all of nature," he said.

The 45-year-old artist said one does not often see the Stations of the Cross in liturgical works. "The main reason is that it takes so much time and patience to produce them. I painted things like the demons (pointing to a painting on the wall of his studio) in the meantime to get off the kick.

"I painted the Medusa, this demon, right in the middle of my work. I had to," he added, "after all, these are 14 paintings of tragedy. I was a witness to an execution."

He said that many of the great painters of liturgical art in the past were accused of heresy because they painted gods and devils too.



PANTHEIST PAINTS CATHOLIC ART — Franc Snyder, Sausalito artist, displays some of the unusual paintings of the Stations of the Cross which he has made. They must be placed in a church, he says, but he doesn't know where. (Independent-Journal photo)

Snyder's study prior to starting the painting was mainly in travel to many Catholic churches to study the stations.

The 14 scenes will be displayed for the first time as a feature of the Sausalito Art Festival, Sept. 2-4 at Central School playground, 420 Litho Street.

Snyder, a frequent visitor to the Big Sur, at one time planned to give the stations to the Mission of San Antonio de los Padres in the Santa Lucia Mountains in exchange for food from the mission gardens. But, having changed his mind about living in the woods of those mountains, he does not know now what he will do with them. "They will have to be in a church," he said.

He added he would like them to be hung in the form of a cross against a white stone wall with light shining on them from a stained glass window. The scenes were painted on fiber board. They were framed in redwood for Snyder by Betty de Prado of Sausalito.

Snyder said his greatest problem was the emotional impact of the work. He said he almost gave up a couple of times.

The artist said he plans to do a large Nativity scene by Christmas.

When Man Dies He Leaves A Hole In An Organization

When a man dies he leaves a hole in any organization. This is particularly true if he has been regularly on his job for a third of a century.

Thus it is, with the loss of Arthur La Fontaine we at the Independent-Journal feel this distinct sense of loss.

It's not that we were always so close to him, or even that we saw him every day (this happens less and less as organizations grow). But we always knew that Art would be on the job, that he could be relied upon and that the job he had to do would be done.

Thus when he is suddenly taken away without much warning, even doctors were unable to diagnose his problems until after he was gone, there is a void.

True, his job is being filled; there is no blank space in today's newspaper because he didn't set the type for it. But Art isn't in the composing room.

He isn't ambling from his type setting machine to the long table where he deposited his galley of type. He won't be stopping at the water cooler before strolling back to his machine, swinging his shoulders in the slow, deliberate manner in which he moved.

He won't be greeting us as we invade the back shop or run into him at a downtown store.

We'll miss Art La Fontaine. He served his country, his community, his union and his employer well and faithfully. He was the third oldest I-J employee in years of service.

And we appreciate every one of them.

The Jasper And Jade Tree

There is no tree quite like the madrone. See it from a distance in the evening sun, its rich red bark glowing in the sunset. Place your hand upon the trunk and feel its mysterious coolness even on the hottest day.

The terra-cotta color of its bark, interspersed with jade green patches, makes this Marin native an unusual delight to the eyes. Large, glossy, leathery leaves which resemble those of a rhododendron or magnolia, add to its beauty. Birds seek out its big orange berries in autumn.

Experts disagree on the economic value of its wood. Some say it becomes brittle, splits easily and is fit only for charcoal and tobacco pipes. Others say it is fine-grained heavy, and takes a fine polish and makes an excellent hardwood floor.

However, everyone is agreed this handsome broadleaf evergreen is a jewel of a tree—jasper and jade in their own green setting.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

'DEAD' LAD BEGINS LIFE AGAIN

Five Chicago doctors teamed up to rebuild the life processes of a 2½-year-old boy whose heart had stopped for more than five minutes.

A severe case of bronchitis had so congested the breathing of the boy that all heartbeats ceased. Ordinarily this means that, even if one recovers, the brain is damaged by lack of oxygen and the victim reduced to a vegetative existence.

The physicians, one of them the lad's father, applied "every talent known to science." They lowered his body temperature to slow his oxygen intake; gave him drugs to control convulsions; eased his breathing with oxygen; and treated his windpipe with a special solution.

Their efforts succeeded, although the child had to relearn all his bodily functions as if he were a newborn baby.

Just as doctors cooperate with God's physical laws rather than make laws of their own, so you should strive to work along with His changeless moral law.

"Not that we are sufficient to think anything of ourselves, as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God."

Not Even Algebra Aids Mother In The Maze Of Today's Market

By JOY STILLEY
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Every housewife needs a purse-size electronic computer, to take to the supermarket along with the grocery list.

Failing this, she should at least have a master's degree in higher mathematics if she hopes to make her money go to its stretchiest limits.

Arrayed on the shelves are cans, packages and boxes in all sizes from wee tiny ones, through middle-sized ones and on up to great big ones. And it's up to Mama Bear to decide just which one will provide most dinner for her dollar.

For instance, two packages of cheese sit chummily side by side. But Mamma's frugal eye notes that one is 29 cents and the other 35 cents.

"Six pennies saved is six pennies earned," she mutters happily to herself as she tosses the cheaper one into her basket.

But it's not that easy. The two brands look just alike but there may be more to this than meets the eye. How about seeing if they weigh the same, a thrifty inner voice cautions.

Aha! Just as she thought. The 29-cent package contains six ounces, but the 35-cent kind boasts a full eight ounces.

Now poor Mamma, long since having forgotten her multiplication tables, must somehow figure out which is the better buy.

By adding 29 to 35, multiplying by 16 and dividing by the number of holes in the cheese, she comes out with a headache—and a four-ounce can of grated cheese.

EVERYTHING COMES in the large economy-size tube, jar, box, can, package or bottle nowadays. But by a lot of fancy figuring a math-minded shopper often discovers it's more economical to buy two of the uneconomical sizes than one of the economy sizes.

Cans are the biggest problem. These require a special algebraic formula to arrive at the price per ounce of avoirdupois.

IF A EQUALS the No. 303 can and B equals the buffet-size can and C equals the No. 2 can and the buffet-size can is really 227 grams, whereas the 8-ounce can serves 1 to 2, what can we have for supper tonight that the whole family will like?

It might be easier at that just to count the number of peas.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Don't Give Up Swim For Sharks

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your reports and editorials covering the case of "man against the shark," (or vice versa), have been of great interest to an overwhelming majority of the population, to say the least. Neighborhood chatter and sidewalk gossip bear this out, yet admittedly this is more than the babbling of idiots.

Out of all this have come many stories of bravery and heroism, struggle and strife, of life and death. Some have survived, unharmed. Some are maimed in one or many capacities. Many have lost their lives in their encounter with the shark, yet, through it all, I wonder if, through the eyes of a shark, the story wouldn't be somewhat interesting, perhaps a bit amusing too.

It would seem that the beaches of the country a scant 10 years or so ago, were scarcely occupied, and that in reality, the shark has been around for eons of time, as it were. Had there been a man in the water, he could hardly have been found by a shark, starving for "Homo-Sapien."

Today though, 10 years hence, the population on the increase at the rate of 30,000 per day, by migration over the border alone, people by the millions have taken to the water. Beaches upon which you would have needed binoculars to find a friend just a while back, are so crowded that there is standing room only. The water? Standing room only!! Perhaps the chance of a human getting in the way of a shark has increased far more than the mere increase in the numbers of sharks.

We human beings panic and live in mortal fear at every new thing, and even sacrifice the enjoyment of living, out of this fear of the unknown. What about the advent of the automobile? Man, with less sense than the horse he was riding (in many cases), ran headlong into the dark of the bush to hide from the "darned old thing."

The aeroplane, they said, was stupidity in bloom. We were crazy to risk our lives trying to fly in that machine. What about the crashes on the road, increasing because of involvement by increasing population. And the aeroplane? Involvement by increased population accounts for more chance.

And the shark? More and more participation by more and more population accounts for the predicament we work feverishly to explain. In how many other ways do we risk our lives, (literally take our lives in our own hands), each new day when we run the ordinary risk of living and carrying out the duties of life, whether it be for fun or profit?

How many hike the trails of Mount Tamalpais with its rattlers crawling all over? Surely you're as dead from a 30-inch serpent as from a 30-foot shark, (providing he gets all of you). And who had the most enjoyment last Sunday? The fellow who took an ordinary risk in life, enjoying a day at the beach and a swim in the ocean, a hike over Tam, a drive down the Pike, or a dead-beat at age 109 who never enjoyed a day of his life?

Enter the crosswalk at the corner and question the driver of the car coming at you. Is he a drunk! Wow! You've had it! How about your jet ride? Will you plummet to earth from 25,000 feet? Even though you didn't "go near the water," did someone frighten you nearly to death, wheeling around the "U" turns on Tam, crowding you nearly over the edge? And your day was such a joyous affair. You might as well have enjoyed a dip, too!

Call us what you will, but some of us Americans love to swim. Sit around on the beach if you like, but "don't go near the water."

Admittedly the risk is there. It's there, everywhere, every day, every way. While you think I'm feeding the sharks, I think you're feeding the "road hog." While you're laughing at me, I'm laughing too. While I'm enjoying every minute, I'm wondering about you. On this much we both agree, one day we'll laugh together.

So, planes, cars, trains, subways, tennis, hiking, football, or just plain SWIMMING! Let's quit living?? No, not I.

Need Christianity In Car Driving

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I am enclosing the attached because of the increased tragedies on the highways and the apparent moral irresponsibility of so many of us.

I think this piece in a newspaper could be an eye-opener as it has to us Episcopalians who have read it.

JOSEPH M. REYNOLDS
Corte Madera

(NOTE: Reader Reynolds enclosed a sheet torn from a church bulletin which contained an article "The Christian Behind The Wheel." It cited statistics on highway casualties, then said in part:

"As Christians face up the statistics of highway safety, it should give sufficient cause for a re-reading of the Sixth Commandment. It is not only the malice aforethought, anger or passion that give rise to murder; nor are guns, knives or poisons the instruments. Sane, peace-loving kindly Christians who want to save a few seconds, who get wrapped up in conversation, or who just don't think, turn out to be mankillers in the twinkling of an eye. When the horrible tragedy happens, they are sorry beyond words, they didn't mean to do it, but they have killed and sinned against God and their neighbor."

20 YEARS AGO

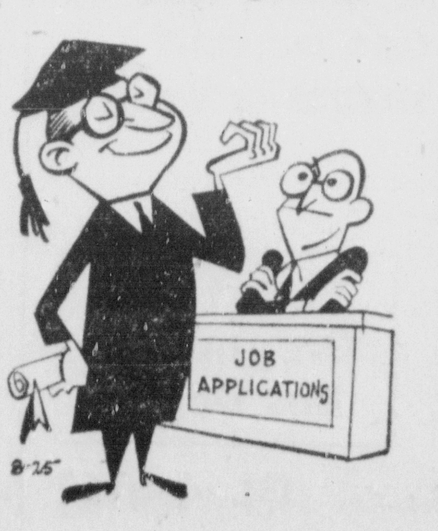
County auditor Leon A. deLisle reported that the county hospital and farm did not use its full budget allotment for the 1940-41 fiscal year, winding up with a surplus of $7,840.32.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A University of Chicago graduate, the ink on his diploma not yet dry, was being interviewed for a job. "What are your outside interests?" he was asked. "My avocation," announced the graduate, "is constructing intricate high-fidelity units."

The personnel manager took off his bi-focals. "Young man," he pointed out, "vice-presidents have avocations. Heads of departments have hobbies. You — you're just foolin' around."



There's a student at Iowa State who figures he can make a million dollars if he can teach his poodle to talk. "You're on the wrong track," his roommate assured him. "Who'd pay a million dollars for a talking dog?"

"Nobody," admitted the student, "but I bet I could find a half dozen dog food outfits who'd pay me a million just to keep him quiet!"

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By THERON NEWELL

Corte Madera Volunteer Firemen Aiding Chief, Learn He's Suspicious

A group of Corte Madera volunteer firemen attended Monday night's meeting of the Town Council. They were there to give moral support to Fire Chief Frank Nelson when the question of a second fire station east of Highway 101 came before the council.

Council members asked Nelson if he did not think that it would be unwise to have the fire truck unguarded in an unlocked building. Nelson shook his head. He mentioned other fire districts that have unlocked, unguarded fire stations.

"Why, I've been with the Corte Madera volunteer firemen for 28 years. In that time, we have had only one theft—that of a tank of gasoline," Nelson said.

"And I still think it was an inside job," Nelson added, to the guffaws of the embarrassed firemen.

SOMEONE APPROACHED your reporter to comment on the recent column on buying used cars.

"No one gets the best of a car dealer," he said. "They just don't get taken the worst."

And someone else thoroughly trounced your reporter for a term used in reporting on Larkspur's galloping Doherty Drive. This street, now being constructed between Magnolia Avenue and Redwood High School, will not stay put. It keeps sliding out into the oozy mud into what we once referred to as a swamp.

We were, but thoroughly, corrected—it is marshland, not swamp.

The person did it with all the haughtiness of someone correcting a tourist for calling the city south of the Golden Gate "Frisco" not "San Francisco."

THE CITY of Larkspur has a proposed grading ordinance before the City Council, aimed at controlling the movement of dirt.

It exempts such things as basements, swimming pools, graves, wells, tunnels and mine shafts. (Anyone want to sink a mine shaft in downtown Larkspur?)

But it omitted BOMB SHELTERS!

Believe you me, if the prophets of doom are right digging bomb shelters should be second to digging graves.

EVER SINCE World War II, the federal government has been after the "populus" to build its own bomb shelters. Hardly anyone has taken it seriously.

This brings up a very interesting question, why don't people take the federal government seriously on such important things as civil defense and the Berlin crisis?

Could it be that the public has built up an immunity to listening to Washington, D.C.?

Perhaps this little jewel released by the Department of Agriculture would help explain the public's tongue-in-cheek attitude toward its big Uncle Samuel.

The Agriculture Department came out with a very interesting statistic, aimed we imagine, at encouraging the dairy industry. It states that the 4,000,000 babies born during 1960 would drink 50,000,000,000 quarts of milk in their lifetimes.

Now, how does that department measure the amount of milk consumed by breast fed babies?

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Tragic Truth Is That Khrushchev Is Winning A Real Victory In Berlin

BERLIN—Though Western diplomats would like to put a more agreeable face on it, the tragic truth is that Nikita S. Khrushchev, ruthless, wily, and unafraid to risk war, is winning some of his main objectives in the battle for Berlin.

Mr. K's victory will not be readily conceded by the Germans, or by the British, or by American officials. But it is grimly in the making. It is visible, in fact, in event and in atmosphere the minute you come within sighting distance, of the desolate Brandenburg Gate, through which so many thousands of East Germans fled to freedom.

I am not referring only to the Red militia, who have turned their guns on their own people to halt the refugees.

These massive and violent acts of repression—all in bald violation of the four-power agreements to permit free travel between East and West Berlin—have been prominent in the headlines.

BUT THE TRUTH, the symbol, the forecast of the shape of things to come are contained in the less publicized fact that the three Western powers took the most "tactful," elaborate, let's-not-provoke-anybody precautions at the Brandenburg gate to make sure that the West Berliners did not gather to hurl even an unkind word at the Communist troops, or even an encouraging cheer to an East German who might still break through to freedom.

Now, the new Chinese wall is sealing off the borders so that it can be neither scaled nor pierced. Not only has the flow of refugees been brought to a standstill, but hope of escape has been snuffed out.

THE FACT IS, the Berlin crisis is entering a new phase and, from the standpoint of the West, a deteriorating phase. I say this because the known—but not always admitted—position of the West is to accept these events with reluctance, yes, even with anguish, but also with a kind of relief.

I do not contend that these events could have been averted, or altered, except by the use of force which would have made war over Berlin probable.

We did not have the will to do so. We did not have the non-nuclear power to do so. Chancellor Adenauer did not have the wish to do so. It is doubted that even Mayor Willy Brandt would have recommended that we do so.

We have, therefore, acquiesced — after making the proper protest.

MY PURPOSE in saying this is not to suggest that special blame rests with Washington or London or Paris. I say it because it is imperative that we see candidly what has happened so that we understand what lies ahead. And do our best to make the most of it.

•What lies ahead is this: Khrushchev is not through. Having seized the border by force of arms, having made it impossible for West Berlin to be a show window of freedom and prosperity to any but the convinced, his next step will be to attempt to terrorize, intimidate, and so depress the people of West Berlin that this once vibrant city will in time shrink and shrivel.

It is probable that the greatest danger of war has now passed:

1. Because Khrushchev and the East German Communists have already attained a psychologically reduced West Berlin, and this is sufficient for the present.

2. Because the Soviets know that new encroachments upon the visible freedom of West Berlin would be resisted by force by the West.

West Berlin will remain a "free" city for some time to come. Whether it can escape becoming a lonely, hopeless, declining city is very much in doubt.

Hub Couple Celebrates 64 Years Wed

An Anniversary Very Few People Able To Match

F. Harry and Mary Catherine Berry of San Anselmo today marked an anniversary that few can match: 64 years married.

They celebrated yesterday, a day ahead of time, at a party at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Irene Dudley, at 45 Mountain View Avenue, San Anselmo.

The couple, who were married in Winona, Minn., on Aug. 25, 1897, have lived at 931 San Anselmo Avenue for the past eight years. "We came here from Spokane, Wash., to be near our daughter," explained Mrs. Berry, who turned a hale and hearty 89 years old last Saturday.

Their daughter, Dorothy, the wife of Dr. Earle M. Young of 11 Madrone Avenue in Kentfield, has been a Marinite for almost 30 years. Living with them in San Anselmo is their son, Harold, a former airplane pilot who logged 20,000 air miles in 18 years of flying, beginning in 1927.

"We went together for five years before we were married," Mrs. Berry said — adding that the engagement was "too long."

On their wedding day in Winona ("a lovely town"), Berry was a 26-year old machinist in the shops of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad.

"Harry was on his way to becoming foreman," she recalls. But the family moved to Keesling, Wash., in 1908 because of her husband's health. There they bought a 10-acre ranch where for seven years they "practically starved to death" growing potatoes, apples and cherries. He kept the family going by doing carpentry work on the side.

"Nobody would buy those beautiful potatoes and fruit," Mrs. Berry said, adding philosophically that their arrival in Keesling was on April Fool's Day.

Their next stop was Spokane where Berry worked in machine shops until 1953 when they moved to Marin. He retired at that time. He reached the age of 90 on the 25th of last month.

Since they have lived in San Anselmo, both have been active members of the First Baptist Church, which they attend as often as possible.

"I was baptized in the church 78 years ago," Mrs. Berry said proudly.

Glass Keys To Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Glass making is the major industry in Toledo and notable visitors are presented glass keys to the city.

Leo J. Wonderly, city council sergeant-at-arms and keeper of the glass keys, estimates about 1,500 have been passed out to visiting dignitaries, including President Kennedy and former Vice President Richard Nixon.

Nixon made a memorable comment on receiving the token, referring to its as "this plastic key."

Senate Passes On Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy's bill to establish the overseas Peace Corps on a permanent basis was passed today by the Senate.

The measure, which now goes to the House, authorizes 40 million dollars for the corps' first year with the intent of putting 2,700 volunteers abroad or in training by next June 30.

Just before passage on a voice vote, Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) withdrew an amendment proposing to cut the money authorization to 30 million dollars.

Hickenlooper said yesterday's 59 to 32 defeat of his previous amendment to cut the fund to 25 million dollars substantially settled that issue.

Hickenlooper joined in supporting passage with what he called "mixed emotions."

He said some of the Peace Corps volunteers have been attracted by the idea of seeing "strange and exotic places and eating exotic food . . .

"But I predict it will not be a picnic," he added. "And I hope we do not delude ourselves into thinking this is the answer to all human relations."

College Of Marin Awards Repair Work Contracts

Contracts for repairing several College of Marin buildings were awarded last night by the Marin Junior College District board.

Tresch Electrical Co., Novato, was awarded electrical work on several buildings with its bid of $13,213. Dill and Sederberg, Mill Valley, was awarded boiler repair work on several buildings with its bid of $1,548.

Booth and Little, Larkspur, won the contract for reroofing a portion of the Science Building with its bid of $760.

The items are rated top priority needs on a list of old buildings as prepared by Falk and Booth, architects.

The district board meeting also:

1—Approved use of school facilities by various groups, including use of football field by Marin Boys Club, Inc., on various dates in September and October, with proviso that public address system not be used.

2—Approved visit at date to be set later by trustees, superintendent and dean of instruction to California Polytechnic College to study printing and other occupational programs.

3—Approved attendance by board members and three administrators to Junior College Assn. meeting at Yosemite Oct. 31-Nov. 2 and attendance by Dr. Ellsworth Briggs, dean of adult education, at American Assn. of Junior Colleges Commission on Legislation meeting Oct. 20-21 in Chicago.

4—Voted approval and assistance (about $400) to William H. Scalapino, who is using project to win a doctorate, to make community and college survey of College of Marin curriculum (a project the board felt would cost thousands of dollars if done by outside consultants).

5—Heard a report by Irwin Diamond, dean of students, that 1,000 to 1,100 students, including about 18 from foreign countries, will be starting classes Sept. 11.

6—Discussed textbooks but declined to have a committee study them. Trustees observed texts in junior colleges do not require board vote—but Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, trustee and board clerk, said she wanted to review books used as reading matter year after year and other trustees agreed this matter deserved inspection.

7—Accepted resignation of Mrs. Marie Eddy, library clerk, and approved hiring of Patricia A. Pomerlo to replace her at $300 per month effective Sept. 1.

Today is Friday, Aug. 25, the 237th day of the year with 128 to following in 1961.

The moon is full.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1839, American author Bret Harte was born.

In 1944, United States troops liberated Paris in World War II.

In 1950, to forestall a general strike, President Harry Truman seized all railroads in the nation.

A thought for today: Bret Harte said: "One big voice in a man is apt to keep out a great many smaller ones."

'QUIT — QUIT — QUIT'

Veteran Chinese Laundryman Is 'Throwing In The Towel'

By RANDALL GOULD

"Everybody quit — quit — quit!" says San Rafael's veteran Chinese laundryman. "So I quit too!"

Lee Poy, longtime proprietor of the confusingly named Sam Long Laundry, is "throwing in the towel" at a young 64 though still bubbling with pep.

The doors of his establishment, more venerable than himself but its age unknown, will slam shut forever at 1107 Second Street next Thursday (providing they don't fall off meanwhile; it could happen any minute).

Thus will pass one of the last of the old-time Chinese laundries to be found in Marin County or anywhere. (China itself never has had many laundries.) One other, the Wing Sing Laundry, remains at 914 Lincoln Avenue.

It seems safe to forecast that no further business of any kind will be conducted there. In the words of Lee's second son (who adds confusion by using Poy as a family name), "No use trying to rebuild. Better tear it down."

His own decision to quit seems to have been a decisive turning-point.

Rush your laundry in today if you want any more service at Sam Long. Today is the announced deadline for acceptance of work. But the boss is not happy about it.

"Just too hard to get help," says Lee Poy with a hard look back at son Joe Poy. "Boy no like laundry business. Wife gets tired. Old fellow Tom 65, going get Social Security, so he quit too. No use."

Tom has been around only a little over 30 years so Lee has not found out the rest of his name yet. Everybody has been too busy for any great amount of social intercourse, it seems.

"Six, seven days work a week," says son Joe, clamping down on an automatic pressing machine (they don't depend on the old-fashioned Chinese flatiron around Sam Long). "And hot? That's a big part of it.

"Anyway," Joe adds a little defensively lest he be held solely responsible for the decision to quit, "I'm not the oldest son.

"He works over at the post office. And another's in the insurance business."

Joe's sister Karen was saying nothing and working hard nearby. She isn't Karen Lee but Karen Poy, which led to query.

"Too many Lees," said Lee Poy with a grin. "Jus' like too many Wongs. And too many Smiths. Children like to use name not so many of."

The reason this is the Sam Long rather than the Lee Poy laundry is that the present owner is the third. He never even knew the first owner, reputedly extinguished in a Tong war. He bought from a second man in 1927 after coming from his birthplace in Kwangtung Province of South China in 1917.

His father, he recalls, at that time operated a store in San Rafael's C Street. Business wasn't always booming, Lee Poy got some laundry experience in D Street, and when the chance came to operate for himself he snapped it up with the acumen common to his race.

During his 44 years in San Rafael, Lee Poy, now father of four sons and two daughters, made just one trip home to China. That was in 1924 and so far as he is now concerned that's it.

"China no more good," says he with finality. "No money in China, anyhow."

Asked about the extent of his prosperity in the laundry business, Lee Poy pointed to big bundles of newly-arrived work with the comment "plenty of customers," but was deprecatory as to financial return: "Just enough to keep family."

The floor is at various levels and the boards yield alarmingly as one tip-toes around inspecting things. There are three steam pressers, a cash register, but Chinese numbers appear on the work tags.

There used to be Chinese ideographs on the laundry tickets but these disappeared at least 20 years ago, Lee Poy thinks. Son Joe can't recall them.

Things still move at a brisk clip in the Sam Long Laundry. But there is a feeling of disinterest to which Lee Poy is closely attuned.

Looking at the busy workers, he says suddenly: "You fellows no like work laundry. All right, I take it easy too, now."

10th Annual Cat Show Set For Marin

The Marin Cat Fanciers' 10th annual cat show will be held Oct. 28-29 in the new armory at the Marin Civic Center in Santa Venetia.

A record number of entries is expected, according to William R. Deeths, show manager. The armory will provide exhibition space far larger than previous shows have had, he noted.

Judges will be Mrs. Betty O'Brien, all-breed, and Mrs. Lillian Pedulla, shorthair and longhair specialties.

Among new features of this year's show will be a children's art exhibition.

Show proceeds go to the Marin County Humane Society.

Information about entries may be obtained from Deeths, 74 Wellington Avenue, Ross; Mrs. Evelyn Kionig, 121 Terrace Avenue, Kentfield, or Mrs. Byrne E. Davis, 541 Whitewood Drive, Terra Linda.

Broader Premarital Law Is Urged For California

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A group of local health officers has recommended broadening of California's premarital examination law to require complete physical examinations and premarital advice.

The recommendation of the California Conference of Local Health Officers was reported to Gov. Edmund G. Brown today by the State Public Health Department.

The proposal was made on the basis of a department study of the state's premarital examination law, which now calls for a blood test only.

The study disclosed that since 1940, a total of 3.7 million Californians have taken the exam. Of these, 56,000, or 1.55 per cent, showed reactions indicating syphilis.

Other findings disclosed that almost all those interviewed had adequate knowledge of the exam law and felt it is worthwhile, and that 11 per cent felt the law should be broadened.

Only 17 per cent said they had sought premarital counseling from their doctors, and about the same percentage said they had questions concerning family relations which they had wanted to ask at the time of the state examination.

Convicted Wife Slayer To Get New Marin Trial

Robert Burdette Rogers, 42-year old San Gabriel contractor convicted of murdering his wife at a San Rafael home in 1959, is scheduled to be brought back into Marin Superior Court Monday morning for a new trial on the same charge.

His conviction was reversed last july by the State Supreme Court, which decided Rogers was deprived of due process of law because of a stipulation entered at the time of the first trial. At that time, Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety and defense lawyer Gregory Stout stipulated that the verdict would be restricted to second degree murder or manslaughter. This denied the presumption that Rogers is innocent until proved guilty, the Supreme Court ruled.

Sheriff's deputies will bring Rogers back to Marin tomorrow from the state prison at Tehachapi. He was sent there on a five year-to-life term.

On Monday morning, Rogers will be arraigned, and a date set for the new trial. His lawyer this time is Robert H. Aarons of Pasadena.

Novato Hot-Rod Shop Reports Stolen Tools

About $150 worth of tools were stolen from a hot-rod shop in Novato, the owner reported to sheriff's deputies Wednesday.

Gilbert Florke of 424-A Locust Street, Sausalito, owns the store at 442 School Lane in Novato. He told officers that electric drills, assorted bits and wrenches are missing from his shop.

State Funds Surplus

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California wound up the 1960-61 fiscal year with an unappropriated surplus of 38.01 million dollars in the General Fund, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

In addition, Cranston said, there was a surplus of 67 million dollars in appropriated funds that have not yet been spent.

Planners Ask Change In Definition

The Sausalito Planning Commission has recommended to the city council a change in the definition of a hotel which would require that hotels in other than commercial areas would have to be strictly residential with no accessory uses such as bars and restaurants.

At present, hotels are permitted with accessory uses. The hotel and apartment zone runs, roughly, from south to Filbert Street along Bridgeway and off Bridgeway into the hills for about one and one-half blocks into residential areas.

The commission also will ask as a proposed change to the new zoning ordinance that a hotel, whether or not it has accessory uses, be called a commercial use. It would ask that a commercial hotel with accessory uses be allowed in the present commercial zone except in the two blocks of the commercial zone between Valley and Richardson streets.

It suggests that each accessory use of a hotel in a commercial zone should be treated separately, as if it were a separate business.

New Child's Bike Found Abandoned

A brand new child's bicycle, with price tag and guarantee tag still on it, was found abandoned at Albert Field near the children's wading pool Wednesday, San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa announced today.

The tags do not indicate the name of any store. Chief Chiesa said the owner may claim the bicycle at the police station by properly identifying it.

Two boys at Albert Field found the bicycle and took it to the station last night. They are Birney McDevitt, 11, of 829 C Street and James Wade, 9, of 813 Fifth Avenue.

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council did not meet Wednesday night due to the small number of members available because of vacations. The next regular meeting will be Sept. 27.

WORK STARTS ON NEW SCHOOL

Construction is under way on an addition to the Wolf Grade School in the Kentfield School District. Examining plans for the new $89,535 addition on the scene are (from left) Supt. Howard C. Harmon, Arnold Griewe, inspector for the district, and W. P. Dockery, job superintendent for H. D. Grae, general contractor. The contract calls for administration offices, library, kindergarten classroom, covered walkways and a faculty patio. (Independent-Journal photo)

Jaycees In Mill Valley Propose Playground

The Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce today proposed the city build a playground for children on the city's recreational site, Project 17.

The playground, to be similar to Pixie Place at the Marin Art and Garden Center at Ross, would be available to Southern Marin youngsters, Chamber treasurer L. R. Paterson said.

Directors plan to see builders and building material firms to try to obtain materials such as pipe for a jungle gym and concrete tiles for a children's tunnel. Activities will be held to pay for the playground installation, the first of which is a hole-in-one contest Sept. 16 and 17 at Hole 8 at the Municipal Golf Course.

The Jaycees also announced plans to sponsor a five- or three-man bowling team of Junior Chamber members.

A membership party is to be given at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of president Lee Shain at 192 Lovell Avenue. Paterson said men from 21 to 35 and their wives are invited.

T. J. de Lasaux Jr. has been appointed Jaycee secretary to replace Burke Critchfield, who has moved to Livermore.

PROFILE OF THE WEEK — Novato's William Nave Sr. is a man who has crammed a lot of living into his years. One way he accomplished this was by getting an early start. By the time he was 13, he already had two men working for him, buying and selling livestock and farm equipment. When he was 15, he started the jitney business in an era when cars were still something of a novelty. Now Nave business projects are a major part of North Marin. For instance, his Nave Shopping Center in Novato. Or his new Nave Lanes, near Hamilton Air Force Base, among northern California's finest bowling facilities. You can read more about William Nave Sr. and his family in tomorrow's Independent-Journal Marin Magazine in a "profile" written by I-J reporter Ellen Bry.

MARIN GRIDDERS READY FOR 1961 SEASON

Marin high schools' locker rooms blossomed out with shoulder pads, jerseys, helmets, etc., this week as coaches prepared to open practice for the 1961 football season. Here, Coach Bob Franceschini of Sir Francis Drake High School chats with halfback Rich Bottini (left) and end Larry Kline as equipment was issued to the Drake Pirates. Practice will start on a full scale Monday at Drake along with the other schools in the Marin Athletic League—Redwood, San Rafael, Novato, Marin Catholic and Tamalpais. The 1961 practice schedule begin Sept. 15 and the MAL race starts on Oct. 13. (Independent-Journal photo)

Giants Still Confident; Invade St. Louis Tonight

ST. LOUIS (AP) — There are still plenty of skeptics about the San Francisco Giants' chances of capturing the National League pennant, but not, apparently, among the team's players or coaching staff.

Even after last night's 8-5 loss to the league-leading Cincinnati Reds, the Giants expressed confidence.

"We still have to play them one at a time," said Manager Alvin Dark in the dressing room after the Reds snapped his team's six-game win streak.

ANYBODY'S RACE

Jack Sanford, last night's losing pitcher, said: "It's anybody's race now." And he made it plain that anybody just might be the Giants.

"Why not?" asked catcher Ed Bailey, "Those two clubs out in front of us are looking back over their shoulders at us and shaking."

"So we lost a game," chimed in Orlando Cepeda. "Now we go out and win six more."

The fifth-place St. Louis Cardinals, who just finished sweeping a series from second-place Los Angeles, go with ace Ray Sadecki (11-6) to the hill tonight against San Francisco's Billy O'Dell (4-4).

The third-place Giants were dropped five games back of Cincinnati last night. Sanford (10-7) was chased in the seventh, but Stu Miller who relieved him didn't have much luck either as the Reds scored four unearned runs on errors by Willie McCovey and John Orsino.

The Giants trailed all the way. Leo Gardenas, put into the line-up by Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson in a shakeup to bolster the sagging Reds, batted in three runs with three hits.

At one point the Reds held a 4-0 lead. Orlando Cepeda doubled to drive in the Giants' first two runs in the sixth. The Giants scored two more in the eighth and another in the ninth.

McCovey went three for five, scored twice and batted in a run. Since the big first baseman came back into the lineup last Friday he has hit at a blistering .500 clip and was a big factor in the surge that saw the Giants sweep three games from Los Angeles and three from Cincinnati.

49ers Praise Vikings As Veteran Club

The San Francisco 49ers will be gunning for their first exhibition season win tomorrow against the Minnesota Vikings in Portland.

The 49er coaches lavished praise on the new Minnesota club yesterday.

"The Vikings have only one rookie in the offensive starting lineup—and that's Tommy Mason, the country's top college back last year," said defensive coach Mark Duncan.

"Minnesota's first group is pretty strong, mostly veterans who were first-stringers with other clubs," remarked Head Coach Red Hickey, but added the Vikings' "reserve strength isn't quite so good."

Line coach Bill Johnson put his charges through 30 minutes of full-speed blocking and tackling practice again yesterday.

Hickey announced Lou Cordileone, the 250-pound lineman traded to the 49ers in exchange for quarterback Y. A. Tittle, will make his first start in the Minnesota game, replacing veteran Monte Clark at defensive right tackle.

Other lineup changes announced by Hickie include rookie Bernie Casey at end in place of the injured veteran Clyde Conner and replacing guard Mike Magac with Ted Connolly.

C. R. Roberts will start at the fullback spot filled by rookie J. W. Lockett last week.

Teachers say the sport is a good boy-girl mixer. The suggestion also has been made that housewives might enjoy a few thrusts at a fencing dummy to "dispel hostilities, gain poise, lose weight and acquire dexterity enough to take on their mates in an after-dinner duel."

Dodgers Continue Nosedive; Open Cincy Series Tonight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Managers Fred Hutchinson and Walt Alston had the same idea when it came to doing something about losing streaks, but only Hutch had the right answer—and it gave his Cincinnati Reds a 3½-game lead again over Alston's still-slumping Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League race.

Hutchinson, after losing four in a row, juggled his line-up and came up with Leo Cardenas and Dick Gernert, who paired for five hits and four RBI as the Reds cooled off San Francisco 8-5 last night.

Alston also juggled his line-up, inserting old pro Duke Snider. But the Duke was 0-for-4 and the second-place Dodgers lost their 10th in a row, 10-1 at St. Louis, before shoving off for Cincinnati and tonight's opener of a four-game series with the Reds.

The Reds shook their slump with four unearned runs in the seventh inning, triggered by Cardenas' winning three-run double, and ended San Francisco's winning string at six.

Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 6-1, with Warren Spahn winning No. 303, and Philadelphia tagged the Chicago Cubs 7-4.

In the American League, the Los Angeles Angels rapped New York 6-4, once again shutting off Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle without a home run. Second-place Detroit defeated Cleveland 6-0. Kansas City beat Baltimore 5-3, Minnesota smacked the Chicago White Sox 3-0 and Boston defeated Washington 5-4 in 10 innings.

WHITE HOMERS

The Cards socked loser Stan Williams (11-10), quick, scoring in the first on Bill White's two-run homer. Alex Grammas, a .148 hitter, drove in five runs, three with a seventh-inning double, for the Cards. Lindy McDaniel won his 10th in relief.

Snider, subbing in center for the benched Tommy Davis, and Maury Willis were the only Dodger starters who failed to hit.

The Braves cracked a 1-1 tie in the second inning at Pittsburgh when Frank Thomas singled off loser Bob Friend (12-16). Spahn, who singled home the first run, gave up 10 hits.

A three-run homer by Don Demeter sewed it up in a six-run second inning for the Phils.

Place McCovey On Draft List? The Thought's Ridiculous Now

HANLEY

ST. LOUIS — A few weeks ago it would have been an almost certain bet that Willie McCovey would be among the Giant players who will be offered for draft by the two new National League clubs, the New York Mets and Houston Colts. And now? The thought is almost ridiculous.

McCovey has had more ups and downs in his brief major league career than the Himalayas have humps. He soared higher than Mt. Everest in 1959 as the N.L. Rookie of the Year. He dipped lower than the Dead Sea as a 1960 sophomore. And this year, after more ups and downs, it appeared the Giants were just about ready to give up on him.

At least that was a logical conclusion as the second half of the 1961 campaign started with McCovey no longer on first base. Alvin Dark, who took over the Giants with an open mind despite all the stories he heard pro and con about McCovey, watched the big fellow in spring training and liked what he saw.

THE ROOKIE manager unhesitatingly announced that McCovey was his first baseman as the season started and McCovey, during the early weeks, justified the confidence placed in him. Then, the man known as Stretch to his teammates began to puzzle Dark with the most mediocre of efforts at bat while surprisingly turning in some good glove work at first, particularly on those windy fouls that tortured Willie in 1960—and also were a source of anguish to Candlestick Park fans watching him wrestle them.

AFTER ALL, hadn't Dark heard that Willie was a butcher around first? The only difficulty Willie seemed to have was on an option play wherein a bunt or stiff grounder was sent his way. But McCovey is not the only first baseman in the league who is troubled by a fielder's choice or bunt. His problem in this regard, as it is with others, appears to stem from trying to make the second part of the play before making certain of the first part—catching the ball.

Nevertheless, Dark decided on July 9 that he would bench McCovey. July 9 was McCovey's last start until Dark, due to injuries to Matty Alou and Harvey Kuenn, was forced a week ago today to put him back on first and send Orlando Cepeda once more to left field.

AND WHAT has McCovey done since then? No harm at first base—in fact, nothing but good At bat he looks once more like the rookie who set the league on fire with his hot 1959 mid-season debut.

In his first 20 times at bat, McCovey in five games walloped three homers, three doubles and three singles — not quite .500 but the closest any batter can come to it.

How can you put a bat like that up for grabs?

TAM VS. MARIN GRID GAME TO BE TELEVISED

Varsity football players at Tamalpais and Marin Catholic high schools will have the opportunity to sit in their living rooms on Oct. 28 and watch themselves in action on television.

Sounds strange, but true, thanks to video-type and a new series of television features announced today.

KGO-TV (Channel 7), said it will present a 10-game series of Bay Area high school football games this fall. All telecasts will be video taped each Friday night for showing the following day.

The Tam-Marin game is scheduled at Kentfield Friday night, Oct. 27 and the video tape will be screened at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 28.

The TV series will begin with a special preview on Sept. 16 and the first game will be Sept. 23 between Vallejo and Berkeley.

Ard Goes All The Way In N.Y. Contest

Jerry Ard of Sir Francis Drake High School and a resident of Fairfax played all nine innings last night, but his United States All-Stars lost a 6-3 decision to New York City All-Stars in the 16th annual Hearst Sandlot Classic in Yankee Stadium.

The slick-fielding infielder, one of two northern Californians on the U.S. lineup, was at bat four times as he alternated between shortstop and third base. He walked twice and scored a run and popped out to the catcher and third baseman on his two other attempts.

Chuck Midland, the other northern California representative on the U.S. team, was the losing pitcher. The New Yorkers started a five-run rally off him in the fifth inning.

Ard was one of only two U.S. players to play the entire game.

A crowd of 11,688 fans saw the contest.

Pat Rogan, a right-hander from Lynnwood, Calif., was named the game's most valuable player. In his four-inning stint, Rogan struck out eight, walked two, gave up one run and two hits.

Li'l League World Series: Miniature Pros In Action

THE JOYS . . . of sweet victory in the Little League World Series are expressed by these stars of the El Campo, Texas team after a 1-0 victory over Monterrey, Mexico in a semi-final thriller yesterday. Left, Michael Winfield tripled home William Kainer with the winning run.

By WILL GRIMSLEY

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The 11 and 12-year-olds playing in the Little World Series here are carbon copies—in miniature — of bigtime baseball players.

It is as if toy Mickey Mantles and Stan Musials had been taken out of a big box and placed on a stage to go through their routines like puppets on a string.

There is an air of professionalism in every gesture.

Uniforms are cut to fit, and they perform on a shrunken diamond with equipment trimmed to watchpocket specifications. They are all local heroes — the French-speaking boys from Montreal, the Japanese from Hawaii, the Yankee soldiers' sons from Germany, the peppery Mexicans and the plain Americans.

They look, act and sometimes play like major leaguers whom they mimic with every move. Their jaws bulge with bubble gum—instead of tobacco.

The pitcher paws the mound with his rubber-cleated shoes and dusts his pitching hand restlessly with the resin bag. The batter, his tiny head looking lost in the oversized, heavily-padded helmet, kicks up the dust at home plate while waiting for a friendly offering.

A Mexican catcher raises his hand to stop the game. He signals for his outfield to play a little deeper.

An outfielder from El Cajon, Calif., tips his hat to the roaring crowd as he circles the bases and a tyke from El Campo, Tex., explains a game-winning home run to a press conference: "I was only trying to meet the ball."

Admirers and relatives fawn over the half-pint athletes. Little girls queue up to solicit autographs from their favorite stars.

The diminutive heroes sign with an air of resignation. Off the field as on, they act suave and fully self-possessed.

That is, until the end of a tense, exciting game. Then the disappointed losers can't hold up the pretense any longer. Their poise cracks. Their eyes well with tears. A losing pitcher breaks down and sobs openly.

They're real pros, these boys but they're still just 12 years old.

AND HEARTACHES . . . of defeat bring terms to these Monterrey, Mexico players after their elimination in the annual Williamsport, Pa. competition. Win or lose, the Little Leaguers look like miniatures of major league stars. See story. (AP Wirephotos)

Diminutive Wrigley Field Too Big For M&M Boys

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The outfield at Wrigley Field is so short in spots that the Los Angeles Angels have sheepishly hid the distance markers (345 feet), under a splash of paint on the fences in right and left center.

Yet Wrigley Field has looked as big as they come for Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle, the M-M men of the New York Yankees, in their assault on Babe Ruth's 1927 record of 60 homers.

In nine games at Wrigley Field Maris and Mantle, who have hit 96 home runs between them, each managed to jolt only two out of the park—and each was shut out last night as the Yankees lost 6-4 to the Angels in their last visit to Wrigley Field.

In the final three-game series, Maris and Mantle each had just three hits in a combined total of 22 at-bats against Angels' pitching, and only one was a home run. That came in the series opener and it was No. 50 for Maris, now just 11 games ahead of Ruth's 1927 pace. Mantle, with 46, is five games ahead of the Babe.

The loss trimmed the Yankees' lead over Detroit to two games again. The second-place Tigers whipped Cleveland 6-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Frank Lary, who won his 19th.

The Angels were out-hit 13-6 by the Yanks and didn't get a hit after the fourth inning. They didn't need any. Four unearned runs in the fourth had put it away against Jim Coates (9-4), with Joe Koppe's two-out, three-run double breaking a 3-3 tie.

Browns Told To Look Good In L.A. Tilt

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Rams will be the underdogs tonight—on their home turf—as they meet the Cleveland Browns for an exhibition football game.

The oddsmakers usually prefer the Rams in pre-season events. But the game is going to be televised to the east, including Cleveland, and Browns' boss Paul Brown has warned them not to disappoint the home fans. The Browns are favored by one point.

Coach Bob Waterfield will start quick-throwing Zeke Bratkowski at quarterback. Brown will roll with the Jim Brown-Bobby Mitchell-Milt Plum offense.

The game won't be televised locally, and a crowd of some 40,000 is expected at Memorial Coliseum for the 8:15 p.m. kickoff.

Another exhibition clash tonight between the Philadelphia Eagles and the Detroit Lions may give a pretty fair indication of the team to beat in the National Football League this season.

SUB QUARTERBACKS

For the game in Detroit Tiger Stadium both the world champion Eagles and the Lions will experiment with reserve quarterbacks. They are King Hill of Philadelphia and Warren Rabb of Detroit.

Philadelphia Coach Nick Skorich will give Hill, acquired from St. Louis, his first starting quarterback assignment, thinking King may solve part of the problem created by Norm Van Brocklin's departure.

Former pitcher-first baseman Max Macon is scouting for the Detroit Tigers.

Fear Skimpy Field For Gold Cup Race

By JACK STEVENSON

RENO (AP)—The 1961 Gold Cup, national championship for unlimited hydroplanes, faced a skimpy field today unless qualifying hits a stepped up pace before tomorrow's big races.

Only four of the 13 boats at Pyramid Lake had matched the 100-mile-per-hour qualifying requirement going into today's time trials, and even the defending champion wasn't in that quartet.

Miss Reno, winner of the 1959 race as Maverick from Phoenix, Ariz., sped 113.5 m.p.h. for one lap, the best speed here yet, but went dead in the water at the start of her second lap in the three needed for qualification.

RAIN STORM

Shortly after Miss Reno's unsuccessful first attempt, a rainstorm halted activities and knocked out communications.

Miss Spokane, from Washington, and Century 21 of Seattle qualified just before noon, posting course averages of 101.6 and 107.7 m.p.h. for their three runs around a three-mile course. They joined Miss Bardahl of Seattle and Miss U.S. I of Detroit.

Engine trouble, storms and general mishaps frustrated most of the qualifying attempts the first three days.

Cutie Radio of Everett, Wash., ended her third qualifying attempt by throwing a propellor through her hull.

A $35,000 purse will be divided in this two-day event consisting of three races over tomorrow and Sunday.

Marin Catholic Gridders Report

Marin Catholic High School will officially open its 1961 football season tomorrow with physical examinations and distribution of uniforms the order of the day.

All of the school's football prospects will report to the Marin gymnasium at 9 a.m., Coach Harry Moore said.

Eureka Advances In Nat'l Tourney

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Defending champion Grand Rapids, Mich., defeated West Liberty, Ky., 7-3 early today in a first round game of the National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament.

The game was completed shortly before 3 a.m. Fallon, Nev., needed 19 innings to produce a 7-6 victory last night.

Eureka, Calif., moved into the third round undefeated after posting a 13-6 victory over Joliet, Ill.

Fear Of Flying Bringing Jensen To End Of Career?

BOSTON (AP)—Fear of flying apparently is bringing veteran outfielder Jackie Jensen closer to a third and final baseball retirement after a self-imposed "grounding."

Jensen says he has made no decision about returning next season, but the Sox announced last night Jackie would not play the weekend series in Los Angeles starting today.

Instead, Jensen will take a train to Kansas City where he will join the club Monday.

General Manager Dick O'Connell said Jensen would not be paid for the games he misses.

Jensen's aversion to airplanes is deep-seated and stems from childhood.

He has received help from a hypnotist and encouragement from his wife on the subject.

The fear was a major factor in his one year retirement in 1960 and his 10-day re-retirement this spring, April 29-May 8 when he quietly boarded a train in Cleveland and headed for his Lake Tahoe, Nev., home.

"I honestly haven't decided about 1962," Jensen said. "It's a long way off yet."

At least one Red Sox spokesman believes this definitely is Jensen's last year.

"It isn't anybody's business but mine how I travel," Jensen steadfastly maintains.

Jensen's request to be excused, at loss of pay, for the Los Angeles series, takes him out of the lineup at the very moment when he is playing his best ball since 1958 when he received the American League's Most Valuable Player award.

Dr. Leland G. Merrill Jr. captain of the 1942 Michigan State wrestling team and a member of the 1948 Olympic squad, is dean of the college of agriculture at Rutgers University.

Sausalito Makes Debut On Major Racing Circuit With 2-Day Regatta

By ALFRED MATSON

Sausalito Yacht Club makes its initial bow on the major racing circuit this weekend with a two-day regatta officially blessed by the Yacht Racing Assn.

Heretofore content to confine their activities to small boat competition, the club's horizons broadened quite recently with the completion of their new clubhouse, an explosion in membership rolls and, particularly, of sailors with boats of YRA qualifications.

So, tomorrow, Recorder Don Seaton and his assistants will make their first official visit to the Sausalito Y.C. and proceed to write into history the full results of the two-day program.

In a divergence from last week's San Francisco Y. C. regatta, the One Design classes will race tomorrow and the divisions on Sunday. The starting line will, however, be the same, i.e., between Knox Buoy and the committee boat, approximately, 300 yards to the south.

Again, and on both days, the biggest boats will lead off — Farallon Clippers tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. and, on Sunday, the Cruising Club "A" contingent will hit the line at 11 a.m. Courses to be run, as laid out by the Sausalito Y.C.'s race committee, are new and should pique the interest of the participants.

21-MILE JAUNT

The "A" fleet, for instance, will have but one mark to round, No. 1 Channel Buoy, outside the Golden Gate; a long beat out and, if winds are kindly, a quick run home, a 21-mile jaunt.

On the other hand, the smallest entries will have a try at a 9.5-mile course. After the start; a flag marker, three-fourths mile north of Yellow Bluff, back to the flag again and a short romp home. And the other courses have the same original concepts.

Weather permitting, a fleet of more than 300 yachts might well take part in this debut of the Sausalito Y.C. in the big time circuit.

THERE IS a disquieting rumor being bruited about that the Bolero may be sold to a southern California yachtsman. It is hoped that said rumors are groundless as it would mark the end of the superb duels between it and the Baruna, undoubtedly the most evenly matched ocean greyhounds in any water the world over.

San Rafael Shop Reports On Doves; Racoon Strait Striper Run Unabated

STEVENS

Talking with Roy Irwin of Western Sport Shop, San Rafael, I was told a goodly number of doves were in evidence in the Rio Vista-Collinsville area.

That item of news didn't surprise this writer. From many sources the story is the same. Deer hunters in the Maxwell area, fishermen from Clear Lake and along the coast to as far north as Fort Bragg, all have reported seeing an unusually large number of the highly desired doves.

Unless the weather turns cold and forces the doves to seek a warmer playground, 1961 should be as productive as 1959 and 1960—two years when the take of doves was the greatest of all other feathered game.

An estimated population of 20,000,000 birds now inhabit the State and the number appears to be increasing each year. The Department of Fish and Game people consider a take of 4,000,000 birds each year as the maximum. So we have some 16,000,000 left to shoot at when the season nears its end.

The oldtimers suggest that the early hunters will reap the greatest harvest of doves. They become skittish after the first week or 10 days.

The season opens Saturday, September 2. That leaves you plenty of time to scout the country and get permission from some rancher to shoot on his property. Much of the good dove country is on private lands. It will pay to make prior arrangements. Most ranchers will play ball with you . . . IF you ask for permission to hunt doves on his property. But the same ranchers might prosecute for trespass if not asked.

So much for the dove doings. Now for the fishing facts: Salmon trolling has been a bit on the slow side. The hopeful members of the Foothill Sportsmen's Club who worked hard and long on the recent annual salmon derby last Sunday, met with poor success. Only one Schenley fish was taken, I believe. That was aboard the Dolphin by an unnamed angler. But we know for sure that Hal Boenner of Lee Anderson's bait shop in Oakland, landed a 28 pounder.

I note, from the Stagnaro (Santa Cruz) report on the deep sea rocking fishing, that again some nice salmon were taken by the bait dunkers at great depths. Mike Evans, of C. V. landed a 26-pound salmon on cut bait from near the bottom.

I noted from the Stagnaro report the name of a well known sportsman and organizer of sportsmen, Ed Busalak of San Leandro landed a 16¾ pound ling.

Getting closer to home, the fishing picture is both dim and clear. Dim in the Tomales Bay area according to Davis Campbell, of the Golden Hind boatel. His report was short and to the point. "Few anglers; few fish. Some small halibut and rockfish at the mouth and that's all." However the time of plenty is fast approaching. Look for some fast and fancy fishing in about 30 days from now, and then continuing all through the fall and winter.

That amazing run of stripers in the Racoon Strait continues apparently unabated. Hal Boenner mentioned the following results: Monday—The Troller, 7 limits to 14 pounds in the morning, 7 limits to 19 pounds in the afternoon (off Alcatraz Isl.). The same day, the R. S. P. unloaded seven limits to nine pounds; Wilma H. four limits to eight pounds. Tuesday, Troller, seven limits to 12 pounds, R.S.P. five limits to nine pounds, and the Cherokee took six limits to 12 pounds in 90 minutes actual fishing time.

Hal Boenner also mentioned the Lucky Day netting nine salmon to 30 pounds off Double Point on Tuesday .

One of the headline events in the Upper San Pablo Bay took place at Crockett when 13-year-old Paul Hulburt landed an 18¾ pound striped bass while fishing from Dowrelio's pier.

Bait fishing in the Upper San Pablo Bay has steadily improved day-by-day. In spite of rather strong winds the take has been surprisingly good. Not lunkers, but nice, hard fighting three and four pounders with an occasional larger one. Until Monday, when the strong winds hampered fishing, the trollers have taken limits each time out in evening fishing.

If history repeats itself, this weekend will see a slowup in bass fishing in the upper San Pablo, but it will not (I am thinking of the series of minus tides) materially effect trolling there or elsewhere, and it should make the bait tossing quite productive in the Mission Rock - Lower Bay sectors. So, with that thought in mind, I bid you a fond farewell!

Cal Team Eliminated

WASHINGTON, (Pa.) (AP)—Three errors in the ninth inning permitted the winning run to score last night as San Antonio defeated West Covina, Calif., 5-4 in the Pony League World Series.

The loss eliminated West Covina. San Antonio and Hamtramck, Mich., will battle for the title.

Best 40-Year-Old's Golf Tourney Proposed

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK, (UPI)—Executives of a major insurance corporation, who believe golf is the best of all "preserving tonics," would like to sponsor a match between the world's 10 best players more than 40 years old and the 10 best younger ones — to prove it — Fred Corcoran disclosed today.

Corcoran, tournament director of the International Golf association, added: "Those executives have submitted to me a list of 10 names of the over-40's, and I am forced to agree that this team doubtlessly could beat any other team in the world."

An appropriate trophy and the lion's share of prize money would go to the winners, Corcoran explained, and the match would be played in Ryder-Cup style with foursomes and singles—36 holes of foursomes and 36 holes of singles.

BRAND NEW IDEA

Although this brand - new match - proposal is only in the talking stage, Corcoran said, "I am at liberty to make public the names of the over-40 team members the executives have suggested."

Naturally the team includes Dai Rees of Wales, 48, who has just been named captain of the British Ryder Cup team and who only last Tuesday won an exciting 18-hole duel against American Jerry Barber, 45, over the famous Wentworth course near London in an international match.

It is recalled that this same Rees, when 24 years old—24 years ago—defeated Byron Nelson, 3-1. Nelson at that time probably was golf's outstanding newcomer. Predictions were made at the time that Rees certainly would be heard from in the future; but who could have dreamed that young Dai would be Great Britain's number one player 24 years later.

OLDEST MAN

Of course, Barber also is a member of the golf - mellowed team because he won our PGA title at Chicago last month, at 45, and was the oldest man to turn the trick. Jerry also is captain of our Ryder Cup team this year.

Prominent on the list are Ben Hogan and Sam Snead, each 49, who will soon start a head-on series of TV matches. With them is Jimmy Demeret, 51, who partnered with Snead against the world to win the Canada Cup in Puerto Rico last June. There's Claude Harmon, 44, former Masters' Open camp; Lloyd Mangrum, 47, 1946 U. S. Open chamb; Flory Von Donck of Belgium, 49, who won the International Championship at Dublin last year; Chick Harbert of Dayton, Ohio, 46, the long-hitting former PGA champ, and Byron Nelson, 49, who defeated Gene Littler, current U. S. Open Champion, in a head-on match a month ago at Pine Valley, N. J.

Corcoran emphasized that the insurance - corporation proposal vividly points up the fact that a golfer's peak - playing range covers many more years today than back in the 1920's. For example, the great Bobby Jones retired at the age of 28 in 1930 after having won 13 titles. Bobby said he was quitting competitive play because of the terrific strain.

Marin Gals 4th In West Yacht Event

NEWPORT BEACH (UPI) — Newport Harbor Yacht Club today held the Adams Cup trophy for winning the west coast regionals of the North American National Yacht Championship for women.

Newport won the title yesterday and along with it the right to represent the area in the finals of the yacht championship here on Sunday.

The winners scored 13½ points in the two-day competition to edge Corinthian Y.C. of Seattle, Wash., which had 12½. At the end of the first day's races the two were tied at 7¼ apiece.

Santa Barbara Y.C. finished third with 10 points and Belvedere Sailing Society of Belvedere, skippered by Sally Mathews and including Barbara Healy and Nancy Rogers, was fourth with 5 points.

Only Charmed Hunters Will Be In Friday's Elk Chase

SACRAMENTO - (CNS) - An unusual lottery will take place here next Friday.

This will be the selection of 40 names out of an expected 10,000 to 12,000 applications from hunters who wish to participate in an elk hunt in the Owens Valley in Inyo County.

Applications must be received by the department in Sacramento by 5 p.m., Aug. 29.

The drawing—fish and game department officials cringe at the word "lottery" — will not be unique in itself as drawings for elk hunts have been held before and drawings for permits for antlerless deer hunts are held each year.

The prime feature of this year's tule elk hunt in the Owens Valley is that those hunters whose applications are drawn will then be asked to demonstrate their proficiency with a rifle. From the sound of the test, quite a few would-be elk hunters will be eliminated.

The marksman tests, probably to be given in the home area of the successful permittee, will require off-hand shooting, with no rests, and in a standing position. The hunters will be required to place three out of four shots in an eight-inch bullseye at 100 yards or three out of four shots in an 18-inch bullseye at 200 yards.

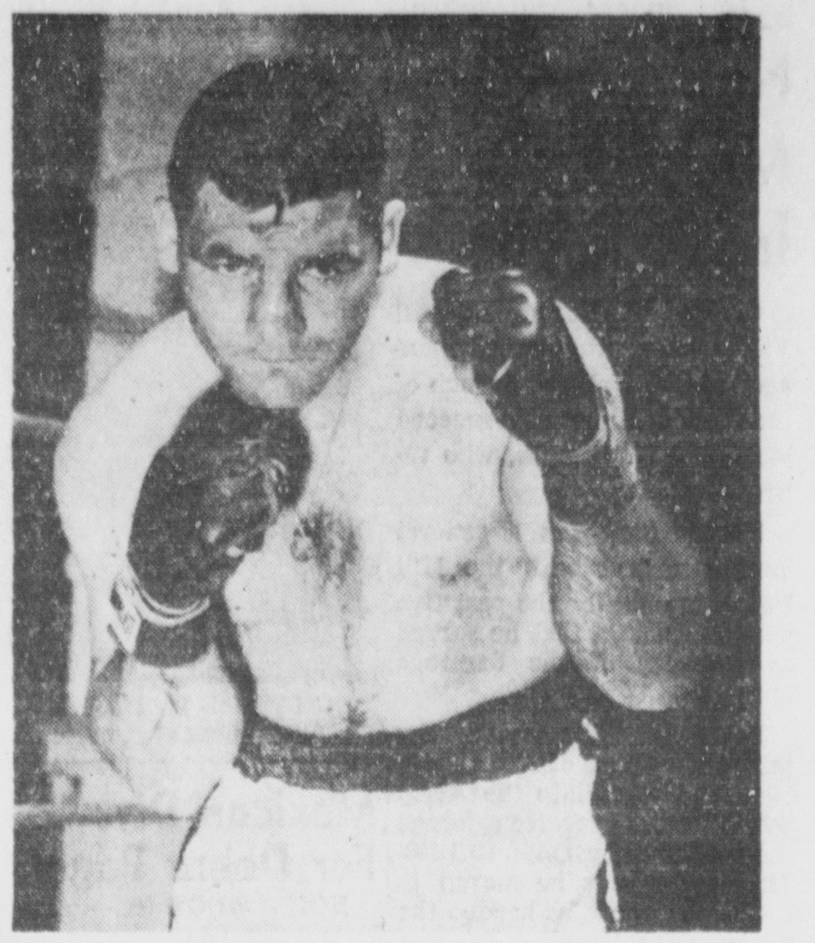
The Owens Valley hunt will be held in three sections, Oct. 14-16, 21-23 and 28-30. Twelve bull elks and 28 antlerless animals will be killed. A fish and game warden will accompany each hunter or group of hunters and killing of the elk will be on a selective basis.

Pirates Rehire Murtaugh For '62

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Despite the downfall of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates this season, Danny Murtaugh will return as manager in 1962.

Murtaugh was rehired yesterday in a move that came as no surprise. Terms of the contract were not released, but Murtaugh was reportedly paid $40,000 this year.

The Pirates, after winning the National League pennant by seven games last year, currently are in sixth place.



A RUGGED GUY—Willie Besmanoff, a tough trial horse who has traded punches with most of the better heavyweights, takes on another highly regarded foe when he battles the rapidly rising South American sensation, Alejandro Lavorante, in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium next Monday night. The fight will have an international flavor, since Besmanoff began his ring career in Germany and Lavorante hails from Argentina.

Raiders Shopping For Linebackers, Defensive Linemen

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — The Oakland Raiders scheduled a short, light workout today — their last before meeting the San Diego Chargers in an American Football League exhibition game Sunday.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz and his men will fly to San Diego tomorrow afternoon.

Erdelatz says he is still on the lookout for defensive linebackers and linemen.

Two veterans arrived in camp yesterday. They are Fred Williamson, who played with the Pittsburgh Steelers last year, and Jim Jones, who has played with the Los Angeles Rams, New York Giants and Vancouver.

Erdelatz said Williamson will play at defensive halfback and may play offense.

Jones will work out at fullback.

Mexican Divorce For Debra Paget

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Debra Paget has obtained a divorce in Juarez, Mex., from director Bud Boetticher, her mother said yesterday.

"It's all over," Mrs. Maggie Griffin told a newsman. "Debra got the divorce. She is very sick and upset. She didn't decide on this step until late yesterday afternoon. Debra does not do these things lightly."

Miss Paget, 27, and Boetticher, 44, married in Mexico 18 months ago. She formerly was married to singer David Street. Boetticher also had been married previously.

Marinwood Park Bonds Backers Form Group

Twenty Marinwood citizens unanimously voted Wednesday to form a committee to support the Marinwood Community Services Districts park bond issue.

More than 30 other Marinwood citizens have already joined the committee, Donald Sands of 777 Appleberry Drive reported today.

Sands was chosen as chairman; Harold (Red) Evans, 246 Deepstone Drive, vice chair. man; Dr. David Merten, 585 Quietwood Drive, treasurer, and Richard O'Brien, 529 Appleberry Drive, secretary.

Sands said bond issue would finance a landscaped park, urgently needed athletic facilities, picnic areas, a fire station, community building facilities and other essential community services.

The park plans have been prepared by the architectural firm of Osmundson and Staley, which recently completed the Kaiser Center Park.

The citizens committee held the cost of the proposed park would be substantially less than the expense of providing comparable facilities on a private club basis.

Labor Council Opposes Rail Bid

The Marin County Labor Council will file a petition of intercession with the Interstate Commerce Commission this week opposing a merger of the Western Pacific Railroad with the Southern Pacific, secretary Hugh Cassidy said yesterday.

Cassidy said the petition will present the council's view that it would be best if Western Pacific is not merged with any other railroad, but if there has to be a merger the council would prefer it be linked with the Santa Fe rather than the Southern Pacific.

"Southern Pacific isn't getting many points in Marin County these days," Cassidy observed.

Cassidy said the council is convinced a merger with Santa Fe would maintain more effective competition for California rail business than a merger with the S.P.

Northbridge Marinites will hold their third annual family picnic starting at 10:30 a.m., Sept. 10 at the Keaton Shack, Fetters Springs, Sonoma County. Mrs. Kay Ziebell is in charge of reservations and Guido Restani will be barbecue chef.

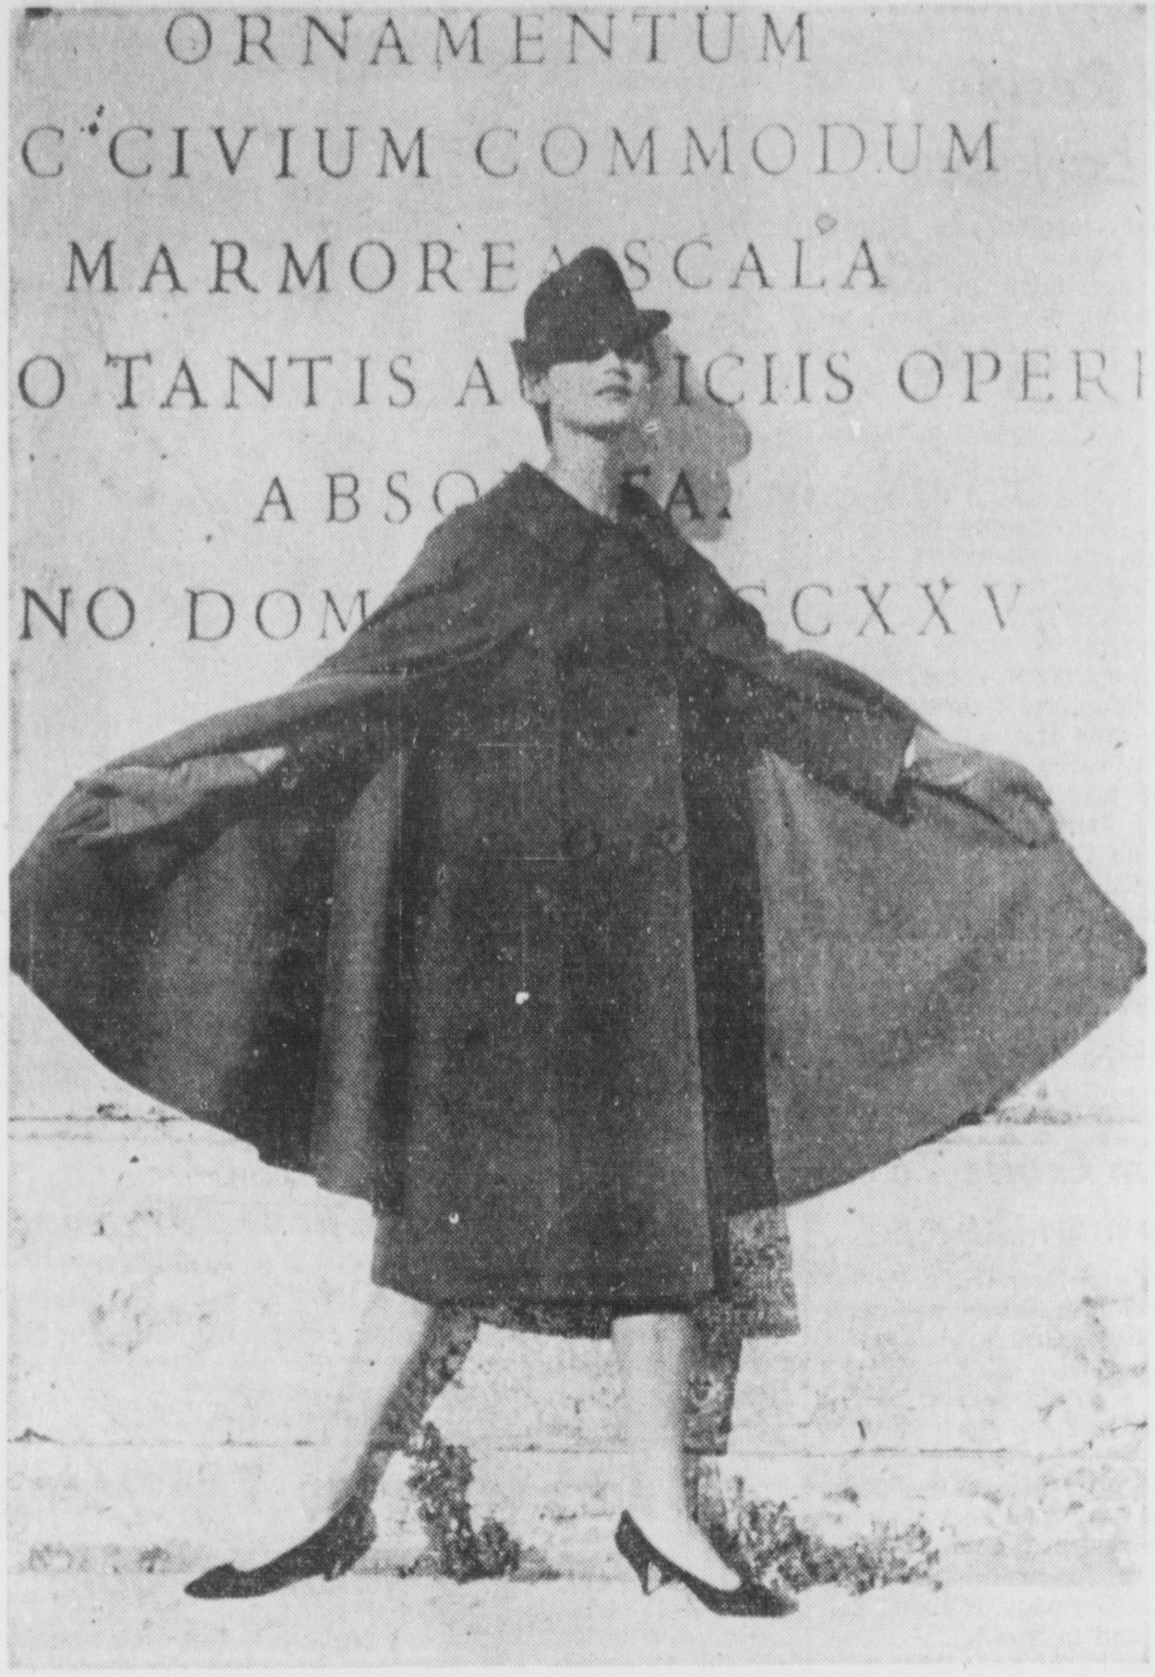
Italian Styles On The Scene



WITH A MILITARY air, sharp angles and a flare, Simonetta of Florence strikes a note of daytime elegance with a grey wool cape coat from her fall and winter collection. The knife-edge seams of the long straight coat are interfaced for angular shape and the attached cape, lined in lighter grey wool, flares over narrow sleeves. UPI Telephoto)

WAISTLINES GO UP and hems go 'way down in Fabiani's fall and winter collection. The flaring skirt of this grey broadtail and wool greatcoat fall a full four inches below the knees. Fabiani cuts the wool bodice like a tiny bolero jacket tucking an ascot of matching grey broadtail fur into the wide, round neckline. (UPI Telephoto)

Susan Pemberton Leaving For Spain

Susan Pemberton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Pemberton of Mill Valley, and a June graduate of Tamalpais High School, will leave for Spain on Sept. 10 to attend the University of Madrid.

She will live with the Huici family, parents of Amparo Huici, who was the American Field Service sponsored student attending Tamalpais High School last year. She and Susan were graduated together.

Susan has also been invited by the Huicis to accompany them on their holiday on the Mediterranean in the south of Spain before the girls start their classes at the university.

Civic Minded Family Plays Together Too

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mill Valley's Nathalie Hawley, who is beginning a year as president of the Family Service Agency of Marin for the second time, and her husband, John Vernon Hawley, could well be nominated as candidates in a contest to determine the most civic minded couples in Marin.

They wouldn't be likely to enter one, for if anything they are publicity shy, and they have for more fun than such a title would imply. In fact the Hawleys and their three children, Chrishtoper, 15; John, 13; and Erica, 9, live the kind of life that could be one of the solutions to undesirable trends in families today.

Mrs. Hawley has served on the Family Service Agency of Marin board since 1957, including her year as president at one time and secretary another.

Two of the most frequent kinds of situations handled by the agency, she said, are those concerned with marital conflicts and parent-child relations.

NOT UNIQUE

"I think we are all aware of the enormous stresses in today's life, which have changed the pattern of the family. The problems of growth and rootlessness are not unique to Marin, nor are the results of a family life breakdown.

"But here in family service is a professional counseling agency which directly contributes to restoring people to usefulness in our community, and I believe in the work."

Mrs. Hawley's education and experience have been ideally suited to understanding and dealing with Family Service Agency work.

Born in Seattle, Wash., Nathalie Rice is a graduate of Pasadena High School and Pasadena Junior College. She went on to obtain an A. B. degree in phychology from the University of California and a master's degree from the New York School of Social Work.

After completing this in 1943 she was employed as a phychiatric social worker with the American Red Cross at Camp Shankes near New York City before she was married.

She met her husband, also a Cal graduate, in Honolulu when he was an ensign with the U. S. Navy during World War II, and she was attending the University of Hawaii for part of her senior year while her father, a Naval officer, was there. The Hawleys were married in 1943, and while he completed his tour of duty with the Navy she worked for a Staten Island social service agency. Having grown up in Piedmont, Vern was familiar with the Bay Area and had always wanted to live in Marin. They bought a home in Mill Valley in 1946 and their present home on Marion Avenue in 1952, and began taking part in town and county affairs.

Nathalie joined the Mill Valley League of Women Voters, which has just been organized. She has been almost everything since then—first vice president, second vice president, secretary and a member of the board for ten years.

After the children entered school, she and Vern became leaders in school activities—she in the positions of president of the Old Mill P-TA, vice chairman and holder of other offices in the Mill Valley Education Council—and he as the council's chairman at one time. He was also president of the Mill Valley Democratic Club.

After he established an advertising business with a partner in San Francisco, he wasn't quite so active in community affairs except for Boy Scout Work.

WAS SHOCKED

From the time she first came to Mill Valley as a young social worker from New York, Nathalie was shocked that a place so near San Francisco was practically "in the dark woods as far as mental health was concerned."

Through her interest in getting a child guidance clinic started she first became aware of the Family Service Agency. A large amount of her time has been devoted to it since it was re-organized in 1956, and she is full of plans for the future.

"Now our board looks to the future," she said, "to developing a larger staff of trained social workers to meet our waiting list, currently 87.

"Our statistics show we have seen one out of every 60 residents in Marin since 1956," she continued. "We know the need for our services is here, and our major problem is lack of money. Only with increased public understanding and support of the United Crusade, our main source of funds, can Family Service Agency increase its services to troubled people.

"Two years ago the Family Service League was organized to assist the agency in our struggle to survive and grow. Activities will begin in September with a series of programs on 'Mental Health for the Family.' And there are plans to repeat in November last year's 'Christmas Gift Gallery.'"

Despite all their serious purposes the Hawley family has many other just for fun social and recreational interests. Part owners of "The Fledgling," a 25-foot Golden Gate class sailboat—an excellent way to decide if you want to own one completely, Mrs. Hawley says, the Hawleys and their children are ardent sailors.

SKIERS TOO

They are also Sierra clubbers, spending much time skiing in the winter, and members of the Mill Valley Tennis Club. Nathalie and Vern like to play golf on the Mill Valley course, and both are avid do-it-yourselfers.

Mother and daughter share interest in music and are proud of their Danish zwicki piano, bought for them by Mrs. J. M. Stubblebine of Strawberry in Copenhagen last year.

Nathalie has picked up her piano playing again to the point where she can play Bach variations, Mozart selections, and some of the sonatas of of Beethoven, her favorite composer. Erica is in her third year of piano study.

If the adage, "the family that plays together stays together" is true, the Hawleys are in a better position than most to tell others how to do it.

Academic Cause Needs Home Aid

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Parents of the school set can lend a helping hand to the nation's teachers by conducting at-home practice sessions in penmanship, an authority on handwriting instruction reports.

Wesley E. Scott recommends 15 minutes of home practice nightly to augment classroom instruction.

"Good handwriting is taught most easily and quickly in school," he said, "but parents can perform a valuable service by correcting their youngsters' common handwriting faults at home.

"With parental supervision and encouragement, the average student should make noticeable improvement in penmanship in a month."

FOOD AND THE FAMILY

Mercury Governs The Menu On Nation's Dinner Table

One of a series of articles on the housewife and her family's attitude toward food as expressed in a new survey.

By BARBARA HOSMER

What happens on your dinner table when the thermometer outside goes into the 90s? Maybe you side with the housewife who said,

"You know, in the summer the best thing for dinner or lunch is something light and some cold drink. We like iced tea a lot. I guess we eat more green stuff, salads and light things."

Seasonal variations in menu are the housewife's attempt to strike a temperature balance with the weather. When its hot outside she served iced tea and cold cuts. When the frost is on the lawn in the winter months for breakfast she serves oatmeal and for dinner potatoes, meat and gravy, with soup oftener than salad.

The weight of summer heat is fought on the home front with crisp celery and lettuce and bouyant fruits and frozen desserts.

But when the temperature drops the family cook leans to the heavy and thick things that stay with a person and provide the fuel to get through the day.

The nation wide survey showed that the planning of the menu around the season goes on in nearly every home, whether in mild Marin or the more varied climates of the Middle West and East.

New Print Fabrics Used With Dash In Home Decoration

The latest news from the decorating world is the use of prints that have the excitement of fashion fabrics—vibrant in color, wildly imaginative in design, personal in feeling.

Decorating with these big, bold patterns takes confidence and a practiced eye. Begin slowly and with imagination. Brighten your bookshelves by lining them with a print. A heavy fabric works best here. Cover picture frames in a flowered or stark stylized print. Try this too on dime store wastebaskets.

Revitalize a plain white table cloth with print napkins matching, perhaps, your dining room chair seats. In your kitchen, prints can line cupboards, storage shelves, knife drawers or handsomely cover your cookbooks. Use a print as accent — for instance, glazed chintz printed with life-sized limes and lemons to cushion a rocker, be it stark modern or Early American.

Marin Women

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D.
Guidance Counselor

Youngters Of 10 Needing Guidance For Decent Life

"Are my twins unusually nasty?" a mother asks. "They are 10. My boy tells his sister smutty stories. She laughs uproariously. I thought such stories came later. So far I have not interfered, but I am worried. Their attitudes are unhealthy. Should I teach them the facts of life? Can you advise me?"

I'll try. I'm sorry you have not given your children more guidance. You should have taught them about reproduction when they were tiny. Then they might have avoided their present stage. What is unusual about your son is that he tells the stories where you can hear him. Many boys are interested in smut, but they hide it. Most well-raised girls of ten are not interested. Dirty stories embarrass and offend them.

Talk with your daughter. Almost certainly you'll find she knows the facts of life. Try to interpret reproduction as something sacred. Help her sense the miracle of birth. Teach her the importance of chastity before marriage. Don't delay. She's growing up.

Have your husband talk with your son. Probably he can do a better job than you could. Have him try to replace the boy's present attitude with one of restraint, and reverence. Have him teach chastity too. Does your boy idolize his dad? If so he may accept the lessons.

I hope others will learn from your experience. Please, friends, guide your little ones. Healthy attitudes need to be taught. Bad attitudes are inevitable if you neglect the job. Start before your children enter school. Have pets, and let them reproduce. Answer their questions matter-of-factly. Teach decency. You can do it easily then.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My son has a partial hearing loss. He is seven. He has a chance to get lip reading instruction at school next fall. Should I let him enroll?"

L. de. Ve.

(A) By all means. Lip reading is a Godsehd to children with partial hearing loss. The younger they get it the better.

Remodeling Tip

Kitchen remodelers don't always plan for the most convenient use of a refrigerator. For instance, how many kitchens have you seen where ice cube trays can be conveniently filled and returned to the refrigerator without a trickle of water across the kitchen floor. New refrigerators eliminate that nuisance. Water is piped into the freezing unit and freezes in the shape of circles in a basket.

De Bray Collection Will Be Previewed At Sausalito Show

Fashionable good neighbors teaming two young designers, Jacqueline de Bray of Kentfield, creating elegant town and country suits and dresses, and Garth of San Francisco, designing chapeaux to complement Miss de Bray's collection, will highlight Thursday's fashion luncheon at the Ondine, "Good Neighbors for Fall."

The welcome mat will be out for the Consul General of Canada, Dr. Orvile Ault, and Mrs. Ault in a salute to the United States neighbor. Joining the Aults at the guest table will be Arthur Peers, director of the new Canadian government travel office in San Francisco, and Mrs. Peers for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

The fashions of the day will reflect Miss de Bray's rich French heritage and her years of training. Beautiful fabrics, gentle shaping with flare and finesse characterize her first complete collection.

Chapeaux created by Garth Richards in his studio on Columbus Street are worn by the Bay Area's most prominent women and combine flair, imagination, color and styling.

Showing the fashions will be Mesdames Les Vogel Jr., William Donohoe, John Jansheski, Robert Bernheim, John Bellamy Jr., and Yvonne Buchi.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Mrs. Fletcher To Entertain For Visitor From Maryland

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

In honor of her long time friend, Mrs. Francis Cross of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Harold Fletcher is entertaining at a cocktail party Sunday at her Belvedere home. Virginia Fletcher's home was in Baltimore. Several years ago Virginia and Mrs. Cross went abroad together. Mrs. Cross with her daughter, Mrs. Logan Morrill, also of Baltimore, arrived Wednesday night for a several weeks' visit with her son, Henry A. Orrick III of Ross and his wife. They had stopped over in Boulder City, Colo. Mrs. Cross has visited here frequently and has many friends who will attend Sunday's party.

Incidentally Virginia Fletcher's son, David Fletcher, who left in June for a student tour of Europe, will be back in New York Sept. 4. He will go on to Canton, N. Y., to resume his studies at St. Lawrence University.

A BARBECUE had been planned by the Edward Ruffs of Ross Saturday night for 12 of their friends. However, because the nights have turned cool it was decided to have a dinner indoors instead.

SAN YSIDRO in Santa Barbara was the vacation spot of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Eliot of Belvedere who have just returned from the south. The summer has been a busy one for them with many houseguests. Four generations were gathered in the home when Mrs. Eliot's mother, Mrs. Albert F. Bigelow of Chestnut Hill, Mass., arrived for a week's visit and her 80th birthday was celebrated while here. Also visiting the Eliots were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell O'Bryan (Joan Eliot) of Oswego, Ore., and their two children, who stayed for three weeks. Before that, visiting the Eliots were two other grandchildren, Ted and Sally Eliot, children of Theodore Eliot Jr., special assistant to U. S. Secretary of the Treasury, Douglas Dillon, and his wife, the former Patricia Peters. The children flew from Washington, D. C., for the visit. They divided their time between their paternal grandparents and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Van Wyck Peters, formerly of Kent Woodlands, who now live in San Francisco. This summer the Peters' have taken a house in Kent Woodlands. Patricia Eliot was here in the early summer to attend the wedding of her brother, Sidney Van Wyck Peters Jr., and Priscilla Dole.

IT'S BEEN A BUSY summer for Mrs. Edwin L. Blackmore of Belvedere, associate professor of education at Dominican College. She has just returned from Sacramento, where she attended a week-long conference on education conducted by the State Department of Education and the California Council on Teacher Education on the campus of Sacramento State College. Dorothy Blackmore was on the conference staff and was editor of the daily news sheet. Wednesday she will be consultant at the institute for elementary school teachers at the Stinson Beach School. However, she and Ed, who is with the Marin County Superintendent of Schools' office as coordinator of elementary education, with their two children, Bill and Peggy, did have three weeks vacation at their cabin at Silver Lake near Susanville in Lassen County.

INVITATIONS HAVE been received by Marin County friends to the ceremonial being held in Oklahoma City, Okla., today when Helen Brooks receives the veil at the Carmelite Novitiate. She will be in St. Theresa's Order. This is not a cloistered order but a nursing one. Mrs. Brooks, the widow of Dr. Leroy Brooks, and a former Belvedere resident, is a registered nurse and registered anesthetist. Helen's twin brother, Harold Hunn of Pittsburg, Calif., and his wife went to Oklahoma for the religious ceremony.

WHEN LITTLE Phillip William Grundhauser, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grundhauser, was baptized Sunday at St. Raphael's Church he wore the christening robe which his father had worn. Godparents were the baby's uncle, Richard Dapiran, and his wife. Grandparents of the little one are Mr. and Mrs. Nick Dapiran of San Anselmo and Mr. and Mrs. John Grundhauser of San Rafael.

More Education In Years Ahead

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor reports that the women will need more education and training in the years ahead.

"The coming decade will witness the creation of many new jobs and the revision of old ones, as technological and scientific advances change office, laboratory and factory procedures and equipment," the bureau said.

Opening lead — ♡ 9

West opened the nine of hearts, dummy played low and East won with the queen. East thought briefly and then returned the king of diamonds.

South pounced on the trick with the ace of diamonds, lost a trump finesse to the queen and ruffed the next diamond. East got another trump trick, but nothing else. South discarded dummy's remaining low heart on a club, after which he could eventually ruff a heart in dummy.

RETURN HEART: East should return a heart at the second trick. West's opening lead of the nine indicated that South had the jack and ten of hearts, since a player doesn't lead the nine of his partner's suit if he has the jack or ten. It was therefore quite clear that West had led from a singleton or doubleton in hearts.

The idea of returning a heart is to give West a ruff. East can win the first round of trumps and lead a third heart. West ruffs, and the hand is doomed.

East thought he could sit back and wait for his second heart trick, but this was complicated defense. There were too many things that could go wrong with it, as East eventually found out. Nothing could go wrong with the heart return as long as West had two or more trumps.

♦ 8 7 4 3 2
♣ 7 5 4 2

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds. You may avoid a double if you bid your long suit, such as it is, at once. If you pass, your partner will surely be doubled and from then on any rescue will likewise be doubled.

Marin Senior Group Meeting Tomorrow

The Marin Senior Assn. will hold its last August meeting from 1:30 to 4:40 p.m. tomorrow in Adaline Kent School in Kentfield, which is near the Kent Woodlands stop of the Greyhound bus line.

Plans for the August picnic, to be held next Thursday in Samuel P. Taylor State Park, will be discussed, said Mrs. E. M. Grote, publicity chairman.

Suit Filed In Sausalito Auto Crash

A Larkspur mother and daughter, hurt in a head-on collision in Sausalito last March, are suing for more than $300,000 in Marin Superior Court.

Mrs. Viola C. Liddy of 44 Francis Avenue, Larkspur, and her daughter, Mrs. Diane McAlister of the same address, contend they were severely injured, to the amount of $150,000 each. In addition, they seek medical and court costs.

The suit, filed by Lou Ashe of Belli, Ashe and Gerry of San Francisco, names as defendants Ronald R. Belt of 310 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, and his father Harley W. Belt.

According to the complaint, a car driven by Ronald Belt jumped the center barrier of Highway 101 in Sausalito last March 23 and struck the Liddy car head-on.

Mrs. Liddy, a telephone operator, says she suffered fractured ribs and numerous other injuries. Mrs. McAllister also lists numerous injuries including a fractured jaw and loss of teeth. She worked as an airline reservation clerk until the accident.

Alarm System At Playground

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Parks officials said at a budget hearing that a siren alarm system at an east side playground has been an effective weapon against vandalism. Damage at the playground has "dropped almost to nothing," the officials reported.

In contrast, a recent weekend of vandalism at another playground resulted in $2,300 damage. The alarms, which cost about $2,000 installed, are planned for all 93 buildings in the city's parks and playgrounds.

Hitler Gang Will Invade U.S. Screens

BY BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — There they were, the whole Hitler gang — Goering, Goebbels, Himmler, Streicher, Bormann, Strasser, Jodl, Keitel and Adolf himself with girl friend Eva Braun.

The gruesome bunch was holed up in Der Fuerher's Berchtesgaden Aerie overlooking the Bavarian Alps. They were once again plotting new conquests as Hollywood was preparing to cash in on the revival of interest in the Nazi chapter of world misery.

NO CHANCES

Allied Artists is making a film called "Hitler," Notably missing from the cast is Rudolph Hess. He is till alive and hence might sue for invasion of privacy. The film company is taking a chance on the missing Martin Bormann. In fact, the studio would be happy if he turned up to file suit.

The film's Hitler is Richard Basehart, and the transformation is amazing. I found him sitting in a corner of the set, as if shunned by his fellow men. Actually, he was saving his voice.

"This is the rougest role I've ever had," he croaked hoarsely. "I'm shouting at the top of my voice most of the time, even when I'm making love."

LACK OF LOVE

Love, or lack of it, plays a major role in the film, Basehart disclosed.

"We'll show the major events of Hitler's life, from the beer hall putsch in the early 1920s to his death with Eva Braun in 1945," the actor said. "But the major aim of the picture will be to show what kind of a man he was."

And what kind of a man was he?

"Apparently a very mixed-up man with megalomania, an Oedipus complex and all kinds of problems," said Basehart.

Welcoming Lunch For New Teachers

Twenty-nine new teachers, 17 elementary and 12 high school, are to be present at the annual Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce welcoming luncheon for new teachers at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday at Sabella's Restaurant at 555 Redwood Highway.

Robert A. Walker of the chamber's civic affairs committee said that in addition to teachers, principals and school officials, County Supervisor J. Walter Blair, Mayor Robert D. Huber and City Manager A. E. Almcrants will attend. Master of ceremonies is to be Jerry Montizambert.

Alcoholics' Wives 'Don't Understand'

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—The alcoholic who says his wife doesn't understand him is absolutely right, a study has found.

The study showed that only 2 per cent of 262 wives believed their husbands were sick men who needed treatment.

Harold Alkene, associate director of research for the National Council of Alcoholism, said most of them thought their husbands had no one to blame but themselves, and "could cut down if he really wanted to."

State School Unit To Meet On Merger

The State Board of Education will meet Sept. 8 in San Francisco to consider an election on whether the San Jose and Novato school districts shall be merged.

Exact time and place of the meeting has not yet been set, reported Edwin L. Blackmore, administrative assitant to the Marin County superintendent of schools.

The Marin County committee on school district organization in June approved by a 9-4 vote a proposal to unify the two districts, which would mean election of a new board of five trustees.

The state board will decide whether to allow a resident election on the proposal. If an election is approved at the September meeting it could be set for November.

The public will be allowed to voice opinions during the state board meeting and may write Dr. Roy Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction and secretary of the board, in Sacramento, to state opinions ahead of the deliberations.

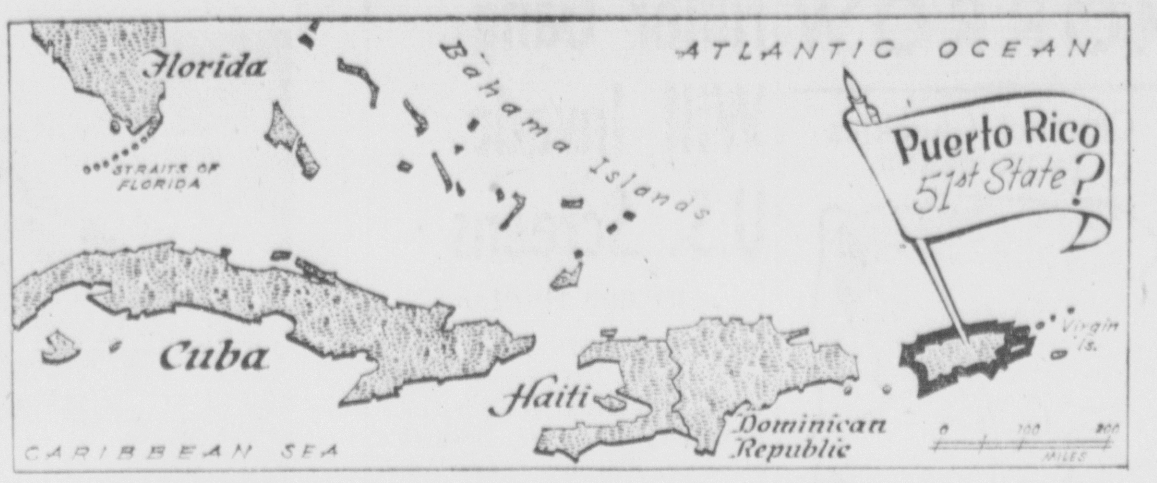
Puerto Rico Fight For Statehood Continues Up Hill

51st State Advocates Cheered By Alaska, Hawaii Admissions



SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—The effort to make Puerto Rico the 51st state in the American Union continues—but it's an uphill battle almost all the way.

Statehood advocates in recent years have been encouraged by the admission of Alaska in 1958 and Hawaii in 1959.

Their hopes leaped again this year when residents of the District of Columbia finally were given the right to vote.

But the obstacles, if not numerous, are big and important.

For one thing, there is now comparatively little agitation in the U.S. Congress to vote statehood for this Caribbean island.

For another, Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico is squarely against statehood in this generation or the next one. Economic lunacy, he called it when a reporter broached the question. Suicidal, he told an inquiring congressman.

On the other hand, former Gov. Rexford G. Tugwell, who served by appointment in the Franklin D. Roosevelt New Deal days, declared on a visit here this spring:

"The island's evolution is toward statehood."

And Luis A. Ferre, who ran for governor against Munoz last year, is still hopefully carrying on the fight for statehood.

Ferre, an important leader of Puerto Rico's business community, contends that statehood would help give stability to the island's economy.

But primarily, he argued, the thing at stake is "the hallowed sacred right of Americans to exercise the right of self-determination and to enjoy the full blessings of representative democracy."

Since 1952, Puerto Rico has existed as a self-governing commonwealth within the American union. Its residents do not have a vote for president or any voting representative in Congress. They do not pay federal taxes.

Governor Munoz contends that federal taxes, on top of those the commonwealth has to impose, would either break the back of the taxpayer or force a ruinous cut-down of public services. Federal taxes would accompany statehood.

In the last 20 years Puerto Rico has made great economic strides, most of them under Munoz' administration, but its per capita income is still far below the lowest of any of the 50 states now in the Union.

During an inquiry into island issues by a visiting U.S. House subcommittee, there was this exchange:

Rep. Jack Westlund (R-Wash.),—"I wanted to ask you, governor, what effect statehood for Hawaii and Alaska has had here in Puerto Rico."

Governor Munoz—"A psychological effect rendering the understanding of economics obscure."

That itself sounded obscure to Westland, so the governor expanded:

"I mean congressmen, that some people that are for statehood have become so enthusiastic about it that they forget all the economic facts of life."

Ferre's reply to that line of argument:

"Whatever additional taxes were paid, we would gladly pay to assure the stability which would come to Puerto Rico from the enjoyment of its sovereign rights, convinced that in the long run they would be greatly compensated by increased economic activity."

In an interview, Munoz reminded that some statehood advocates had spoken of him as their only real obstacle, and he commented:

"I doubt it very much. Their obstacle is that the people of Puerto Rico like the commonwealth government. They have shown so repeatedly at the polls."

The people showed most recently, in the election last November, that they certainly liked Munoz, or his party, or both. They gave Munoz' Popular Democrats 457,887 votes, or more than 130,000 more than the other three parties combined.

Still, Ferre's Republican Statehood party could find reason to feel encouraged. Its backers point out that their total of 249,446 was a 43 per cent improvement over four years earlier.

Munoz is conceded by all to be an extraordinarily popular individual. The party-by-party returns might have been vastly different had he not headed the Popular Democratic ticket.

Munoz is 63 years old now and some day, of course, he'll be out of the political picture. When that day comes, Puerto Ricans of all sorts say, anything can happen.

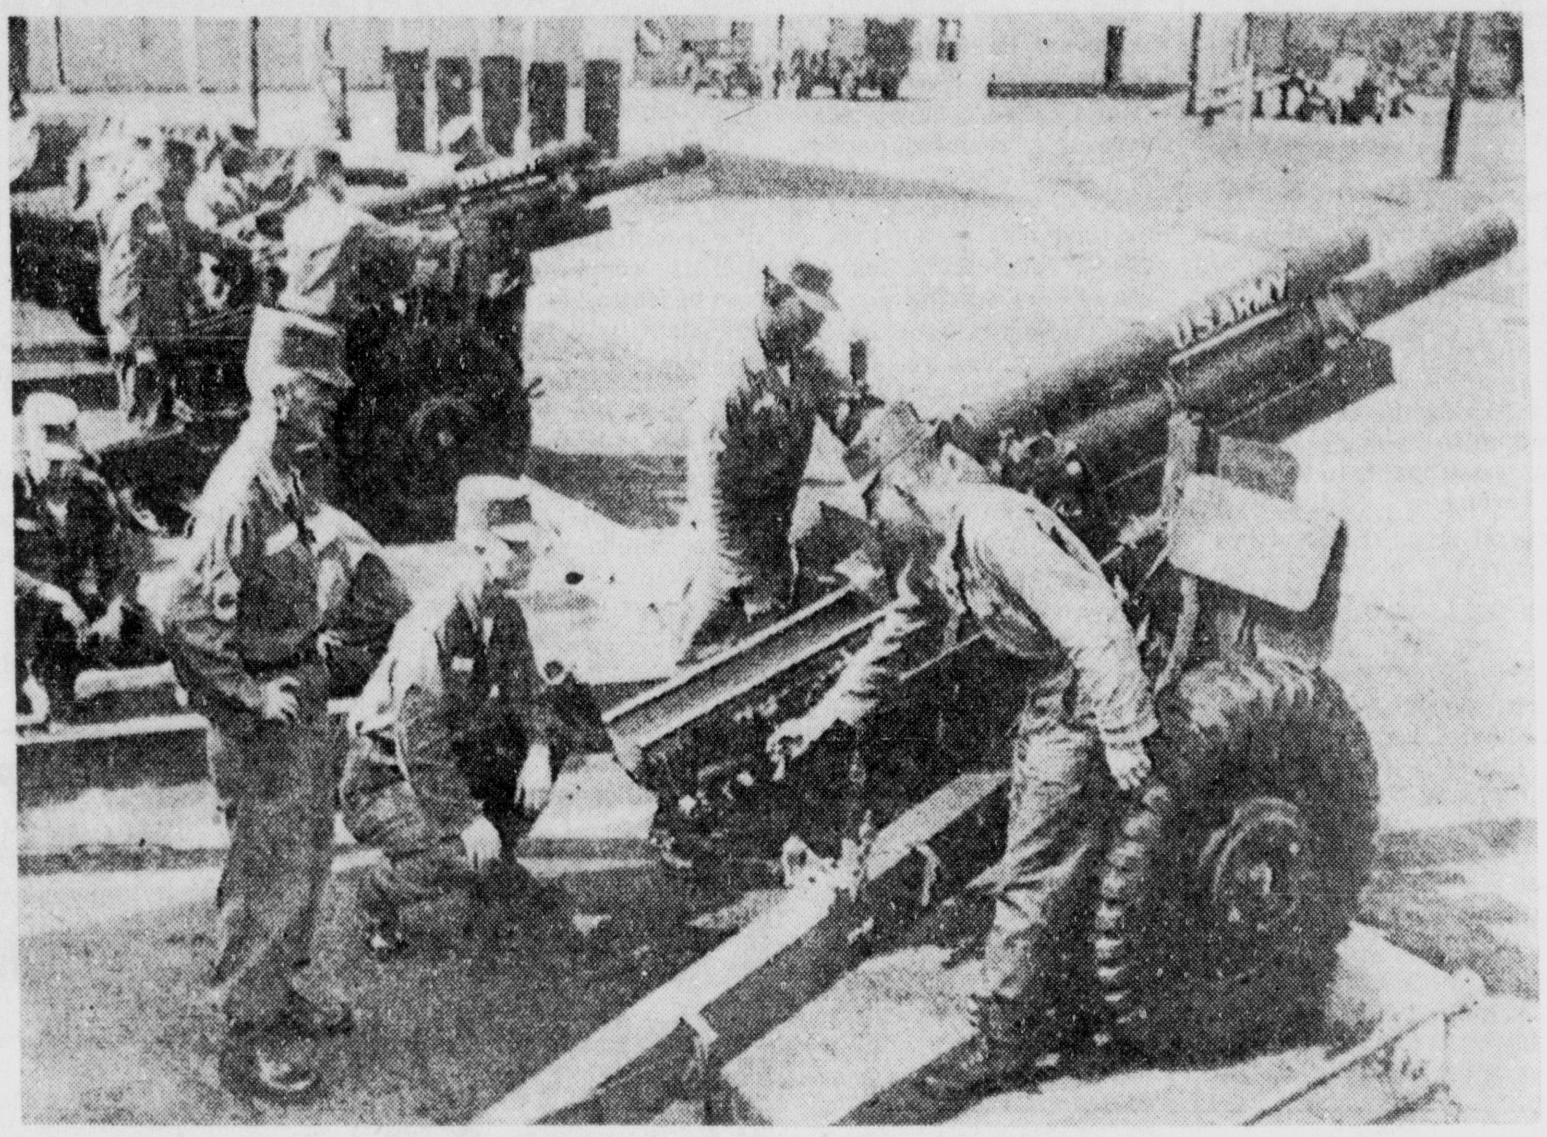
GI Troops Show Force During Border Violence



ARTILLERY SUPPORT — U.S. artillerymen ran through a practice session with 150-mm howitzers at garrison headquarters in West Berlin today. It is the first time since 1946 the Berlin garrison has had artillery support. (AP Wirephoto)

But Crisis In Berlin Has Light Side, Too

COMBINED AP & UPI

BERLIN—There was a show of force by American troops in this city today as East Berlin troops fired over the heads of West Berliners who defied orders to draw back from the border.

Governments of the Western Big Three continued to consult on a possible meeting with the Moscow powers at which the thorny Berlin problem might be solved.

There was mob violence in the city, and attempts at sabotage. But there also was a lighter side.

Pretty girls tried to flirt with some of the American troops newly called to duty. Children clambered over and around military trucks, peering through windows and staring at the embarrassed GIs.

West Berlin police, probably the most patient in the world, had a tough time trying to keep men, women and children out of the way of maneuvering tanks, speeding jeeps and field telephone lines.

Among the curious crowds of Germans were a few Americans, including a soldier's wife in search of her husband. She had forgotten the key to their apartment.

FIELD GLASSES

Americans and "vopos" stared at each other across the rapidly rising concrete walls and bales of barbed wire. The "vopos," a nickname for East German police, trained field glasses on the Western sector. An Allied soldier said the East German was surveying the American lines. "They're looking for pretty girls," he said.

Sausage stands and beer parlors on the border at Friedrickstrasse were doing a booming business. Hundreds of persons roamed in and out of the military lines, some of them stopping to have beer at a nearby cafe.

At Mannheim, in Western Germany, the 300 American wives of the 1,500 men of the First Battle Group, 19th Infantry, who were sent to Berlin last week, waited for word of their own fate. They set up an information center to sift through rumors on whether they, too, would be sent to Berlin, and to plan cheery letters and telephone calls—and avoid the passing on of rumors to their husbands.

LINERS TO FLY

U.S. authorities have declared that civilian airliners will keep flying into West Berlin despite a "scarely veiled threat" by the Soviet Union to clamp down on the three air corridors from West Germany to the Red-encircled city.

These events, or most of them, were on the brighter side. Here are other developments:

MOB ATTACK — American military and West Berlin police rescued 25 Soviet soldiers traveling to the Red army's war memorial near the Brandenburg Gate from a mob of West Berliners shouting "swine." With fists raised the crowd charged the us and tried to overturn a smaller Soviet military car.

SABOTAGE—A Communist protest appeared likely over two attempts to Sabotage traffic on the Red-run railway and elevated lines that still operate

Richardson Bay Shark Is Reported

A shark that appeared as if it were trying to get up on shore near the Richardson Bay Bridge was reported today by 15-year-old Robert Drolla of Mill Valley.

Drolla said he was fishing under the north side of the bridge Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. when he heard a "real large splash—I thought someone fell in." He looked to his right, the youth continued, and "saw a shark which looked like he was trying to get on shore.

"He was in a little mud flat and stuck there. It was so shallow, it was half out of water. He splashed around and then, before I could get over there, it was gone."

Drolla described the shark as about six to seven feet long, having a medium sized fin and as "possibly a leopard shark" since it had spots. Drolla is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drolla of 16 Strawberry Circle.

Tony Konatich, fisherman and proprietor of Tony's Seafood at Marshall, said today he was removing a shark from a 14-foot display tank at the restaurant because the fish was too big. "He can't turn around in the tank," Konatich said. The 250-pound, seven-foot non-maneater would be killed, he said.

Motorman Testifies At Trial Of Four Boys

"I know he was under the car, but I didn't want to look at him," a San Francisco Municipal Railway motorman told the jury yesterday at the murder trial of four minor youths.

He referred to William P. Hall, 27-year-old Ross School teacher, who died under the wheels of his "J" line car last April 29 near Dolores Park.

The state charges the youths —Lawrence McGee, 18; Michael Kilkenny, 17; William Castillo, 17, and Alexander Robert Hall, 17— beat and robbed the schoolteacher, then left him to die on the tracks.

Giblin said: "I first saw the body when we were about 30 feet away. The body wasn't moving. I slammed on the brakes, but it was too late."

Giblin was the first prosecution witness. The case is being tried before Judge Charles Peery in San Francisco Superior Court.

Tunnel Work Will Begin On Monday

Filling of the railroad tunnel cave-in on Lincoln Avenue as a temporary measure to restore two-way traffic will be started Monday, it was reported today by Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael, contractors on the job.

A company spokesman said equipment might be moved to the scene this afternoon. Brown-Ely is to restore the street to grade under contract from Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co.

Meantime, Mayor John F. McInnis announced a meeting regarding the tunnel of engineering staff representatives of the railroad, the city of San Rafael, the California Division of Highways and the Bay Area Rapid Transit District next Wednesday at 10 a.m. will be in the supervisors' chambers of the courthouse. A Public Utilities Commission hearing on a Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. request for "extended service" among San Rafael, Ignacio, Belvedere and Sausalito exchanges is scheduled at that time in the city council chambers.

Cuba Says U.S. Has Atom Base In Puerto Rico

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Cuba accused the United States today of setting up an atomic base and a "remote control rocket base" in Puerto Rico.

"This certainly puts Puerto Rico in danger of extermination,"" Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia-Inchaustegui told a special session of the General Assembly debating the French-Tunisian dispute concerning Bizerte.

"The United States, which has bases all over the world, reasons along colonial lines when its bases are being considered," he said.

Garcia-Inchaustegui renewed the attack he began yesterday with a charge that the U.S. was marshalling mercenary forces at Guantanamo Bay and in Puerto Rico for aggression against Latin American countries.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson observed after the Cuban's first attack that "some respect for the truth would improve the credibility, if not the emotional quality, of the gentleman's rhetoric."

Nevada Hit By Storm —Flash Floods Loosed

SPARKS, Nev. (AP)—The second thunderstorm in two days hit Western Nevada yesterday afternoon. It loosed a flash flood, stopped Southern Pacific trains again, and swept away a taxi.

Four persons were trapped in an office. They climbed up under the ceiling and escaped.

RENO MURDER CASE

Teener's Petition Fights Extradition

Attorney Benjamin Dreyfus of San Francisco filed a petition in Marin Superior Court today in an effort to save a Mill Valley teen-ager from being hauled into Nevada Court on a murder charge.

The youth is Jeffrey Kelley Connell, who observed his 18th birthday in Marin Juvenile Hall yesterday.

Connell and two Reno youths are charged with the holdup-murder of Reno grocer Jack Griffis, 54, last March 3. Griffis' wife Belva, 50, was indicted for the murder and held in fail for four months before the boys admitted they were the ones who shot the grocer.

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court ordered a hearing for 2 p.m. Sept. 5 on the petition by attorney Dreyfus.

The petition contends that Connell's arrest and detention for extradiction to Nevada as a fugitive is illegal because the youth did not flee Reno. Dreyfus alleges that Connell was compelled to leave Reno by order of the probation officer in Washoe County. Furthermore, says the complaint, the death penalty cannot be imposed on a person who is not yet 18 at the time of the crime.

Dreyfus asks the court to free Connell, or have him put under the jurisdiction of juvenile court instead of being handled in adult court. Connell, only 17, at the time, says he accompanied Richard Worrell, 16, of Reno into the grocery store on March 3 with the intention of robbing Griffis. Connell told officers Worrel fired at the grocer, and they fled without getting anything.

Connell, who lived at 65 Marguerita Avenue in Mill Valley, was arrested July 11 after the Reno youths implicated him in the holdup-murder.

Carpenter Is Guilty In Marijuana Case

A San Francisco carpenter, who formerly lived in Mill Valley, was found guilty today of having marijuana at his Mill Valley apartment last March 4.

He is Frank Charles Fisher, 26, who lived at 424 Shoreline Highway at the time of his arrest. Judge Thomas F. Keating set 2 p.m. Sept. 18 as the time for a probation report and sentencing. Fisher could get a penalty of up to one year in county jail or up to 10 years in state prison.

A jury of eight men and four women heard the cast until last night, when the defense suddenly waived the jury. The jury waiver came when Deputy Dist. Atty. P. Roy Vallarino put San Francisco bartender Abe Katz on the witness stand.

Katz, who knew Fisher for four years, was located by Inspector Donald E. Midyett yesterday and rushed into court. He at first refused to testify on grounds he might incriminate himself. When Vallarino offered him immunity to testify, Katz said he would tell all he knew.

At this point, defense attorney George Walker of San Francisco asked that the jury be called off, and the case heard by the judge alone.

Another prosecution witness, an attractive 20-year-old blonde from Fairfax, testified for two days against Fisher. She said she had met Fisher at Country Club Bowl on March 4 and had gone to his apartment where they smoked marijuana.

A.F. Callup Announced

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force will call seven reserve units to active duty Oct. 1, it was learned today. No California units were involved.

ECLIPSE OF MOON TONIGHT

There will be a nearly complete eclipse of the moon this evening but not much of it will be seen over Marin.

Nearly 100 per cent of the moon's face will be obscured by the earth's shadow at the midpoint, at about 6:18 p.m. before darkness is complete, The Museum of Natural History-Hayden Planetarium in San Francisco reported.

The eclipse will begin in daylight at about 4:45 p.m. and end about 9:50 p.m. after darkness is complete.

Women's Air Speed Record Is Reclaimed

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (UPI)—Aviatrix Jacqueline Cochran today reclaimed the world's speed record for women.

Still the nation's No. 1 woman pilot at 55, Miss Cochran announced at a news conference today that she had flown a T-38 Talon jet trainer 842.6 miles an hour over a 15 kilometer closed course yesterday at this desert base.

The mark, as certified by the National Aeronautics Assn., breaks the old record of 715.97 mph held by Madam Jacqueline Auriol of France, set in May of 1955. Madam Auriol's 1955 flight surpassed a record Miss Cochran had held since 1953 when she became the first woman to break the sound barrier.

U.S. Launches Scout Rocket

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Scout rocket roared skyward today from the Virginia coast in a new attempt to loft a "beer can satellite" to study tiny space bullets that might kill improperly protected astronauts.

The 72-foot, 36,000-pound Scout booster shot up from a seaside launching pad at Wallops Island at 1:30 p.m., carrying a 127-pound instrument payload intended for an orbit between 280 and 610 miles up.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Tunisian Charge

TUNIS (AP) — The Tunisian government claims France summarily executed 100 persons—many of them women—during last month's bloody fighting for the Bizerte naval base. France has denied Tunisian charges of atrocities.

Russ Death Sentence

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet court sentenced a truck driver to death by shooting for hijacking furs and textiles from a state enterprise, the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

Cost Of Living Up

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Living costs crept up to another new high in July, government sources said today.

They made the disclosure in advance of release of the Labor Department's monthly consumer price index.

The index was expected to be up slightly from June, when it reached a record high for the first time in six months. The index usually rises in July, when fresh food prices advance to a pre-harvest high.

Murder Suspect

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (UPI)—A 28-year-old porter was arrested late last night and charged with first-degree murder in the fatal stabbing of Dr. Paul Behrendt, 64, a well-to-do German-born physician.

Police said the suspect, identified as Theodore R. Stovall of Jamaica, N.Y., was picked up a little before midnight, less than 24 hours after a housebreaker killed Behrendt and seriously wounded his radiologist wife in their two-story, Tudor-style home.

A telephone conversation between Stovall and a friend led to the arrest. Police said Stovall left a phone number in the telephone booth at the bar and a quick check enabled them to learn the suspect's identity.

Vehicles Deputy

SACRAMENTO (AP)—After 38 years with the Department of Motor Vehicles, Mrs. Beth Bennett of La Mesa will take over as deputy director.

Mrs. Bennett was named deputy director of motor vehicles yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. She succeeds Tom M. Bright, who was appointed director last week.

Mrs. Bennett, a Republican, will receive $1,274 a month.

Brown said she will continue to work in San Diego where she has managed the branch office since 1947.

USIA On Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Information Agency (USIA) is waging an intensive campaign around the world to inform people on the Berlin issue.

It has run into disinterest in neutral and underdeveloped countries of Africa, Asia and Latin America. There the common attitude is that the Berlin crisis is a big power or a white man's struggle that has no bearing on more pressing questions like food for the next meal.

USIA wants to spread the idea that the Soviet threat to Berlin is a danger to free people everywhere.

USIA portrays the Berlin situation as "Khrushchev's crisis," brought on by bankruptcy of the Communist system. USIA stresses unity and determination of the Western allies and their preference for negotiation rather than conflict to settle the issue.

Oust Churchill?

LONDON (UPI)—A campaign is under way in Sir Winston Churchill's Wanstead-Woodford constituency to have him resign from Parliament to make way for a younger man.

The 86-year-old Sir Winston has been returned to the House of Commons regularly since 1945.

In editorials and news dispatches in the past several weeks the constituency's local weekly, "The Woodford Guardian," has raised the question: "Sir Winston: Shouldn't he resign?" In an editorial below that headline, the newspaper stated:

"Churchill should go. That is the cry that is getting stronger in some circles in Wanstead-Woodford."

Audrey Meadows Wed

HONOLULU (UPI) — Actress Audrey Meadows and Continental Airlines President Robert F. Six, former husband of actress Ethel Merman, were married yesterday at St. Andrews Episcopal Cathedral in Honolulu.

The couple will leave for Tokyo tonight for an extended Asian honeymoon. They plan to make their home in Denver and Los Angeles.

Segregation Ruling

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A federal judge has ruled that public funds may not be used to support private segregated education in Prince Edward County as long as the county's public schools remain closed.

But Judge Oren R. Lewis, in a 19-page opinion made public yesterday, did not rule on a more fundamental question—whether Prince Edward can be compelled to reopen its public schools.

He said a suit on the state constitutional questions involved in this issue should be brought in state courts within 60 days.

He also ordered the county to submit by Nov. 15 a report on plans for desegregation of elementary schools as he had directed April 20, 1960.

EICHMANN'S SON TAKES BRIDE

Horst Eichmann, 21-year-old son of Adolf Eichmann, and his bride, the former, Elvira Teresa Pummer, 21, stood in the registry office at Tigre, near Buenos Aires, following their civil marriage yesterday. Horst is the son of the man now on trial in Israel for the murder of six million Jews. The bride is a member of an Argentine family. (AP Wirephoto)

Shakeup Gives French Premier More Power

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle's drastic shakeup of the French Cabinet appeared today to have concentrated control of the government more directly in the hands of Premier Michel Debre.

Yesterday's re-shuffle was de Gaulle's first major cabinet shakeup since he took office in January, 1959.

One of Debre's bitterest opponents, minister for the Sahara and overseas territories Robert Lecourt, resigned. To assume Lecourt's functions, deputy Jean de Broglie was appointed secretary of state in charge of the Sahara and overseas territories, attached to Minister of State Louis Jacquinot.

DeGaulle created a new post—a state secretariat for refugees to handle any influx or Frenchmen from Algeria—but no new ministers for information or for overseas territories were named.

The only other notable change was the replacement of Henri Rochereau as minister of agriculture by Sen. Edgard Pisani.

Observers saw the move as a sop to French farmers, irate because of falling prices and what they consider "inadequate" government supports. The farmers, who set up roadblocks around market towns earlier this year, have threatened new demonstrations.

Favorable U.N. Vote Expected For Tunisia

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly winds up its Tunisian debate tonight, and all indications point to overwhelming approval for a resolution calling on France to take her troops off Tunisian soil.

In an effort to reach a vote tonight, Assembly President Frederick H. Boland of Ireland scheduled morning, afternoon and night sessions to clean up the list of 15 speakers.

Supporters of the resolution predicted it would poll far more than the two-thirds vote needed for adoption despite expected abstentions by the United States and other allies of France.

The sponsors anticipated no more than half a dozen negative votes from colonial powers. Others opposed to the resolution in effect censuring France were expected to abstain.

Cape Area Gets Ready For Moon Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) Brevard County, which missiles transformed from a sleepy citrus area to the nation's fastest growing county, prepared for a new boom today in the wake of Cape Canaveral's selection as America's jumping-off place to the moon.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced yesterday that it will purchase 80,000 acres of land north and west of the Cape on which to construct launch pads and facilities for the monster Nova rocket, the multimillion-pound thrust vehicle assigned to carry astronauts to the moon and beyond.

Several other sites had been considered.

60 MILLION DOLLARS

The land acquisition, which NASA reported would cost 60 million dollars, may erase thousands of acres of lush citrus groves, three Atlantic Ocean recreation beaches and three unincorporated towns and will force about 500 persons to move from their homes.

The citrus groves, some of the richest in Florida, are located on North Merritt Island, west of the Cape. The beaches, popular with central Floridians, are on a narrow strip of land extending about nine miles north of the Cape.

Most persons who will have to relocate were unhappy with the news. But the majority felt the government would give them a fair price for their property.

'HURTS FARMERS'

Charles W. Skelly, an orange grove owner, commented: "It hurts anyone who is a farmer at heart to lose land. But if it is the proper action and for the good of the majority, we naturally will go along with it."

Gov. Farris Bryant termed the decision "the biggest development ever in the Florida economy." He estimated the project would mean a long-term expenditure of $80 billion in the state.

Many missile companies which have been awaiting naming of the moon base are expected to establish plants in the state.

An official estimated a billion dollars would be spent on construction of at least four Nova and two additional Saturn launch pads.

Hoffa, Meany Clash Over Revolting Locals

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamster President James R. Hoffa was embroiled today in another clash with AFL-CIO President George Meany, one of his bitterest enemies.

This time the battle was over the recent defection of 4,000 Cincinnati Teamsters.

Hoffa called Meany's role in the revolt a "shameful performance." He called on all member unions of the AFL-CIO to refute their chief. Otherwsie, he warned, the Teamsters will "rise to the challenge."

The scrappy Teamster boss delivered his blast yesterday in a telegram to the presidents of all 134 unions. Meany had no immediate comment on the wire but was said to feel that few AFL-CIO officials would take it seriously.

Hoffa's attack was prompted by the vote of a group of Cincinnati dairy workers last wek to break with the Teamsters union. They asked the National Labor Relations Board to schedule an election designed to protect their bargaining rights.

Meany met with leaders of the rebels for an hour Monday. He issued a statement afterward, welcoming their defection and promising any aid they needed. He praised them for voting to break with what he called the "gangster dominated" teamsters.

Hoffa countered with his bristling telegram.

"This shameful performance by a former local officer who boasts he never walked a picket line demonstrates a complete indifference to the international union which pays his salary," Hoffa stated.

Hoffa also said Meany's action in the Cincinnati revolt amounted to an "open season" invitation to other unions to raid Teamster locals.

The Teamsters were expelled from the AFL-CIO on corruption charges several years ago. The action followed a Senate rackets committee investigation of Hoffa, former Teamster President Dave Beck and other officials.

D.C. Visit Planned

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Cheddi Jagan, leftist prime minister-designate of this British South American colony says he will visit Washington this fall. He wants more aid to develop his country, now approaching internal self-rule.

Negro Rider Convicted In Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A 12 man, all-white jury yesterday convicted Henry Thomas, 19, of St. Augustine, Fla., on a breach of peace charge in the first appeal trial of a convicted "Freedom Rider."

The jury deliberated 45 minutes.

Thomas, a Negro and student at Howard University, had appealed his earlier conviction in City Court.

"Turn him loose . . . and blood will flow and there will be violence," said Hinds County Prosecutor Jack Travis in his final argument.

Defense counsel William Kunstler countered: "What Travis is telling you is that if any person, including yourselves, fails to move on, regardless of whether he has committed an offense, blood will flow in the street."

Expert Says Way To Beat Sharks Is To Eat Them

HONOLULU (UPI) — Experts attending the 10th Pacific Science Congress say man's best bet to reduce the menace of shark attacks on swimmers is to eat more sharks.

But the world's leading authorities on sharks told newsmen following a session on the subject yesterday the problem is to get people to eat the ugly monsters whose meat mostly is highly edible but subject to worldwide prejudice as a menu item.

Dr. Perry W. Gilbert, chairman of the shark research panel of the American Institute of Biological Sciences, said his group had been meeting every two months since 1958 in the constant search for a "surefire" repellent or control of sharks.

"We think that one of the most effective ways to reduce the shark population is to fish for them," Gilbert said. But he said this was costly unless the sharks could be sold to the public and this meant eating them.

Hawaii was cited as an example of an area which was relatively free from shark attacks on swimmers until fishing of the underwater beasts ceased commercially several years ago when they lost favor as a food. They were made into fish cakes and canned, but sales dropped off rapidly when a new law required that the shark source be shown on can labels.

Only in Australia, where shark meat is known as "flake," is there a ready market for it in "fish and chip" shops and elsewhere.

Leonard P. Schultz, another member of the AIBS shark panel, said there have been 906 recorded attacks on human beings since 1580, of which 655 were unprovoked. He said those "which concern us most are the unprovoked attacks" and so far no discernible sure pattern of behavior can be determined even among sharks of the same species.

Gilbert said a "shark is highly individualist" and "it poses a great problem in getting at a universal repellent or control." He said every once in a while they go into "feeding frenzies" which are unpredictable "and then they will eat anything that will fit into their mouths" whether it be a man, a case of beer or a log.

"Exactly what causes this, we don't know either," he said.

Firefighting Now Colorful

EAST PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI)—Fire Chief Earl C. Griffith says the familiar red "has lost its distinctiveness for firefighting equipment."

The chief rushes to fires in a "Corinthian white" sedan which matches his helmet and raincoat.

Most of the city's firefighting equipment still is red but the fire hydrants are a variety of colors.

The hydrants are painted white, alumnium, blue, green, red or black, according to the size of their water mains.

Caught With A String

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Police reported a thief took $13 in quarters from a change machine in a self-service laundry. He would drop in a half dollar, pull it back with a string, and pocket the quarters it brought out.

Constant Visitor

NORFOLK, Ohio (AP)—Patrolman Fred Childress is getting to be well known in Norfolk hospitals. He has been hospitalized for treatments three times in six months. Twice he was in automobile accidents and once he fell through a roof.

A Lucky Shot For Fisherman

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — John Kastner, 35, of Denver, was fishing in the Arapahoe Lake area south of Laramie when he accidentally dropped his .44 caliber revolver.

A single bullet wounded him in four places. The bullet struck the calf of his right leg, grazed his right thigh, nicked his right wrist and struck his upper right arm.

He was not seriously hurt.

WANDERING STREET COMES TO HALT

The extension of Doherty Drive, Larkspur's street that doesn't want to stay put, had settled down today in this pattern. The big cracks developed Wednesday where mud from the slough of Corte Madera Creek had been piled against the roadway to strengthen the old levee that forms its base. James M. de la Montanya, estimator for Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael, contractors for the street job, refused to guess whether the road base will stay put this time, however. "It's like looking into a crystal ball," he said. (Independent-Journal photo)

A.F. Colonel Innocent Of Drunk Charge

A Hamilton Air Force Base officer, who led the first daylight raids over Berlin in World War II, was acquitted of a drunken driving charge in Marin Municipal Court yesterday.

Lt. Col. James Oscar Crutchfield, 46, of Headquarters, Air Reserve, Region, Sixth Air Force, was found innocent by a jury of six men and six women who heard the case before Judge Harold J. Haley. The jurors deliberated less than two hours and decided that the colonel had not been intoxicated when arrested by highway patrolmen on Highway 101 at Black Point cutoff last April 6.

John G. Buresh, attorney for the colonel, argued that it was a personality clash between Crutchfield and arresting Patrolman Richard O'Brien which caused the colonel to be belligerent toward the officer.

The colonel took the witness stand in his own defense and testified he had a couple of beers but nothing more.

Span Board Again Plans Transit Meet

Golden Gate Bridge District directors today decided to meet as a committee on Sept. 5 to try again to decide whether to approve appointing an engineering board of review to settle the question of whether the bridge can carry trains.

The board met in committee this morning for that purpose, reached no decision. Later, during the regular board meeting, the decision was reached to try again Sept. 5 at 10 a.m.

The directors first heard a report from Carl H. Gronquist, New York consulting engineer retained by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District to study bridge-crossing problems.

Gronquist, who earlier had found transit on the bridge feasible and practical, answered a series of objections made by the bridge district's consulting engineer, Clifford E. Paine.

Point by point he attempted to refute Paine's contentions that the bridge would sag so low as to be detrimental to ship traffic, that the stress on the cable wire would be too great, and that the trusses on the bridge could not be satisfactorily reinforced.

After Gronquist's presentation, opponents of transit on the bridge, led by directors Peter Gasser of Napa and Leland Murphy of Marin, subjected Gronquist to a series of questions. He stuck to his insistance that trains on a lower deck would pose no threat to the bridge's safety.

Second Suit Filed For Damages In Tavern Accident

A second damage suit, for $25,000, was filed today in Marin Superior Court for injuries suffered when a car crashed into the bar at 751 Club in San Rafael last May 24.

Mrs. Ethel Schiller, 52, of 17 Redwood Drive, who runs Abardean Plastics on C Street, is suing for $25,000 general damages plus medical and court costs. She says she suffered sprains, shock, and numerous injuries as she sat at the bar.

A car driven by Phyllis Wellen, 16, of 18 Sirard Lane, San Rafael, jumped the curb and crashed through the wall at the club. Most severely hurt was Raymond Edwin Fetz, 53, a brick mason of 1333 Fourth Street, San Rafael. He sued for $100,000 last week.

Named as defendants are Miss Wellen, and her father, Fred D. Wellen, who owns a typewriter company in San Rafael.

Fairfax School Board Is Meeting Tomorrow

Fairfax School District trustees will hold a special meeting at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Manor School to discuss a proposed 27-unit apartment house at the rear of the school. The developers, Fleischman Enterprises, are requesting a connecting drainage pipe which would run across school property.

The trustees will tour the three district schools to inspect improvements performed during the summer.

Ross Town Council

The Ross Town Council sat as a planning commission last night in a review of the new zoning ordinance and map. Councilmen will hold a second public hearing on the ordinance on Aug. 30 at 8 p.m.

between the Eastern and Western parts of the city. Bars had been placed across the tracks and were discovered just in time to avert a disaster.

FATALITY—The first known fatality of the nerve war came when Communist police killed an East German who plunged into a waterway near the old Reichstag building and tried to swim to the west.

BRITISH WARNING—Great Britain has warned the Soviet Union again that any attempt to interfere with Western flying rights into West Berlin would create a dangerous situation and that Moscow would be to blame. The Foreign Office, however, has advised Britishers contemplating visits to East Germany, to travel at their own risk.

WARNING SHOTS—Communist police have fired warning shots over the heads of West Berliners when they defied Red orders to draw back from the border. No one was injured but West Berlin police moved about 30 persons back to safety. Western spokesmen said this did not represent any acceptance of a Communist attempt to set up a 100-meter no man's land along both sides of the border.

CONFERENCE TRY — The U.S. and Britain are trying to get France to agree to calling a foreign minister meeting with the Soviet Union on the Berlin Crisis in New York next month. French President Charles de Gaulle fears that any sign of excessive western eagerness to negotiate might be regarded by the Kremlin as a sign of Allied weakness.

U.S. RESPONSE—The U.S. has told Russia that an attempt to blockade Berlin would be an "aggressive act," and the Russians would be responsible for the consequences, and accused Russia of slander, deception, attempted intimidation, heightening world tensions, cynicism and irresponsibility. The accusation was in response to a recent Soviet note that charged West German spies and saboteurs were being flown into West Berlin.

SHOW OF FORCE—Two U.S. Army tanks put on a show of force by rumbling up to the East-West Berlin city border in open defiance of an East German demand that a no man's land be established. Artillery units have also been added.

EAST GERMANY—Communist boss Walter Ulbricht said East Germany would honor the four-power agreements on Allied access to Berlin until a German peace treaty is signed. He said the Russians will continue to control Western Allied traffic through East Germany. Ulbricht said he stressed the agreement would be observed until a peace treaty is signed. The Soviets have said they will sign a treaty this year.

A.F. Reserve Region At Hamilton AFB Is Getting New CO

ANDREW B. CANNON
New reserve region chief

Brig. Gen. Andrew B. Cannon will take over in October as commander of the Sixth Air Force Reserve Region with headquarters at Hamilton Air Force Base.

He will take the place of Brig. Gen. George S. Cassady, commander of the region since March. Cassady will retire from the Air Force in ceremonies at the base tomorrow after 30 years service.

GEORGE S. CASSADY
Retiring from Air Force

A review, fly-by by jet planes and award of commendation medals will be included in ceremonies which will begin at 10 a.m. at the base and one open to the public.

Cassady in World War II served in the China-Burma-India theater, commanding a unit of C-46 transports which flew over "The Hump."

He has been a civilian airlines pilot and has held posts with the Bureau of Air Commerce.

Since the war he has commanded various transport groups and was commander of Lajes Field in the Azores. He attended the National War College in 1952. Since 1953 he has been deputy commander of three military air transport divisions.

Cannon comes to Hamilton from his post as commander of the 63rd Troop Carrier Wing at Donaldson Air Force Base, S.C. He began his flying career following World War I and has been an airline pilot.

He too served in the C-B-I Theater as commander of a wing of transport planes flying the Himalayas.

Following the war, cannon became superintendent of maintenance for Capital Airlines. As commander of the 63rd Troop Carrier Wing, he commanded planes which air-supplied Operation Deep Freeze in the Antarctica.

Double Sessions Planned For 3 Lagunitas Grades

First through third graders at the Lagunitas School will be on double sessions for about two weeks after the opening of school, the district trustees were told last night.

Supt. Clifford L. Frye said five new classrooms and a multi-purpose room would not be completed before that time. The new rooms will house the upper grades.

A new 67-passenger bus, approved for purchase earlier this year, will be delivered next week by Bianco Motors of San Rafael at a cost of $8,530, Frye said.

The trustees approved hiring of two new teachers. They are Miss Mary Ann Kolanoski of San Geronimo, sixth, seventh and eighth grades; and Mrs. Joan Rose Sims of 11 Merrydale Road, San Rafael, second grade.

Mrs. Douglas Hubbard of Forest Knolls was hired as part time bus driver.

Contracts were not awarded for science demonstrations tables, benches and tote trays pending a review of specifications, Frye said.

San Rafael High School Registration

Students entering San Rafael High School who did not attend San Rafael elementary schools or high school last year must register next Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, Principal Alfred N. Thomson said today.

They may receive counseling on their programs and register any time after 8:30 a.m. on those three days, he said. He asked that a parent accompany each entering student.

Those who attended San Rafael elementary schools last year received help last spring in arranging programs for the term which starts Sept. 5. They will attend freshman orientation sessions next Thursday at 9 a.m. at San Rafael High and 9:30 a.m. at Terra Linda High School.

Thomson and Principal Webster Wilson of Terra Linda High said there will be no registration of new students on Sept. 5, the opening day of school. Those who fail to register in advance must arrange for registration appointments Sept. 6 or later, the principal said.

Jumps Wrong Way

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—When a 17-year-old youth held up a neighborhood branch of a Savings and Loan Assn., he wasted no time falling into the clutches of the law. He leaped a fence and fell into the clutches of off-duty Lt. Rocco Navarro, sunbathing in his back yard. The $3,000 loot was recovered.

Recreation Site Will Be Graded

Trustees of the Strawberry Recreation District last night decided to authorize completion of the grading of their recreational site on Belvedere Drive by accepting a $3,000 note from Piombo Brothers of San Rafael. The note, at six per cent interest, bears interest April, 1962.

Mrs. James Gowen, secretary, said it was announced that a 200-foot covered drainage ditch will be installed at the site tomorrow by community volunteer labor.

'GOOD SHOW, GANG'

'Dark Of The Moon' Opens In Sausalito

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"Good show" best describes "Dark of the Moon" which opened last night at Sausalito's Gate Playhouse.

Gate Five Productions' initial opener is the story by Howard Richardson and William Berney of a witch boy who wanted to be human. He was granted this wish with the provision his beloved, Barbara Allen, would remain faithful to him for one year.

But witch boy (Tom Anderson) "don't have no soul" and then again "humans never understand each other."

Well qualified, actor Anderson makes the eagle-riding witch boy a strong and believable character. His cohorts in the sky are well played by female witches Myrl Britton and Sally Lacey, conjur woman Romie Drexler and conjur man Robert Allen.

Folk singer Nan Fowler, playing zither, narrates the song Barbara Allen. She is excellent.

Everybody loved "Barbry Allen." Likewise. She is pert red headed Ruth Lewis, a fine performer.

Comedy is provided professionally by Ann Carroll, James Robinson, Mary Diederich and Edward Kimberly amongst others. Dean Cyr, as preacher, leads his flock to the Lamb of God in a highly delightful revival meeting. Cyr is good.

Will Marchetti, who once played the part of witch boy, directs. Assisting him is Meg Whiting. Lighting was done by J. R. Turner, sound by Chuck Royster and costumes by Myrl Britton.

There were a few first night jitters and one light failure for the Gate Fiv'ers but with the quality of the show, that "makes no never mind" as they say on Chunky Gal Mountain where Barbara Allen comes from.

"Dark of the Moon" plays at 8:30 p.m. today and tomorrow and will run for several weekends.

Recreation Unit For Twin Cities To Sponsor Play

Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission last night decided to again sponsor the Twin-City troopers' little theater presentation of "Suds in Your Eye" this fall.

The show had a three-run engagement in May at the Corte Madera recreation center. The commissioners said the fall showing of the play may be held in the Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur.

Elizabeth Boissebain, program leader at Eastman Hall for the summer program, reported sewing, arts and crafts and the teen dances held in the hall were all successes.

The commissioners will receive a full written report on the six-week summer program which ended on Aug. 12 after recreation director Bill Gordon returns from his vacation. Secretary Ruth Stephenson said the report will be presented at the next commission meeting on Sept. 28.

4 Buildings Approved For College

The Marin Junior College District board last night voted 4-to-0, with George G. Washburn abstaining, to approve the master plan for four new buildings on the College of Marin's Kentfield campus.

The vote was taken after a report by Wesley Hull, of the architectural firm of Falk and Booth. It calls for construction of:

1—A gymnasium and aquatic center. The college never has had a swimming pool. Washburn did not agree a pool should have such high priority. The present gym may not be used for spectator sports, having been condemned by the state fire marshal.

2—A student center (including book store, cafeteria, lounge, student government offices and, possibly, college administration).

3 — A speech - drama - music building.

4—A science building. The current building is one of the oldest on the campus, and deemed inadequate for present needs.

Later in the evening, the trustees went into executive session for 35 minutes with County Counsel E. Warren McGuire regarding a condemnation suit for acquiring additional land for expansion of the Kentfield campus.

Washburn did not take part in this session. He went home shortly after it began.

COLLEGE BOARD VOTE

Parent Education Will Be Continued

Education in how to be a parent will be continued by College of Marin—but with the trustees holding the junior college district's obligation to underwrite the program to $1,800 for the school year.

The Marin Junior College District board voted last night 4-to-0, with trustee George G. Washburn abstaining, to continue the parent education program, with cooperative nursing school workshops in Mill Valley, Corte Madera-Larkspur and San Anselmo.

The vote was taken after an hour and a half discussion, joined by a number of young parents in the audience who urged the program be continued. Washburn repeated objections he made Aug. 3 to costs to the college district. Trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy and Rupert E. Kempf argued over statistics.

At one point Mrs. Deedy said, "You are going to use an expensive man's time to figure pro rata statistics" and Kempf retorted, "You could get statistics to prove the world is flat."

All trustees agreed with mothers and fathers in the audience on the worth of the program in developing better parents and making the children better future citizens. But Kempf to some degree joined with Washburn in wondering where the money would come from if costs continued to rise.

Dr. Ellsworth Briggs, dean of extended day and adult education, in presenting a report urging continuance of the program, played a 15-minute tape-recorded talk by Dr. Milton Babitz, parent education specialist of the State Department of Education.

The board voted:

1—That $15 tuition per semester be continued (Kempf asked about raising this but got no support).

2—That customary supervision continue. This includes employment of instructors, visitation of day and evening programs and assistance on curriculum especially for night joint meetings.

3—That parents and instructors help the college earn highest possible average daily attendance by continuing the policy of enrolling groups with attendance average of 29; also that fathers be urged to continue, if possible to increase, their attendance at night meetings.

4—That the board limit obligation of the district to underwrite the program to $600 per unit or not over $1,800 for the three units.

As he did Aug. 3, Norman Bird, college business manager, reported the total cost of the program is in the budget which the trustees earlier approved.

A bronze figure of Frederick August Bartholdi will be unveiled Oct. 28 near the base of the Statue of Liberty. Oct. 28 is the 75th anniversary of the dedication of the statue, Bartholdi's greatest piece of sculpture.

PARENTS OF 4-YEAR-OLDS:
Let's look ahead
—to the year 1975. Johnny, Jim and Sue, babies now—are ready for college. Or are they? Do they have the study habits—the inquiring minds—and, let's face it, the grades, necessary to attend the college of their choice. FYT Pre-Schools, dedicated to the task of making scholars, points out that the need for effective training is during the formative years, before the child is of school age. Often this training is not possible in the home—and, often, outside the home it is not successful. FYT PRE-SCHOOLS have made a careful study of methods of presenting this first exposure to school atmosphere, and have developed a program based on the "pleasure principle". Their fine staff is especially skilled in creating a happy experience for the child—and their program offers a gradual introduction to academic programs of study with instruction in languages, music, science and the important life as a member of a group. Give your child the opportunity to start HIGH—research shows he'll stay at the top all through his school experience. Call FYT Pre-Schools, GReenfield 9-7711, for information or an interview—or, visit open house Wednesday night at eight—Saturday at one at FYT Pre-Schools, 10 Joseph Court, Redwood Highway, opposite Terra Linda.

'Fanny' Opening Sunday

By LES DARD

Like the man says in the travelog, come with me now, on a conducted tour of Marin County's cinematic wonderland:

RAFAEL THEATER

The enchanting "Fanny" steps elfin-like onto the Rafael Theater screen on Sunday, a sure candidate for 1961's motion picture sweetheart.

The screenplay was taken from the hit Broadway musical by S. N. Behrman and Joshua Logan, based on a trilogy by French author Marcel Pagnol. Logan is director-producer.

Fanny is the central figure in this tender melodrama placed on the Marseilles waterfront. She is bewitchingly young, the dancing flame who lights the lives of all who know her.

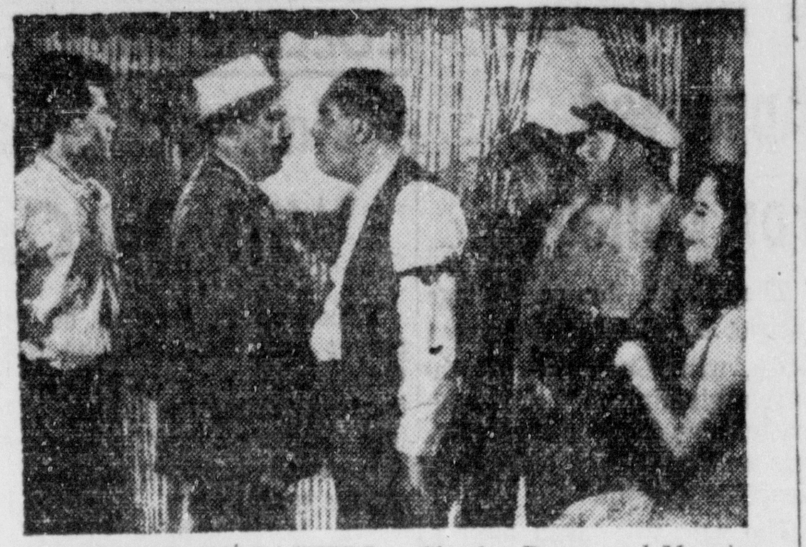
Fanny loves and is loved by a handsome youth who is torn between the girl and his longing for the sea. Not wishing to deny him his dream, the selfless Fanny tricks him into running off to sea, not telling him she is expecting his baby.

After he is gone, Fanny accepts the love of an aging widower who gives her baby his name and Fanny the security of marriage. Years later the young man returns and eventually their love finds a way.

Fanny is radiantly played by Leslie Caron, her lover by the new idol of the younger set, Horst Buchholz.

The outstanding characterizations, however, are by two famous gentlemen you never expected to see in roles like this. Maurice Chevalier turns in the finest acting of his career as the widower who worships Fanny. Charles Boyer, gray and grizzled, convincingly plays the father of Fanny's lover.

You will enjoy meeting Fanny, and expect to encounter her again in the Academy Awards race.



COUPLE OF CHARACTERS — Charles Boyer and Maurice Chevalier glare at each other in a Marseilles waterfront cafe in a scene for the technicolor production "Fanny," coming to the Rafael Sunday. On the same bill is "One Eyed Jacks," starring Marlon Brando.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Lovers of science fiction will take delight in "Master of the World," starting Sunday at the Tamalpais.

It's the Jules Verne story of a 19th Century mad scientist —Vincent Price—who invents an indestructible flying machine with which he flies around destroying the world's armies and navies to rid the world of war.

A party of balloonists falls into his clutches and he forces them to stay aboard the impossible aircraft while he drops bombs on ships in the Atlantic and an Arab uprising in Egypt. He showers leaflets on Washington and London ordering them to "disarm or die."

Playing important roles are Charles Bronson, our hero, who messes up the mad scientist's plans, Henry Hull and Mary Webster.

It's 104 minutes of lively, enjoyable hokum.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Tammy Tell Me True" takes to the Sequoia screen on Sunday.

Sandra Dee plays the gamin off a southern shanty boat who spouts old-fashioned proverbs in an early-American tongue. As Tammy says, she's "hunger bit" and "discombabbled," but she's cute.

Tammy was reared on a riverboat by a grandpappy preacher who talks backwoods English and makes corn liquor on the side, until he's caught and sent to jail. Thus alone, Tammy decides to get some schoolin', and ties up at good old Seminola College.

Co-featured is the nerve-jangling "Village of the Damned," starring George Sanders. If terror is your dish, this is a tasty one.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Two first-class offerings are on-screen at the Tiburon Playhouse: "Butterfield 8" and "Libel."

"Butterfield 8" stars Elizabeth Taylor in a picture about a mixed-up beauty who meets Laurance Harvey and finds real love for the first time.

"Libel" stars Olivia de Haviland and Dirk Bogarde in an exciting courtroom drama made in England.

MOTOR MOVIES

A couple of years ago, Columbia made a frothy comedy about young people titled "Gidget." Lots of young people went to see it. Thus we now have "Gidget Goes Hawaiian," opening Sunday at Motor Movies.

A screen newcomer, Deborah Walley, portrays Gidget, the charming scatterbrain whose adolescent over-dramatization gets her into trouble. James Darren is a boy friend from whom she's temporarily estranged, and Michael Callan the interim romance. by Carl Reiner and Jeff Donnell, Peggy Cass and Eddie Foy Jr.

Another good one for the family.

LARK THEATER

Going into its fourth week at the Lark Theater is a whimsical British comedy starring Peter Sellers, "The Battle of the Sexes."

Sellers plays head clerk in a sleepy Scottish tweed firm invaded by a beautiful but officious American efficiency expert, Constance Cummings.

She wants to clear out the oldsters who've been running the company successfully for years, and install electronic gadgets to take over some of the jobs.

Sellers reaches the point of murder, but comes up with a much cleverer solution that will amuse you.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Operation Petticoat" and "Wackiest Ship in the Army" both weighed anchor at the Fairfax last night, with lots of nautical nonsense.

"Petticoat" stars Cary Grant as a wartime submarine commander and Tony Curtis as one of his lieutenants.

"Wackiest Ship" stars Jack Lemmon and Ricky Nelson in another World War II farce. Lemmon plays a Navy lieutenant assigned to command a rickety old sailing ship with a crew that doesn't know port from starboard.

But when the old ship gets into action, the Japanese realize they're in real trouble.

NOVATO THEATER

"The Naked Edge," last picture by the late Gary Cooper, comes to the Novato screen on Sunday.

The made-in-England picture depicts Coop as a British clerk who mysteriously comes into money after testifying at the murder trial of an office associate. He parlays the money into a fortune.

Five years later, a blackmail letter revives the mystery and sends Coop's wife, Deborah Kerr, on mysterious wanderings to determine whether he is a killer.

Fleur d'Lys Takes Its Place With Elite Of Marin County

If it isn't a complete renaissance for Fleur d'Lys, at least it's a healthy summer upsurge that bodes new life for the little San Anselmo French restaurant on the hill. Recent midweek attendance would do credit to Saturday or Sunday—gratifying to see, for it's really a colorful spot, now well established among Marin elite dineries.

All of which is reflected in its most recent menu. Though still featuring the popular $3.75 and $4.95 dinners, an excellent choix a la carte has been emphasized, bound to run you more with the trimmings but it wouldn't be there at all without the demand. Other equally fine selections can be had on call.

Among the latter we'd suggest an outstanding tournedos Rossini, topped with a gooseliver pate and truffles.

The wine list, too, has both imports and fine California wines, selected, we note, from among the best the state has to offer.

YEE FOO MEIN—it's a new dish at Confucius Restaurant in Greenbrae and the English breakdown is: Fried noodles cooked in thick sauce with bamboo shoots, water chesnuts, mushrooms, snow peas and diced chicken.

Horace Fong says it's favored among diet conscious people, high in proteins, low in calories, and a meal in itself. This is true of most Chinese dishes which are cooked in vegetable and peanut oils.

Here's a snack for you late owls who might wander in on a Friday or Saturday night when the place is open until 4 a.m.—Confucius ham or bacon and eggs with pineapple, banana fritter and fried rice.

Horace also wants it known his place specializes in American dishes from the farm and from the sea, besides the Cantonese delicacies

IT'S A SLEEPER: Chicken lasagne served with a delectable tomato sauce Neapolitan style (no meat sauce)—prepared for two. The place: Nero's Room at the Nave Lanes, Ignacio.

VOCALIST MAKING A NAME — Vocalist Dale Corliss, appearing at the Colonel's Ranch Wagon with the Gene Byrnes Trio has proved to be a popular atraction.

Chef Louis Paini has more than one trick up his sleeve here. You can eat something different every day of the week.

Mothers who can't altogether escape the responsibilities of their young ones can leave them at the Nave Lanes nursery while bowling or eating.

JERRY TONELLI has been ribbed so much on the deferred opening of his luncheon patio on Lootens Place, San Rafael he's shut up tighter than one of his clams when the subject comes up.

But he did open up long enough today to say that his wine and beer license has been validated, so about all he needs is tables and he's ready to go. Look for it to happen (maybe) next week.

He says, too, after the restaurant is under way he'll begin making deliveries to housewives in Terra Linda and Marinwood from his retail store.

SCOTTO'S BUFFET at 535 Fourth Street, San Rafael, is back serving food again—buffet style as per its name, both lunches and dinners.

In charge of this department is John Morrow who used to operate Morrow's Drive-In on the Miracle Mile. He's recently returned to Marin County from Eureka.

BLUE ROCK INN in Larkspur has long been noted for its steaks. I've heard confirmed regulars hold that as far as they are concerned it's the one place to go for juiciness and tenderness—and good seafood on Fridays.

But seafood galore is on the menu throughout the week—I've counted seven different items.

Bob Hosmer prides himself on the abalone. "Blue Rock abalone has as much right to a blue ribbon as our beef," he affirms.

So—I've told you about it. The rest is up to you.

By COL. MAX HOROWITZ

From time to time, "GOOD FOOD IS MY LINE" will pass on information regarding items of food which might interest you as much as they do me. Today we'll talk about carrots. It's hard to imagine, but every year Americans eat 1½ billion pounds of carrots. Because of this great demand, carrots have become a commercial crop in twenty-one states of the union. This vegetable can be harvested during every season of the year. Another fact about carrots is that they are not native to this continent. They were brought over here with the Jamestown settlers in 1609, and although the carrot is one of the primary sources of vitamin A, it has been a popular food only since the 1920's.

In line with the above—the Colonel's Ranch Wagon uses carrots for various purposes. We use them with peas or pearl onions as a hot vegetable. We always have carrot salad at our Salad Bar. Why not come in and try this delicious food—we're on Hwy. 101 just north of the Richardson Bay Bridge.

PAINTINGS OF CHRIST'S PASSION

Artist In Sausalito Completes Work On Stations Of Cross

By BRUCE COLEMAN

A non-Catholic and a declared Pantheist, Sausalito artist Franc Snyder has completed what he considers to be his most important work of art—the Stations of the Cross.

The stations, or Way of the Cross as they are sometimes called, are 14 scenes showing the stages of Christ's passion. Catholics, in services, offer a prayer at each of the 14 stations.

Snyder said the work was two years in planning and nine months in actual painting. "I started it," he said, "because of miss-mixing media."

He ruined a painting, Snyder said, then, looking at the damage, got the idea of using the technique in other paintings. From then on he controlled the use of his "mistake."

Rich in color, the technique, which is done in oil, gives the effect of painting on stained glass as well as of mosaic work. Blue is used in the paintings as a focal point and the paintings have a three-dimensional effect.

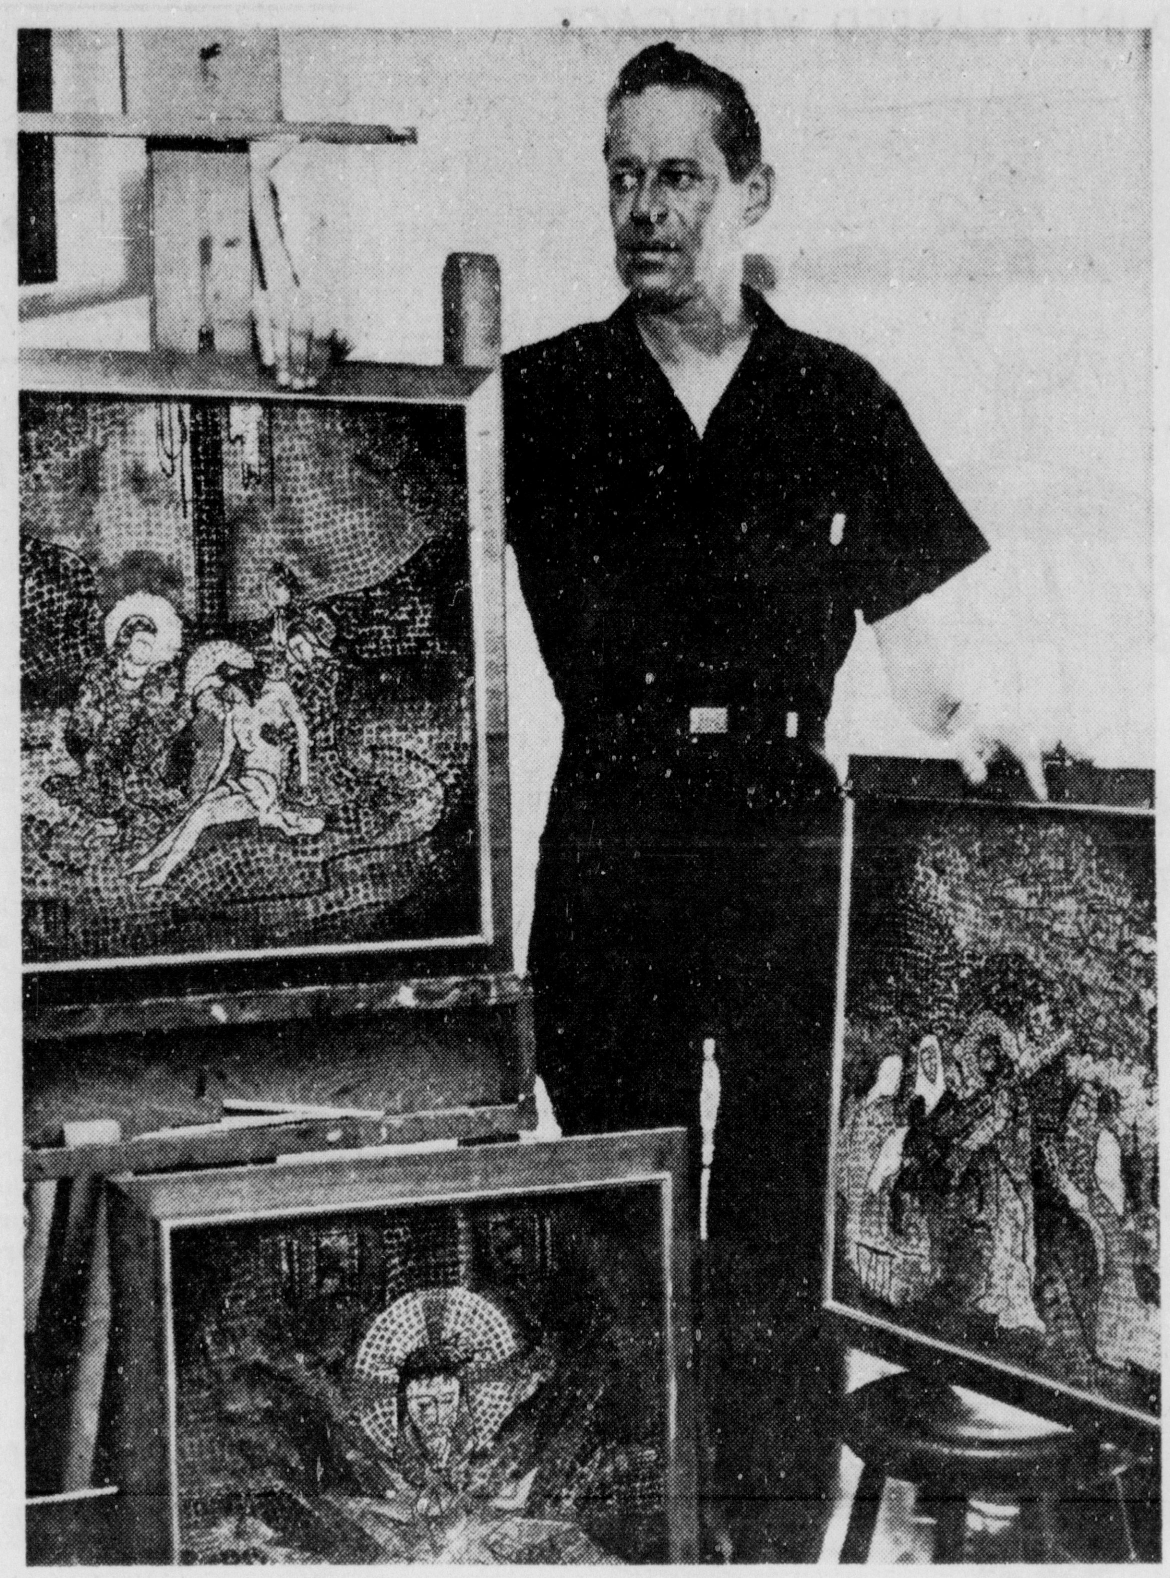
Snyder said he has always been interested in the study of religious history.

"I have a Pantheistic approach to life. I feel there is a deity in all of nature," he said.

The 45-year-old artist said one does not often see the Stations of the Cross in liturgical works. "The main reason is that it takes so much time and patience to produce them. I painted things like the demons (pointing to a painting on the wall of his studio) in the meantime to get off the kick.

"I painted the Medusa, this demon, right in the middle of my work. I had to," he added, "after all, these are 14 paintings of tragedy. I was a witness to an execution."

He said that many of the great painters of liturgical art in the past were accused of heresy because they painted gods and devils too.



PANTHEIST PAINTS CATHOLIC ART — Franc Snyder, Sausalito artist, displays some of the unusual paintings of the Stations of the Cross which he has made. They must be placed in a church, he says, but he doesn't know where. (Independent-Journal photo)

Snyder's study prior to starting the painting was mainly in travel to many Catholic churches to study the stations.

The 14 scenes will be displayed for the first time as a feature of the Sausalito Art Festival, Sept. 2-4 at Central School playground, 420 Litho Street.

Snyder, a frequent visitor to the Big Sur, at one time planned to give the stations to the Mission of San Antonio de los Padres in the Santa Lucia Mountains in exchange for food from the mission gardens. But, having changed his mind about living in the woods of those mountains, he does not know now what he will do with them. "They will have to be in a church," he said.

He added he would like them to be hung in the form of a cross against a white stone wall with light shining on them from a stained glass window. The scenes were painted on fiber board. They were framed in redwood for Snyder by Betty de Prado of Sausalito.

Snyder said his greatest problem was the emotional impact of the work. He said he almost gave up a couple of times.

The artist said he plans to do a large Nativity scene by Christmas.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

When Man Dies He Leaves A Hole In An Organization

When a man dies he leaves a hole in any organization. This is particularly true if he has been regularly on his job for a third of a century.

Thus it is, with the loss of Arthur La Fontaine we at the Independent-Journal feel this distinct sense of loss.

It's not that we were always so close to him, or even that we saw him every day (this happens less and less as organizations grow). But we always knew that Art would be on the job, that he could be relied upon and that the job he had to do would be done.

Thus when he is suddenly taken away without much warning, even doctors were unable to diagnose his problems until after he was gone, there is a void.

True, his job is being filled; there is no blank space in today's newspaper because he didn't set the type for it. But Art isn't in the composing room.

He isn't ambling from his type setting machine to the long table where he deposited his galley of type. He won't be stopping at the water cooler before strolling back to his machine, swinging his shoulders in the slow, deliberate manner in which he moved.

He won't be greeting us as we invade the back shop or run into him at a downtown store.

We'll miss Art La Fontaine. He served his country, his community, his union and his employer well and faithfully. He was the third oldest I-J employee in years of service.

And we appreciate every one of them.

The Jasper And Jade Tree

There is no tree quite like the madrone. See it from a distance in the evening sun, its rich red bark glowing in the sunset. Place your hand upon the trunk and feel its mysterious coolness even on the hottest day.

The terra-cotta color of its bark, interspersed with jade green patches, makes this Marin native an unusual delight to the eyes. Large, glossy, leathery leaves which resemble those of a rhododendron or magnolia, add to its beauty. Birds seek out its big orange berries in autumn.

Experts disagree on the economic value of its wood. Some say it becomes brittle, splits easily and is fit only for charcoal and tobacco pipes. Others say it is fine-grained heavy, and takes a fine polish and makes an excellent hardwood floor.

However, everyone is agreed this handsome broadleaf evergreen is a jewel of a tree—jasper and jade in their own green setting.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

'DEAD' LAD BEGINS LIFE AGAIN

Five Chicago doctors teamed up to rebuild the life processes of a 2½-year-old boy whose heart had stopped for more than five minutes.

A severe case of bronchitis had so congested the breathing of the boy that all heartbeats ceased. Ordinarily this means that, even if one recovers, the brain is damaged by lack of oxygen and the victim reduced to a vegetative existence.

The physicians, one of them the lad's father, applied "every talent known to science." They lowered his body temperature to slow his oxygen intake; gave him drugs to control convulsions; eased his breathing with oxygen; and treated his windpipe with a special solution.

Their efforts succeeded, although the child had to relearn all his bodily functions as if he were a newborn baby.

Just as doctors cooperate with God's physical laws rather than make laws of their own, so you should strive to work along with His changeless moral law.

Not Even Algebra Aids Mother In The Maze Of Today's Market

By JOY STILLEY
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Every housewife needs a purse-size electronic computer, to take to the supermarket along with the grocery list.

Failing this, she should at least have a master's degree in higher mathematics if she hopes to make her money go to its stretchiest limits.

Arrayed on the shelves are cans, packages and boxes in all sizes from wee tiny ones, through middle-sized ones and on up to great big ones. And it's up to Mama Bear to decide just which one will provide most dinner for her dollar.

For instance, two packages of cheese sit chummily side by side. But Mamma's frugal eye notes that one is 29 cents and the other 35 cents.

"Six pennies saved is six pennies earned," she mutters happily to herself as she tosses the cheaper one into her basket.

But it's not that easy. The two brands look just alike but there may be more to this than meets the eye. How about seeing if they weigh the same, a thrifty inner voice cautions.

Aha! Just as she thought. The 29-cent package contains six ounces, but the 35-cent kind boasts a full eight ounces.

Now poor Mamma, long since having forgotten her multiplication tables, must somehow figure out which is the better buy.

By adding 29 to 35, multiplying by 16 and dividing by the number of holes in the cheese, she comes out with a headache—and a four-ounce can of grated cheese.

EVERYTHING COMES in the large economy-size tube, jar, box, can, package or bottle nowadays. But by a lot of fancy figuring a math-minded shopper often discovers it's more economical to buy two of the uneconomical sizes than one of the economy sizes.

Cans are the biggest problem. These require a special algebraic formula to arrive at the price per ounce of avoirdupois.

IF A EQUALS the No. 303 can and B equals the buffet-size can and C equals the No. 2 can and the buffet-size can is really 227 grams, whereas the 8-ounce can serves 1 to 2, what can we have for supper tonight that the whole family will like?

It might be easier at that just to count the number of peas.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Don't Give Up Swim For Sharks

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your reports and editorials covering the case of "man against the shark," (or vice versa), have been of great interest to an overwhelming majority of the population, to say the least. Neighborhood chatter and sidewalk gossip bear this out, yet admittedly this is more than the babbling of idiots.

Out of all this have come many stories of bravery and heroism, struggle and strife, of life and death. Some have survived, unharmed. Some are maimed in one or many capacities. Many have lost their lives in their encounter with the shark, yet, through it all, I wonder if, through the eyes of a shark, the story wouldn't be somewhat interesting, perhaps a bit amusing too.

It would seem that the beaches of the country a scant 10 years or so ago, were scarcely occupied, and that in reality, the shark has been around for eons of time, as it were. Had there been a man in the water, he could hardly have been found by a shark, starving for "Homo-Sapien."

Today though, 10 years hence, the population on the increase at the rate of 30,000 per day, by migration over the border alone, people by the millions have taken to the water. Beaches upon which you would have needed binoculars to find a friend just a while back, are so crowded that there is standing room only. The water? Standing room only!! Perhaps the chance of a human getting in the way of a shark has increased far more than the mere increase in the numbers of sharks.

We human beings panic and live in mortal fear at every new thing, and even sacrifice the enjoyment of living, out of this fear of the unknown. What about the advent of the automobile? Man, with less sense than the horse he was riding (in many cases), ran headlong into the dark of the bush to hide from the "darned old thing."

The aeroplane, they said, was stupidity in bloom. We were crazy to risk our lives trying to fly in that machine. What about the crashes on the road, increasing because of involvement by increasing population. And the aeroplane? Involvement by increased population accounts for more chance.

And the shark? More and more participation by more and more population accounts for the predicament we work feverishly to explain. In how many other ways do we risk our lives, (literally take our lives in our own hands), each new day when we run the ordinary risk of living and carrying out the duties of life, whether it be for fun or profit?

How many hike the trails of Mount Tamalpais with its rattlers crawling all over? Surely you're as dead from a 30-inch serpent as from a 30-foot shark, (providing he gets all of you). And who had the most enjoyment last Sunday? The fellow who took an ordinary risk in life, enjoying a day at the beach and a swim in the ocean, a hike over Tam, a drive down the Pike, or a dead-beat at age 109 who never enjoyed a day of his life?

Enter the crosswalk at the corner and question the driver of the car coming at you. Is he a drunk! Wow! You've had it! How about your jet ride? Will you plummet to earth from 25,000 feet? Even though you didn't "go near the water," did someone frighten you nearly to death, wheeling around the "U" turns on Tam, crowding you nearly over the edge? And your day was such a joyous affair. You might as well have enjoyed a dip, too!

Call us what you will, but some of us Americans love to swim. Sit around on the beach if you like, but "don't go near the water."

Admittedly the risk is there. It's there, everywhere, every day, every way. While you think I'm feeding the sharks, I think you're feeding the "road hog." While you're laughing at me, I'm laughing too. While I'm enjoying every minute, I'm wondering about you. On this much we both agree, one day we'll laugh together.

So, planes, cars, trains, subways, tennis, hiking, football, or just plain SWIMMING! Let's quit living?? No, not I.

Need Christianity In Car Driving

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I am enclosing the attached because of the increased tragedies on the highways and the apparent moral irresponsibility of so many of us.

I think this piece in a newspaper could be an eye-opener as it has to us Episcopalians who have read it.

JOSEPH M. REYNOLDS
Corte Madera

(NOTE: Reader Reynolds enclosed a sheet torn from a church bulletin which contained an article "The Christian Behind The Wheel." It cited statistics on highway casualties, then said in part:

"As Christians face up the statistics of highway safety, it should give sufficient cause for a re-reading of the Sixth Commandment. It is not only the malice aforethought, anger or passion that give rise to murder; nor are guns, knives or poisons the instruments. Sane, peace-loving kindly Christians who want to save a few seconds, who get wrapped up in conversation, or who just don't think, turn out to be mankillers in the twinkling of an eye. When the horrible tragedy happens, they are sorry beyond words, they didn't mean to do it, but they have killed and sinned against God and their neighbor."

A University of Chicago graduate, the ink on his diploma not yet dry, was being interviewed for a job. "What are your outside interests?" he was asked. "My avocation," announced the graduate, "is constructing intricate high-fidelity units."

The personnel manager took off his bi-focals. "Young man," he pointed out, "vice-presidents have avocations. Heads of departments have hobbies. You — you're just foolin' around."

There's a student at Iowa State who figures he can make a million dollars if he can teach his poodle to talk. "You're on the wrong track," his roommate assured him. "Who'd pay a million dollars for a talking dog?"

"Nobody," admitted the student, "but I bet I could find a half dozen dog food outfits who'd pay me a million just to keep him quiet!"

Corte Madera Volunteer Firemen Aiding Chief, Learn He's Suspicious

A group of Corte Madera volunteer firemen attended Monday night's meeting of the Town Council. They were there to give moral support to Fire Chief Frank Nelson when the question of a second fire station east of Highway 101 came before the council.

Council members asked Nelson if he did not think that it would be unwise to have the fire truck unguarded in an unlocked building. Nelson shook his head. He mentioned other fire districts that have unlocked, unguarded fire stations.

"Why, I've been with the Corte Madera volunteer firemen for 28 years. In that time, we have had only one theft—that of a tank of gasoline," Nelson said.

"And I still think it was an inside job," Nelson added, to the guffaws of the embarrassed firemen.

SOMEONE APPROACHED your reporter to comment on the recent column on buying used cars.

"No one gets the best of a car dealer," he said. "They just don't get taken the worst."

And someone else thoroughly trounced your reporter for a term used in reporting on Larkspur's galloping Doherty Drive. This street, now being constructed between Magnolia Avenue and Redwood High School, will not stay put. It keeps sliding out into the oozy mud into what we once referred to as a swamp.

We were, but thoroughly, corrected—it is marshland, not swamp.

The person did it with all the haughtiness of someone correcting a tourist for calling the city south of the Golden Gate "Frisco" not "San Francisco."

THE CITY of Larkspur has a proposed grading ordinance before the City Council, aimed at controlling the movement of dirt.

It exempts such things as basements, swimming pools, graves, wells, tunnels and mine shafts. (Anyone want to sink a mine shaft in downtown Larkspur?)

But it omitted BOMB SHELTERS!

Believe you me, if the prophets of doom are right, digging bomb shelters should be second to digging graves.

EVER SINCE World War II, the federal government has been after the "populus" to build its own bomb shelters. Hardly anyone has taken it seriously.

This brings up a very interesting question, why don't people take the federal government seriously on such important things as civil defense and the Berlin crisis?

Could it be that the public has built up an immunity to listening to Washington, D.C.?

Perhaps this little jewel released by the Department of Agriculture would help explain the public's tongue-in-cheek attitude toward its big Uncle Samuel.

The Agriculture Department came out with a very interesting statistic, aimed we imagine, at encouraging the dairy industry. It states that the 4,000,000 babies born during 1960 would drink 50,000,000,000 quarts of milk in their lifetimes.

Now, how does that department measure the amount of milk consumed by breast fed babies?

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Tragic Truth Is That Khrushchev Is Winning A Real Victory In Berlin

BERLIN—Though Western diplomats would like to put a more agreeable face on it, the tragic truth is that Nikita S. Khrushchev, ruthless, wily, and unafraid to risk war, is winning some of his main objectives in the battle for Berlin.

Mr. K's victory will not be readily conceded by the Germans, or by the British, or by American officials. But it is grimly in the making. It is visible, in fact, in event and in atmosphere the minute you come within sighting distance of the desolate Brandenburg Gate, through which so many thousands of East Germans fled to freedom.

I am not referring only to the Red militia, who have turned their guns on their own people to halt the refugees.

These massive and violent acts of repression—all in bald violation of the four-power agreements to permit free travel between East and West Berlin—have been prominent in the headlines.

BUT THE TRUTH, the symbol, the forecast of the shape of things to come are contained in the less publicized fact that the three Western powers took the most "tactful," elaborate, let's-not-provoke-anybody precautions at the Brandenburg gate to make sure that the West Berliners did not gather to hurl even an unkind word at the Communist troops, or even an encouraging cheer to an East German who might still break through to freedom.

Now, the new Chinese wall is sealing off the borders so that it can be neither scaled nor pierced. Not only has the flow of refugees been brought to a standstill, but hope of escape has been snuffed out.

THE FACT IS, the Berlin crisis is entering a new phase and, from the standpoint of the West, a deteriorating phase. I say this because the known—but not always admitted—position of the West is to accept these events with reluctance, yes, even with anguish, but also with a kind of relief.

I do not contend that these events could have been averted, or altered, except by the use of force which would have made war over Berlin probable.

We did not have the will to do so. We did not have the non-nuclear power to do so. Chancellor Adenauer did not have the wish to do so. It is doubted that even Mayor Willy Brandt would have recommended that we do so.

We have, therefore, acquiesced — after making the proper protest.

MY PURPOSE in saying this is not to suggest that special blame rests with Washington or London or Paris. I say it because it is imperative that we see candidly what has happened so that we understand what lies ahead. And do our best to make the most of it.

•What lies ahead is this: Khrushchev is not through. Having seized the border by force of arms, having made it impossible for West Berlin to be a show window of freedom and prosperity to any but the convinced, his next step will be to attempt to terrorize, intimidate, and so depress the people of West Berlin that this once vibrant city will in time shrink and shrivel.

It is probable that the greatest danger of war has now passed:

1. Because Khrushchev and the East German Communists have already attained a psychologically reduced West Berlin, and this is sufficient for the present.

2. Because the Soviets know that new encroachments upon the visible freedom of West Berlin would be resisted by force by the West.

West Berlin will remain a "free" city for some time to come. Whether it can escape becoming a lonely, hopeless, declining city is very much in doubt.

Hub Couple Celebrates 64 Years Wed

An Anniversary Very Few People Able To Match

F. Harry and Mary Catherine Berry of San Anselmo today marked an anniversary that few can match: 64 years married.

They celebrated yesterday, a day ahead of time, at a party at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Irene Dudley, at 45 Mountain View Avenue, San Anselmo.

The couple, who were married in Winona, Minn., on Aug. 25, 1897, have lived at 931 San Anselmo Avenue for the past eight years. "We came here from Spokane, Wash., to be near our daughter," explained Mrs. Berry, who turned a hale and hearty 89 years old last Saturday.

Their daughter, Dorothy, the wife of Dr. Earle M. Young of 11 Madrone Avenue in Kentfield, has been a Marinite for almost 30 years. Living with them in San Anselmo is their son, Harold, a former airplane pilot who logged 20,000 air miles in 18 years of flying, beginning in 1927.

"We went together for five years before we were married," Mrs. Berry said — adding that the engagement was "too long."

On their wedding day in Winona ("a lovely town"), Berry was a 26-year old machinist in the shops of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad.

"Harry was on his way to becoming foreman," she recalls. But the family moved to Keesling, Wash., in 1908 because of her husband's health. There they bought a 10-acre ranch where for seven years they "practically starved to death" growing potatoes, apples and cherries. He kept the family going by doing carpentry work on the side.

"Nobody would buy those beautiful potatoes and fruit," Mrs. Berry said, adding philosophically that their arrival in Keesling was on April Fool's Day.

Their next stop was Spokane where Berry worked in machine shops until 1953 when they moved to Marin. He retired at that time. He reached the age of 90 on the 25th of last month.

Since they have lived in San Anselmo, both have been active members of the First Baptist Church, which they attend as often as possible.

"I was baptized in the church 78 years ago," Mrs. Berry said proudly.

Senate Passes On Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy's bill to establish the overseas Peace Corps on a permanent basis was passed today by the Senate.

The measure, which now goes to the House, authorizes 40 million dollars for the corps' first year with the intent of putting 2,700 volunteers abroad or in training by next June 30.

Just before passage on a voice vote, Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) withdrew an amendment proposing to cut the money authorization to 30 million dollars.

Hickenlooper said yesterday's 59 to 32 defeat of his previous amendment to cut the fund to 25 million dollars substantially settled that issue.

Hickenlooper joined in supporting passage with what he called "mixed emotions."

He said some of the Peace Corps volunteers have been attracted by the idea of seeing "strange and exotic places and eating exotic food . . .

"But I predict it will not be a picnic," he added. "And I hope we do not delude ourselves into thinking this is the answer to all human relations."

College Of Marin Awards Repair Work Contracts

Contracts for repairing several College of Marin buildings were awarded last night by the Marin Junior College District board.

Tresch Electrical Co., Novato, was awarded electrical work on several buildings with its bid of $13,213. Dill and Sederberg, Mill Valley, was awarded boiler repair work on several buildings with its bid of $1,548.

Booth and Little, Larkspur, won the contract for reroofing a portion of the Science Building with its bid of $760.

The items are rated top priority needs on a list of old buildings as prepared by Falk and Booth, architects.

The district board meeting also:

1—Approved use of school facilities by various groups, including use of football field by Marin Boys Club, Inc., on various dates in September and October, with proviso that public address system not be used.

2—Approved visit at date to be set later by trustees, superintendent and dean of instruction to California Polytechnic College to study printing and other occupational programs.

3—Approved attendance by board members and three administrators to Junior College Assn. meeting at Yosemite Oct. 31-Nov. 2 and attendance by Dr. Ellsworth Briggs, dean of adult education, at American Assn. of Junior Colleges Commission on Legislation meeting Oct. 20-21 in Chicago.

4—Voted approval and assistance (about $400) to William H. Scalapino, who is using project to win a doctorate, to make community and college survey of College of Marin curriculum (a project the board felt would cost thousands of dollars if done by outside consultants).

5—Heard a report by Irwin Diamond, dean of students, that 1,000 to 1,100 students, including about 18 from foreign countries, will be starting classes Sept. 11.

6—Discussed textbooks but declined to have a committee study them. Trustees observed texts in junior colleges do not require board vote—but Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, trustee and board clerk, said she wanted to review books used as reading matter year after year and other trustees agreed this matter deserved inspection.

7—Accepted resignation of Mrs. Marie Eddy, library clerk, and approved hiring of Patricia A. Pomerlo to replace her at $300 per month effective Sept. 1.

'EVERYBODY QUIT; I QUIT TOO' —Lee Poy sits beside cash register in crowded Sam Long Laundry, and announces the business—one of the oldest in San Rafael—is closing up shop. No more laundry bundles will be accepted at Sam Long. (Independent-Journal photo)

'QUIT — QUIT — QUIT'

Veteran Chinese Laundryman Is 'Throwing In The Towel'

By RANDALL GOULD

"Everybody quit — quit — quit!" says San Rafael's veteran Chinese laundryman. "So I quit too!"

Lee Poy, longtime proprietor of the confusingly named Sam Long Laundry, is "throwing in the towel" at a young 64 though still bubbling with pep.

The doors of his establishment, more venerable than himself but its age unknown, will slam shut forever at 1107 Second Street next Thursday (providing they don't fall off meanwhile; it could happen any minute).

Thus will pass one of the last of the old-time Chinese laundries to be found in Marin County or anywhere. (China itself never has had many laundries.) One other, the Wing Sing Laundry, remains at 914 Lincoln Avenue.

It seems safe to forecast that no further business of any kind will be conducted there. In the words of Lee's second son (who adds confusion by using Poy as a family name), "No use trying to rebuild. Better tear it down."

His own decision to quit seems to have been a decisive turning-point.

Rush your laundry in today if you want any more service at Sam Long. Today is the announced deadline for acceptance of work. But the boss is not happy about it.

"Just too hard to get help," says Lee Poy with a hard look back at son Joe Poy. "Boy no like laundry business. Wife gets tired. Old fellow Tom 65, going get Social Security, so he quit too. No use."

Tom has been around only a little over 30 years so Lee has not found out the rest of his name yet. Everybody has been too busy for any great amount of social intercourse, it seems.

"Six; seven days work a week," says son Joe, clamping down on an automatic pressing machine (they don't depend on the old-fashioned Chinese flatiron around Sam Long). "And hot? That's a big part of it.

"Anyway," Joe adds a little defensively lest he be held solely responsible for the decision to quit, "I'm not the oldest son.

"He works over at the post office. And another's in the insurance business."

Joe's sister Karen was saying nothing and working hard nearby. She isn't Karen Lee but Karen Poy, which led to query.

"Too many Lees," said Lee Poy with a grin. "Jus' like too many Wongs. And too many Smiths. Children like to use name not so many of."

The reason this is the Sam Long rather than the Lee Poy laundry is that the present owner is the third. He never even knew the first owner, reputedly extinguished in a Tong war. He bought from a second man in 1927 after coming from his birthplace in Kwangtung Province of South China in 1917.

His father, he recalls, at that time operated a store in San Rafael's C Street. Business wasn't always booming, Lee Poy got some laundry experience in D Street, and when the chance came to operate for himself he snapped it up with the acumen common to his race.

During his 44 years in San Rafael, Lee Poy, now father of four sons and two daughters, made just one trip home to China. That was in 1924 and so far as he is now concerned that's it.

"China no more good," says he with finality. "No money in China, anyhow."

Asked about the extent of his prosperity in the laundry business, Lee Poy pointed to big bundles of newly-arrived work with the comment "plenty of customers," but was deprecatory as to financial return: "Just enough to keep family."

The floor is at various levels and the boards yield alarmingly as one tip-toes around inspecting things. There are three steam pressers, a cash register, but Chinese numbers appear on the work tags.

There used to be Chinese ideographs on the laundry tickets but these disappeared at least 20 years ago, Lee Poy thinks. Son Joe can't recall them.

Things still move at a brisk clip in the Sam Long Laundry. But there is a feeling of disinterest to which Lee Poy is closely attuned.

Looking at the busy workers, he says suddenly: "You fellows no like work laundry. All right, I take it easy too, now."

Stolen Automobile Found Overturned

10th Annual Cat Show Set For Marin

The Marin Cat Fanciers' 10th annual cat show will be held Oct. 28-29 in the new armory at the Marin Civic Center in Santa Venetia.

A record number of entries is expected, according to William R. Deeths, show manager. The armory will provide exhibition space far larger than previous shows have had, he noted.

Judges will be Mrs. Betty O'Brien, all-breed, and Mrs. Lillian Pedulla, shorthair and longhair specialties.

Among new features of this year's show will be a children's art exhibition.

Show proceeds go to the Marin County Humane Society.

Information about entries may be obtained from Deeths, 74 Wellington Avenue, Ross; Mrs. Evelyn Kionig, 121 Terrace Avenue, Kentfield, or Mrs. Byrne E. Davis, 541 Whitewood Drive, Terra Linda.

Broader Premarital Law Is Urged For California

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A group of local health officers has recommended broadening of California's premarital examination law to require complete physical examinations and premarital advice.

The recommendation of the California Conference of Local Health Officers was reported to Gov. Edmund G. Brown today by the State Public Health Department.

The proposal was made on the basis of a department study of the state's premarital examination law, which now calls for a blood test only.

The study disclosed that since 1940, a total of 3.7 million Californians have taken the exam. Of these, 56,000, or 1.55 per cent, showed reactions indicating syphilis.

Other findings disclosed that almost all those interviewed had adequate knowledge of the exam law and felt it is worthwhile, and that 11 per cent felt the law should be broadened.

Only 17 per cent said they had sought premarital counseling from their doctors, and about the same percentage said they had questions concerning family relations which they had wanted to ask at the time of the state examination.

BINGO FINDS IT FASCINATING

Marsanne Milmoe, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Milmoe Jr. of Greenbrae, does a turnabout at weekly wildlife story hour at the Junior Museum of Marin—reading to Bingo the Fox instead of listening to reading by member of the sponsoring Chi Omega Alumnae. The wildlife story hour is now in its third summer, and is held each Tuesday from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for children from 4 to 10. The Chi Omega Alumnae also are donating books to form the basis of a library at the junior museum. ((Independent-Journal photo by Dick Steinheimer)

Planners Ask Change In Definition

The Sausalito Planning Commission has recommended to the city council a change in the definition of a hotel which would require that hotels in other than commercial areas would have to be strictly residential with no accessory uses such as bars and restaurants.

At present, hotels are permitted with accessory uses. The hotel and apartment zone runs, roughly, from south to Filbert Street along Bridgeway and off Bridgeway into the hills for about one and one-half blocks into residential areas.

The commission also will ask as a proposed change to the new zoning ordinance that a hotel, whether or not it has accessory uses, be called a commercial use. It would ask that a commercial hotel with accessory uses be allowed in the present commercial zone except in the two blocks of the commercial zone between Valley and Richardson streets.

It suggests that each accessory use of a hotel in a commercial zone should be treated separately, as if it were a separate business.

New Child's Bike Found Abandoned

A brand new child's bicycle, with price tag and guarantee tag still on it, was found abandoned at Albert Field near the children's wading pool Wednesday, San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa announced today.

The tags do not indicate the name of any store. Chief Chiesa said the owner may claim the bicycle at the police station by properly identifying it.

Two boys at Albert Field found the bicycle and took it to the station last night. They are Birney McDevitt, 11, of 829 C Street and James Wade, 9, of 813 Fifth Avenue.

Berth Permit Sought For Richardson Bay

Richard and Floria Fess of Piedmont have applied for an Army Engineer Corps permit to dredge and fill and construct small boat berthing facilities on privately owned or leased tide lots on the south side of Richardson Bay between the city limits of Sausalito and the Highway 101 bridge.

Col. John A. Morrison, Corps of Engineers, 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, said any objections should be sent in triplicate to his office by Sept. 20.

Jaycees In Mill Valley Propose Playground

The Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce today proposed the city build a playground for children on the city's recreational site, Project 17.

The playground, to be similar to Pixie Place at the Marin Art and Garden Center at Ross, would be available to Southern Marin youngsters, Chamber treasurer L. R. Paterson said.

Directors plan to see builders and building material firms to try to obtain materials such as pipe for a jungle gym and concrete tiles for a children's tunnel. Activities will be held to pay for the playground installation, the first of which is a hole-in-one contest Sept. 16 and 17 at Hole 8 at the Municipal Golf Course.

The Jaycees also announced plans to sponsor a five- or three-man bowling team of Junior Chamber members.

A membership party is to be given at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of president Lee Shain at 192 Lovell Avenue. Paterson said men from 21 to 35 and their wives are invited.

T. J. de Lasaux Jr. has been appointed Jaycee secretary to replace Burke Critchfield, who has moved to Livermore.

Convicted Wife Slayer To Get New Marin Trial

Robert Burdette Rogers, 42-year old San Gabriel contractor convicted of murdering his wife at a San Rafael home in 1959, is scheduled to be brought back into Marin Superior Court Monday morning for a new trial on the same charge.

His conviction was reversed last july by the State Supreme Court, which decided Rogers was deprived of due process of law because of a stipulation entered at the time of the first trial. At that time, Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety and defense lawyer Gregory Stout stipulated that the verdict would be restricted to second degree murder or manslaughter. This denied the presumption that Rogers is innocent until proved guilty, the Supreme Court ruled.

Sheriff's deputies will bring Rogers back to Marin tomorrow from the state prison at Tehachapi. He was sent there on a five year-to-life term.

On Monday morning, Rogers will be arraigned, and a date set for the new trial. His lawyer this time is Robert H. Aarons of Pasadena.

MARIN GRIDDERS READY FOR 1961 SEASON

Marin high schools' locker rooms blossomed out with shoulder pads, jerseys, helmets, etc., this week as coaches prepared to open practice for the 1961 football season. Here, Coach Bob Franceschini of Sir Francis Drake High School chats with halfback Rich Bottini (left) and end Larry Kline as equipment was issued to the Drake Pirates. Practice will start on a full scale Monday at Drake along with the other schools in the Marin Athletic League—Redwood, San Rafael, Novato, Marin Catholic and Tamalpais. The 1961 practice schedule begin Sept. 15 and the MAL race starts on Oct. 13. (Independent-Journal photo)

Giants Still Confident; Invade St. Louis Tonight

ST. LOUIS (AP) — There are still plenty of skeptics about the San Francisco Giants' chances of capturing the National League pennant, but not, apparently, among the team's players or coaching staff.

Even after last night's 8-5 loss to the league-leading Cincinnati Reds, the Giants expressed confidence.

"We still have to play them one at a time," said Manager Alvin Dark in the dressing room after the Reds snapped his team's six-game win streak.

ANYBODY'S RACE

Jack Sanford, last night's losing pitcher, said: "It's anybody's race now." And he made it plain that anybody just might be the Giants.

"Why not?" asked catcher Ed Bailey, "Those two clubs out in front of us are looking back over their shoulders at us and shaking."

"So we lost a game," chimed in Orlando Cepeda. "Now we go out and win six more."

The fifth-place St. Louis Cardinals, who just finished sweeping a series from second-place Los Angeles, go with ace Ray Sadecki (11-6) to the hill tonight against San Francisco's Billy O'Dell (4-4).

The third-place Giants were dropped five games back of Cincinnati last night. Sanford (10-7) was chased in the seventh, but Stu Miller who relieved him didn't have much luck either as the Reds scored four unearned runs on errors by Willie McCovey and John Orsino.

The Giants trailed all the way. Leo. Gardenas, put into the line-up by Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson in a shakeup to bolster the sagging Reds, batted in three runs with three hits.

At one point the Reds held a 4-0 lead. Orlando Cepeda doubled to drive in the Giants' first two runs in the sixth. The Giants scored two more in the eighth and another in the ninth.

McCovey went three for five, scored twice and batted in a run. Since the big first baseman came back into the lineup last Friday he has hit at a blistering .500 clip and was a big factor in the surge that saw the Giants sweep three games from Los Angeles and three from Cincinnati.

49ers Praise Vikings As Veteran Club

The San Francisco 49ers will be gunning for their first exhibition season win tomorrow against the Minnesota Vikings in Portland.

The 49er coaches lavished praise on the new Minnesota club yesterday.

"The Vikings have only one rookie in the offensive starting lineup—and that's Tommy Mason, the country's top college back last year," said defensive coach Mark Duncan.

"Minnesota's first group is pretty strong, mostly veterans who were first-stringers with other clubs," remarked Head Coach Red Hickey, but added the Vikings' "reserve strength isn't quite so good."

Line coach Bill Johnson put his charges through 30 minutes of full-speed blocking and tackling practice again yesterday.

Hickey announced Lou Cordileone, the 250-pound lineman traded to the 49ers in exchange for quarterback Y. A. Tittle, will make his first start in the Minnesota game, replacing veteran Monte Clark at defensive right tackle.

Other lineup changes announced by Hickie include rookie Bernie Casey at end in place of the injured veteran Clyde Conner and replacing guard Mike Magac with Ted Connolly.

C. R. Roberts will start at the fullback spot filled by rookie J. W. Lockett last week.

Teachers say the sport is a good boy-girl mixer. The suggestion also has been made that housewives might enjoy a few thrusts at a fencing dummy to "dispel hostilities, gain poise, lose weight and acquire dexterity enough to take on their mates in an after-dinner duel."

Dodgers Continue Nosedive; Open Cincy Series Tonight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Managers Fred Hutchinson and Walt Alston had the same idea when it came to doing something about losing streaks, but only Hutch had the right answer—and it gave his Cincinanti Reds a 3½-game lead again over Alston's still-slumping Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League race.

Hutchinson, after losing four in a row, juggled his line-up and came up with Leo Cardenas and Dick Gernert, who paired for five hits and four RBI as the Reds cooled off San Francisco 8-5 last night.

Alston also juggled his line-up, inserting old pro Duke Snider. But the Duke was 0-for-4 and the second-place Dodgers lost their 10th in a row, 10-1 at St. Louis, before shoving off for Cincinnati and tonight's opener of a four-game series with the Reds.

The Reds shook their slump with four unearned runs in the seventh inning, triggered by Cardenas' winning three-run double, and ended San Francisco's winning string at six.

Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 6-1, with Warren Spahn winning No. 303, and Philadelphia tagged the Chicago Cubs 7-4.

In the American League, the Los Angeles Angels rapped New York 6-4, once again shutting off Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle without a home run. Second-place Detroit defeated Cleveland 6-0. Kansas City beat Baltimore 5-3, Minnesota smacked the Chicago White Sox 3-0 and Boston defeated Washington 5-4 in 10 innings.

WHITE HOMERS

The Cards socked loser Stan Williams (11-10), quick, scoring in the first on Bill White's two-run homer. Alex Grammas, a .148 hitter, drove in five runs, three with a seventh-inning double, for the Cards. Lindy McDaniel won his 10th in relief.

Snider, subbing in center for the benched Tommy Davis, and Maury Willis were the only Dodger starters who failed to hit.

The Braves cracked a 1-1 tie in the second inning at Pittsburgh when Frank Thomas singled off loser Bob Friend (12-16). Spahn, who singled home the first run, gave up 10 hits.

A three-run homer by Don Demeter sewed it up in a six-run second inning for the Phils.

Place McCovey On Draft List? The Thought's Ridiculous Now

HANLEY

ST. LOUIS — A few weeks ago it would have been an almost certain bet that Willie McCovey would be among the Giant players who will be offered for draft by the two new National League clubs, the New York Mets and Houston Colts. And now? The thought is almost ridiculous.

McCovey has had more ups and downs in his brief major league career than the Himalayas have humps. He soared higher than Mt. Everest in 1959 as the N.L. Rookie of the Year. He dipped lower than the Dead Sea as a 1960 sophomore. And this year, after more ups and downs, it appeared the Giants were just about ready to give up on him.

At least that was a logical conclusion as the second half of the 1961 campaign started with McCovey no longer on first base. Alvin Dark, who took over the Giants with an open mind despite all the stories he heard pro and con about McCovey, watched the big fellow in spring training and liked what he saw.

THE ROOKIE manager unhesitatingly announced that McCovey was his first baseman as the season started and McCovey, during the early weeks, justified the confidence placed in him. Then, the man known as Stretch to his teammates began to puzzle Dark with the most mediocre of efforts at bat while surprisingly turning in some good glove work at first, particularly on those windy fouls that tortured Willie in 1960—and also were a source of anguish to Candlestick Park fans watching him wrestle them.

AFTER ALL, hadn't Dark heard that Willie was a butcher around first? The only difficulty Willie seemed to have was on an option play wherein a bunt or stiff grounder was sent his way. But McCovey is not the only first baseman in the league who is troubled by a fielder's choice or bunt. His problem in this regard, as it is with others, appears to stem from trying to make the second part of the play before making certain of the first part—catching the ball.

Nevertheless, Dark decided on July 9 that he would bench McCovey. July 9 was McCovey's last start until Dark, due to injuries to Matty Alou and Harvey Kuenn, was forced a week ago today to put him back on first and send Orlando Cepeda once more to left field.

AND WHAT has McCovey done since then? No harm at first base—in fact, nothing but good At bat he looks once more like the rookie who set the league on fire with his hot 1959 mid-season debut.

In his first 20 times at bat, McCovey in five games walloped three homers, three doubles and three singles — not quite .500 but the closest any batter can come to it.

How can you put a bat like that up for grabs?

TAM VS. MARIN GRID GAME TO BE TELEVISED

Varsity football players at Tamalpais and Marin Catholic high schools will have the opportunity to sit in their living rooms on Oct. 28 and watch themselves in action on television.

Sounds strange, but true, thanks to video-type and a new series of television features announced today.

KGO-TV (Channel 7), said it will present a 10-game series of Bay Area high school football games this fall. All telecasts will be video taped each Friday night for showing the following day.

The Tam-Marin game is scheduled at Kentfield Friday night, Oct. 27 and the video tape will be screened at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 28.

The TV series will begin with a special preview on Sept. 16 and the first game will be Sept. 23 between Vallejo and Berkeley.

Ard Goes All The Way In N.Y. Contest

Jerry Ard of Sir Francis Drake High School and a resident of Fairfax played all nine-innings last night, but his United States All-Stars lost a 6-3 decision to New York City All-Stars in the 16th annual Hearst Sandlot Classic in Yankee Stadium.

The slick-fielding infielder, one of two northern Californi-ans on the U.S. lineup, was at bat four times as he alternated between shortstop and third base. He walked twice and scored a run and popped out to the catcher and third baseman on his two other attempts.

Chuck Midland, the other northern California representative on the U.S. team, was the losing pitcher. The New Yorkers started a five-run rally off him in the fifth inning.

Ard was one of only two U.S. players to play the entire game.

A crowd of 11,688 fans saw the contest.

Pat Rogan, a right-hander from Lynnwood, Calif., was named the game's most valuable player. In his four-inning stint, Rogan struck out eight, walked two, gave up one run and two hits.

Li'l League World Series: Miniature Pros In Action

THE JOYS . . . of sweet victory in the Little League World Series are expressed by these stars of the El Campo, Texas team after a 1-0 victory over Monterrey, Mexico in a semi-final thriller yesterday. Left, Michael Winfield tripled home William Kainer with the winning run.

By WILL GRIMSLEY

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The 11 and 12-year-olds playing in the Little World Series here are carbon copies—in miniature — of bigtime baseball players.

It is as if toy Mickey Mantles and Stan Musials had been taken out of a big box and placed on a stage to go through their routines like puppets on a string.

There is an air of professionalism in every gesture.

Uniforms are cut to fit, and they perform on a shrunken diamond with equipment trimmed to watchpocket specifications. They are all local heroes — the French-speaking boys from Montreal, the Japanese from Hawaii, the Yankee soldiers' sons from Germany, the peppery Mexicans and the plain Americans.

They look, act and sometimes play like major leaguers whom they mimic with every move. Their jaws bulge with bubble gum—instead of tobacco.

The pitcher paws the mound with his rubber-cleated shoes and dusts his pitching hand restlessly with the resin bag. The batter, his tiny head looking lost in the oversized, heavily-padded helmet, kicks up the dust at home plate while waiting for a friendly offering.

A Mexican catcher raises his hand to stop the game. He signals for his outfield to play a little deeper.

An outfielder from El Cajon, Calif., tips his hat to the roaring crowd as he circles the bases and a tyke from El Campo, Tex., explains a game-winning home run to a press conference: "I was only trying to meet the ball."

Admirers and relatives fawn over the half-pint athletes. Little girls queue up to solicit autographs from their favorite stars.

The diminutive heroes sign with an air of resignation. Off the field as on, they act suave and fully self-possessed.

That is, until the end of a tense, exciting game. Then the disappointed losers can't hold up the pretense any longer. Their poise cracks. Their eyes well with tears. A losing pitcher breaks down and sobs openly.

They're real pros, these boys but they're still just 12 years old.

AND HEARTACHES . . . of defeat bring terms to these Monterrey, Mexico players after their elimination in the annual Williamsport, Pa. competition. Win or lose, the Little Leaguers look like miniatures of major league stars. See story. (AP Wirephotos)

Diminutive Wrigley Field Too Big For M&M Boys

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The outfield at Wrigley Field is so short in spots that the Los Angeles Angels have sheepishly hid the distance markers (345 feet), under a splash of paint on the fences in right and left center.

Yet Wrigley Field has looked as big as they come for Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle, the M-M men of the New York Yankees, in their assault on Babe Ruth's 1927 record of 60 homers.

In nine games at Wrigley Field Maris and Mantle, who have hit 96 home runs between them, each managed to jolt only two out of the park—and each was shut out last night as the Yankees lost 6-4 to the Angels in their last visit to Wrigley Field.

In the final three-game series, Maris and Mantle each had just three hits in a combined total of 22 at-bats against Angels' pitching, and only one was a home run. That came in the series opener and it was No. 50 for Maris, now just 11 games ahead of Ruth's 1927 pace. Mantle, with 46, is five games ahead of the Babe.

The loss trimmed the Yankees' lead over Detroit to two games again. The second-place Tigers whipped Cleveland 6-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Frank Lary, who won his 19th.

The Angels were out-hit 13-6 by the Yanks and didn't get a hit after the fourth inning. They didn't need any. Four unearned runs in the fourth had put it away against Jim Coates (9-4), with Joe Koppe's two-out, three-run double breaking a 3-3 tie.

Browns Told To Look Good In L.A. Tilt

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Rams will be the underdogs tonight—on their home turf—as they meet the Cleveland Browns for an exhibition football game.

The oddsmakers usually prefer the Rams in pre-season events. But the game is going to be televised to the east, including Cleveland, and Browns' boss Paul Brown has warned them not to disappoint the home fans. The Browns are favored by one point.

Coach Bob Waterfield will start quick-throwing Zeke Bratkowski at quarterback. Brown will roll with the Jim Brown-Bobby Mitchell-Milt Plum offense.

The game won't be televised locally, and a crowd of some 40,000 is expected at Memorial Coliseum for the 8:15 p.m. kickoff.

Another exhibition clash tonight between the Philadelphia Eagles and the Detroit Lions may give a pretty fair indication of the team to beat in the National Football League this season.

SUB QUARTERBACKS

For the game in Detroit Tiger Stadium both the world champion Eagles and the Lions will experiment with reserve quarterbacks. They are King Hill of Philadelphia and Warren Rabb of Detroit.

Philadelphia Coach Nick Skorich will give Hill, acquired from St. Louis, his first starting quarterback assignment, thinking King may solve part of the problem created by Norm Van Brocklin's departure.

Former pitcher-first baseman Max Macon is scouting for the Detroit Tigers.

Fear Skimpy Field For Gold Cup Race

By JACK STEVENSON

RENO (AP)—The 1961 Gold Cup, national championship for unlimited hydroplanes, faced a skimpy field today unless qualifying hits a stepped up pace before tomorrow's big races.

Only four of the 13 boats at Pyramid Lake had matched the 100-mile-per-hour qualifying requirement going into today's time trials, and even the defending champion wasn't in that quartet.

Miss Reno, winner of the 1959 race as Maverick from Phoenix, Ariz., sped 113.5 m.p.h. for one lap, the best speed here yet, but went dead in the water at the start of her second lap in the three needed for qualification.

RAIN STORM

Shortly after Miss Reno's unsuccessful first attempt, a rainstorm halted activities and knocked out communications.

Miss Spokane, from Washington, and Century 21 of Seattle qualified just before noon, posting course averages of 101.6 and 107.7 m.p.h. for their three runs around a three-mile course. They joined Miss Bardahl of Seattle and Miss U.S. I of Detroit.

Engine trouble, storms and general mishaps frustrated most of the qualifying attempts the first three days.

Cutie Radio of Everett, Wash., ended her third qualifying attempt by throwing a propellor through her hull.

A $35,000 purse will be divided in this two-day event consisting of three races over tomorrow and Sunday.

Marin Catholic Gridders Report

Marin Catholic High School will officially open its 1961 football season tomorrow with physical examinations and distribution of uniforms the order of the day.

All of the school's football prospects will report to the Marin gymnasium at 9 a.m., Coach Harry Moore said.

Eureka Advances In Nat'l Tourney

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Defending champion Grand Rapids, Mich., defeated West Liberty, Ky., 7-3 early today in a first round game of the National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament.

The game was completed shortly before 3 a.m. Fallon, Nev., needed 19 innings to produce a 7-6 victory last night.

Eureka, Calif., moved into the third round undefeated after posting a 13-6 victory over Joliet, Ill.

Fear Of Flying Bringing Jensen To End Of Career?

BOSTON (AP)—Fear of flying apparently is bringing veteran outfielder Jackie Jensen closer to a third and final baseball retirement after a self-imposed "grounding."

Jensen says he has made no decision about returning next season, but the Sox announced last night Jackie would not play the weekend series in Los Angeles starting today.

Instead, Jensen will take a train to Kansas City where he will join the club Monday.

General Manager Dick O'Connell said Jensen would not be paid for the games he misses.

Jensen's aversion to airplanes is deep-seated and stems from childhood.

He has received help from a hypnotist and encouragement from his wife on the subject.

The fear was a major factor in his one year retirement in 1960 and his 10-day re-retirement this spring, April 29-May 8 when he quietly boarded a train in Cleveland and headed for his Lake Tahoe, Nev., home.

"I honestly haven't decided about 1962," Jensen said. "It's a long way off yet."

At least one Red Sox spokesman believes this definitely is Jensen's last year.

"It isn't anybody's business but mine how I travel," Jensen steadfastly maintains.

Jensen's request to be excused, at loss of pay, for the Los Angeles series, takes him out of the lineup at the very moment when he is playing his best ball since 1958 when he received the American League's Most Valuable Player award.

Dr. Leland G. Merrill Jr. captain of the 1942 Michigan State wrestling team and a member of the 1948 Olympic squad, is dean of the college of agriculture at Rutgers University.

Sausalito Makes Debut On Major Racing Circuit With 2-Day Regatta

By ALFRED MATSON

Sausalito Yacht Club makes its initial bow on the major racing circuit this weekend with a two-day regatta officially blessed by the Yacht Racing Assn.

Heretofore content to confine their activities to small boat competition, the club's horizons broadened quite recently with the completion of their new clubhouse, an explosion in membership rolls and, particularly, of sailors with boats of YRA qualifications.

So, tomorrow, Recorder Don Seaton and his assistants will make their first official visit to the Sausalito Y.C. and proceed to write into history the full results of the two-day program.

In a divergence from last week's San Francisco Y. C. regatta, the One Design classes will race tomorrow and the divisions on Sunday. The starting line will, however, be the same, i.e., between Knox Buoy and the committee boat, approximately, 300 yards to the south.

Again, and on both days, the biggest boats will lead off — Farallon Clippers tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. and, on Sunday, the Cruising Club "A" contingent will hit the line at 11 a.m. Courses to be run, as laid out by the Sausalito Y.C.'s race committee, are new and should pique the interest of the participants.

21-MILE JAUNT

The "A" fleet, for instance, will have but one mark to round, No. 1 Channel Buoy, outside the Golden Gate; a long beat out and, if winds are kindly, a quick run home, a 21-mile jaunt.

On the other hand, the smallest entries will have a try at a 9.5-mile course. After the start; a flag marker, three-fourths mile north of Yellow Bluff, back to the flag again and a short romp home. And the other courses have the same original concepts.

Weather permitting, a fleet of more than 300 yachts might well take part in this debut of the Sausalito Y.C. in the big time circuit.

THERE IS a disquieting rumor being bruited about that the Bolero may be sold to a southern California yachtsman. It is hoped that said rumors are groundless as it would mark the end of the superb duels between it and the Baruna, undoubtedly the most evenly matched ocean greyhounds in any water the world over.

San Rafael Shop Reports On Doves; Racoon Strait Striper Run Unabated

STEVENS

Talking with Roy Irwin of Western Sport Shop, San Rafael, I was told a goodly number of doves were in evidence in the Rio Vista-Collinsville area.

That item of news didn't surprise this writer. From many sources the story is the same. Deer hunters in the Maxwell area, fishermen from Clear Lake and along the coast to as far north as Fort Bragg, all have reported seeing an unusually large number of the highly desired doves.

Unless the weather turns cold and forces the doves to seek a warmer playground, 1961 should be as productive as 1959 and 1960—two years when the take of doves was the greatest of all other feathered game.

An estimated population of 20,000,000 birds now inhabit the State and the number appears to be increasing each year. The Department of Fish and Game people consider a take of 4,000,000 birds each year as the maximum. So we have some 16,000,000 left to shoot at when the season nears its end.

The oldtimers suggest that the early hunters will reap the greatest harvest of doves. They become skittish after the first week or 10 days.

The season opens Saturday, September 2. That leaves you plenty of time to scout the country and get permission from some rancher to shoot on his property. Much of the good dove country is on private lands. It will pay to make prior arrangements. Most ranchers will play ball with you . . . IF you ask for permission to hunt doves on his property. But the same ranchers might prosecute for trespass if not asked.

So much for the dove doings. Now for the fishing facts: Salmon trolling has been a bit on the slow side. The hopeful members of the Foothill Sportsmen's Club who worked hard and long on the recent annual salmon derby last Sunday, met with poor success. Only one Schenley fish was taken, I believe. That was aboard the Dolphin by an unnamed angler. But we know for sure that Hal Boenner of Lee Anderson's bait shop in Oakland, landed a 28 pounder.

I note, from the Stagnaro (Santa Cruz) report on the deep sea rocking fishing, that again some nice salmon were taken by the bait dunkers at great depths. Mike Evans, of C. V. landed a 26-pound salmon on cut bait from near the bottom.

I noted from the Stagnaro report the name of a well known sportsman and organizer of sportsmen, Ed Busalak of San Leandro landed a 16¾ pound ling.

Getting closer to home, the fishing picture is both dim and clear. Dim in the Tomales Bay area according to Davis Campbell, of the Golden Hind boatel. His report was short and to the point. "Few anglers; few fish. Some small halibut and rockfish at the mouth and that's all." However the time of plenty is fast approaching. Look for some fast and fancy fishing in about 30 days from now, and then continuing all through the fall and winter.

That amazing run of stripers in the Racoon Strait continues apparently unabated. Hal Boenner mentioned the following results: Monday—The Troller, 7 limits to 14 pounds in the morning, 7 limits to 19 pounds in the afternoon (off Alcatraz Isl.). The same day, the R. S. P. unloaded seven limits to nine pounds; Wilma H. four limits to eight pounds. Tuesday, Troller, seven limits to 12 pounds, R.S.P. five limits to nine pounds, and the Cherokee took six limits to 12 pounds in 90 minutes actual fishing time.

Hal Boenner also mentioned the Lucky Day netting nine salmon to 30 pounds off Double Point on Tuesday .

One of the headline events in the Upper San Pablo Bay took place at Crockett when 13-year-old Paul Hulburt landed an 18¾ pound striped bass while fishing from Dowrelio's pier.

Bait fishing in the Upper San Pablo Bay has steadily improved day-by-day. In spite of rather strong winds the take has been surprisingly good. Not lunkers, but nice, hard fighting three and four pounders with an occasional larger one. Until Monday, when the strong winds hampered fishing, the trollers have taken limits each time out in evening fishing.

If history repeats itself, this weekend will see a slowup in bass fishing in the upper San Pablo, but it will not (I am thinking of the series of minus tides) materially effect trolling there or elsewhere, and it should make the bait tossing quite productive in the Mission Rock - Lower Bay sectors. So, with that thought in mind, I bid you a fond farewell!

Cal Team Eliminated

WASHINGTON, (Pa.) (AP)— Three errors in the ninth inning permitted the winning run to score last night as San Antonio defeated West Covina, Calif., 5-4 in the Pony League World Series.

The loss eliminated West Covina, San Antonio and Hamtramck, Mich., will battle for the title.

Best 40-Year-Old's Golf Tourney Proposed

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK, (UPI)—Executives of a major insurance corporation, who believe golf is the best of all "preserving tonics," would like to sponsor a match between the world's 10 best players more than 40 years old and the 10 best younger ones — to prove it — Fred Corcoran disclosed today.

Corcoran, tournament director of the International Golf association, added: "Those executives have submitted to me a list of 10 names of the over-40's, and I am forced to agree that this team doubtlessly could beat any other team in the world."

An appropriate trophy and the lion's share of prize money would go to the winners, Corcoran explained, and the match would be played in Ryder-Cup style with foursomes and singles—36 holes of foursomes and 36 holes of singles.

BRAND NEW IDEA

Although this brand - new match - proposal is only in the talking stage, Corcoran said, "I am at liberty to make public the names of the over-40 team members the executives have suggested."

Naturally the team includes Dai Rees of Wales, 48, who has just been named captain of the British Ryder Cup team and who only last Tuesday won an exciting 18-hole duel against American Jerry Barber, 45, over the famous Wentworth course near London in an international match.

It is recalled that this same Rees, when 24 years old—24 years ago—defeated Byron Nelson, 3-1. Nelson at that time probably was golf's outstanding newcomer. Predictions were made at the time that Rees certainly would be heard from in the future; but who could have dreamed that young Dai would be Great Britain's number one player 24 years later.

OLDEST MAN

Of course, Barber also is a member of the golf - mellowed team because he won our PGA title at Chicago last month, at 45, and was the oldest man to turn the trick. Jerry also is captain of our Ryder Cup team this year.

Prominent on the list are Ben Hogan and Sam Snead, each 49, who will soon start a head-on series of TV matches. With them is Jimmy Demeret, 51, who partnered with Snead against the world to win the Canada Cup in Puerto Rico last June. There's Claude Harmon, 44, former Masters' Open camp; Lloyd Mangrum, 47, 1946 U. S. Open chamb; Flory Von Donck of Belgium, 49, who won the International Championship at Dublin last year; Chick Harbert of Dayton, Ohio, 46, the long-hitting former PGA champ, and Byron Nelson, 49, who defeated Gene Littler, current U. S. Open Champion, in a head-on match a month ago at Pine Valley, N. J.

Corcoran emphasized that the insurance - corporation proposal vividly points up the fact that a golfer's peak - playing range covers many more years today than back in the 1920's. For example, the great Bobby Jones retired at the age of 28 in 1930 after having won 13 titles. Bobby said he was quitting competitive play because of the terrific strain.

Marin Gals 4th In West Yacht Event

NEWPORT BEACH (UPI) — Newport Harbor Yacht Club today held the Adams Cup trophy for winning the west coast regionals of the North American National Yacht Championship for women.

Newport won the title yesterday and along with it the right to represent the area in the finals of the yacht championship here on Sunday.

The winners scored 13½ points in the two-day competition to edge Corinthian Y.C. of Seattle, Wash., which had 12½. At the end of the first day's races the two were tied at 7¼ apiece.

Santa Barbara Y.C. finished third with 10 points and Belvedere Sailing Society of Belvedere, skippered by Sally Mathews and including Barbara Healy and Nancy Rogers, was fourth with 5 points.

Only Charmed Hunters Will Be In Friday's Elk Chase

SACRAMENTO - (CNS) - An unusual lottery will take place here next Friday.

This will be the selection of 40 names out of an expected 10,000 to 12,000 applications from hunters who wish to participate in an elk hunt in the Owens Valley in Inyo County.

Applications must be received by the department in Sacramento by 5 p.m., Aug. 29.

The drawing—fish and game department officials cringe at the word "lottery" — will not be unique in itself as drawings for elk hunts have been held before and drawings for permits for antlerless deer hunts are held each year.

The prime feature of this year's tule elk hunt in the Owens Valley is that those hunters whose applications are drawn will then be asked to demonstrate their proficiency with a rifle. From the sound of the test, quite a few would-be elk hunters will be eliminated.

The marksman tests, probably to be given in the home area of the successful permittee, will require off-hand shooting, with no rests, and in a standing position. The hunters will be required to place three out of four shots in an eight-inch bullseye at 100 yards or three out of four shots in an 18-inch bullseye at 200 yards.

The Owens Valley hunt will be held in three sections, Oct. 14-16, 21-23 and 28-30. Twelve bull elks and 28 antlerless animals will be killed. A fish and game warden will accompany each hunter or group of hunters and killing of the elk will be on a selective basis.

Pirates Rehire Murtaugh For '62

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Despite the downfall of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates this season, Danny Murtaugh will return as manager in 1962.

Murtaugh was rehired yesterday in a move that came as no surprise. Terms of the contract were not released, but Murtaugh was reportedly paid $40,000 this year.

The Pirates, after winning the National League pennant by seven games last year, currently are in sixth place.

A RUGGED GUY—Willie Besmanoff, a tough trial horse who has traded punches with most of the better heavyweights, takes on another highly regarded foe when he battles the rapidly rising South American sensation, Alejandro Lavorante, in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium next Monday night. The fight will have an international flavor, since Besmanoff began his ring career in Germany and Lavorante hails from Argentina.

Raiders Shopping For Linebackers, Defensive Linemen

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — The Oakland Raiders scheduled a short, light workout today — their last before meeting the San Diego Chargers in an American Football League exhibition game Sunday.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz and his men will fly to San Diego tomorrow afternoon.

Erdelatz says he is still on the lookout for defensive linebackers and linemen.

Two veterans arrived in camp yesterday. They are Fred Williamson, who played with the Pittsburgh Steelers last year, and Jim Jones, who has played with the Los Angeles Rams, New York Giants and Vancouver.

Erdelatz said Williamson will play at defensive halfback and may play offense.

Jones will work out at fullback.

Mexican Divorce For Debra Paget

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Debra Paget has obtained a divorce in Juarez, Mex., from director Bud Boetticher, her mother said yesterday.

"It's all over," Mrs. Maggie Griffin told a newsman. "Debra got the divorce. She is very sick and upset. She didn't decide on this step until late yesterday afternoon. Debra does not do these things lightly."

Miss Paget, 27, and Boetticher, 44, married in Mexico 18 months ago. She formerly was married to singer David Street. Boetticher also had been married previously.

Marinwood Park Bonds Backers Form Group

Twenty Marinwood citizens unanimously voted Wednesday to form a committee to support the Marinwood Community Services Districts park bond issue.

More than 30 other Marinwood citizens have already joined the committee, Donald Sands of 777 Appleberry Drive reported today.

Sands was chosen as chairman; Harold (Red) Evans, 246 Deepstone Drive, vice chair. man; Dr. David Merten, 585 Quietwood Drive, treasurer, and Richard O'Brien, 529 Appleberry Drive, secretary.

Sands said bond issue would finance a landscaped park, urgently needed athletic facilities, picnic areas, a fire station, community building facilities and other essential community services.

The park plans have been prepared by the architectural firm of Osmundson and Staley, which recently completed the Kaiser Center Park.

The citizens committee held the cost of the proposed park would be substantially less than the expense of providing comparable facilities on a private club basis.

Labor Council Opposes Rail Bid

The Marin County Labor Council will file a petition of intercession with the Interstate Commerce Commission this week opposing a merger of the Western Pacific Railroad with the Southern Pacific, secretary Hugh Cassidy said yesterday.

Cassidy said the petition will present the council's view that it would be best if Western Pacific is not merged with any other railroad, but if there has to be a merger the council would prefer it be linked with the Santa Fe rather than the Southern Pacific.

"Southern Pacific isn't getting many points in Marin County these days," Cassidy observed.

Cassidy said the council is convinced a merger with Santa Fe would maintain more effective competition for California rail business than a merger with the S.P.

Northbridge Picnic

Northbridge Marinites will hold their third annual family picnic starting at 10:30 a.m., Sept. 10 at the Keaton Shack, Fetters Springs, Sonoma County. Mrs. Kay Ziebell is in charge of reservations and Guido Restani will be barbecue chef.

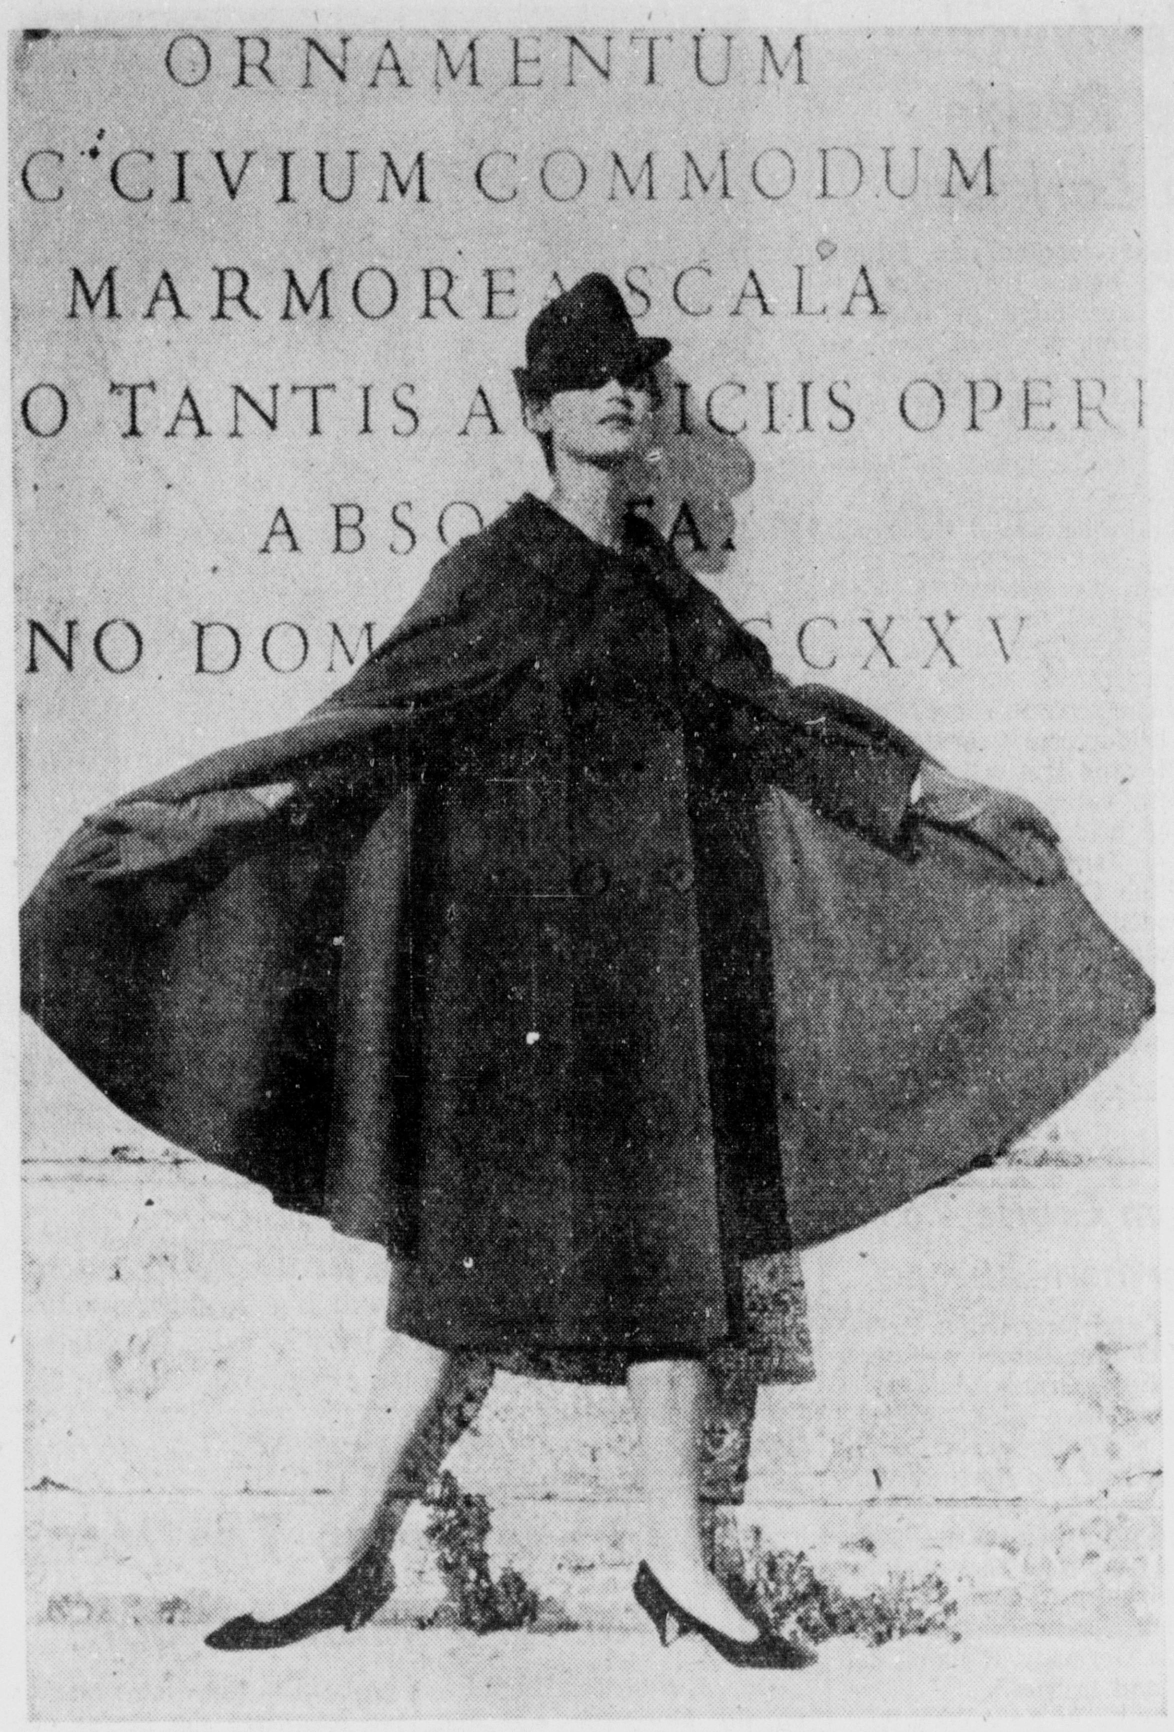
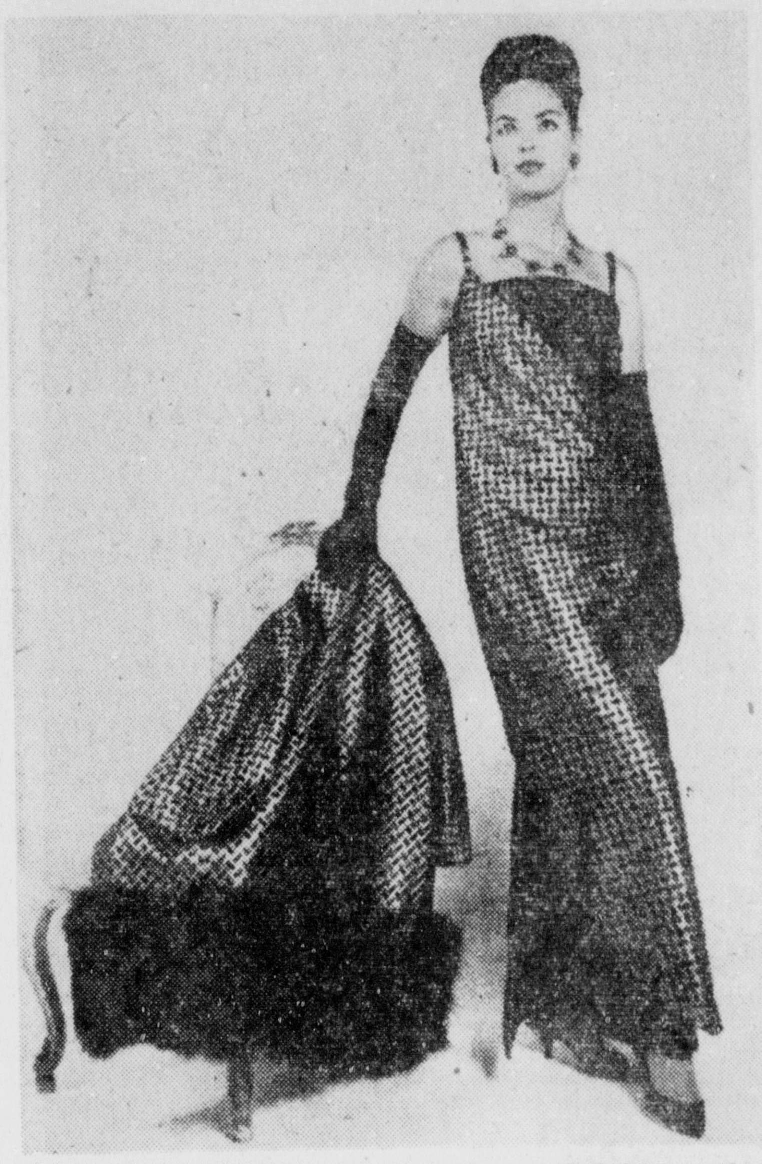
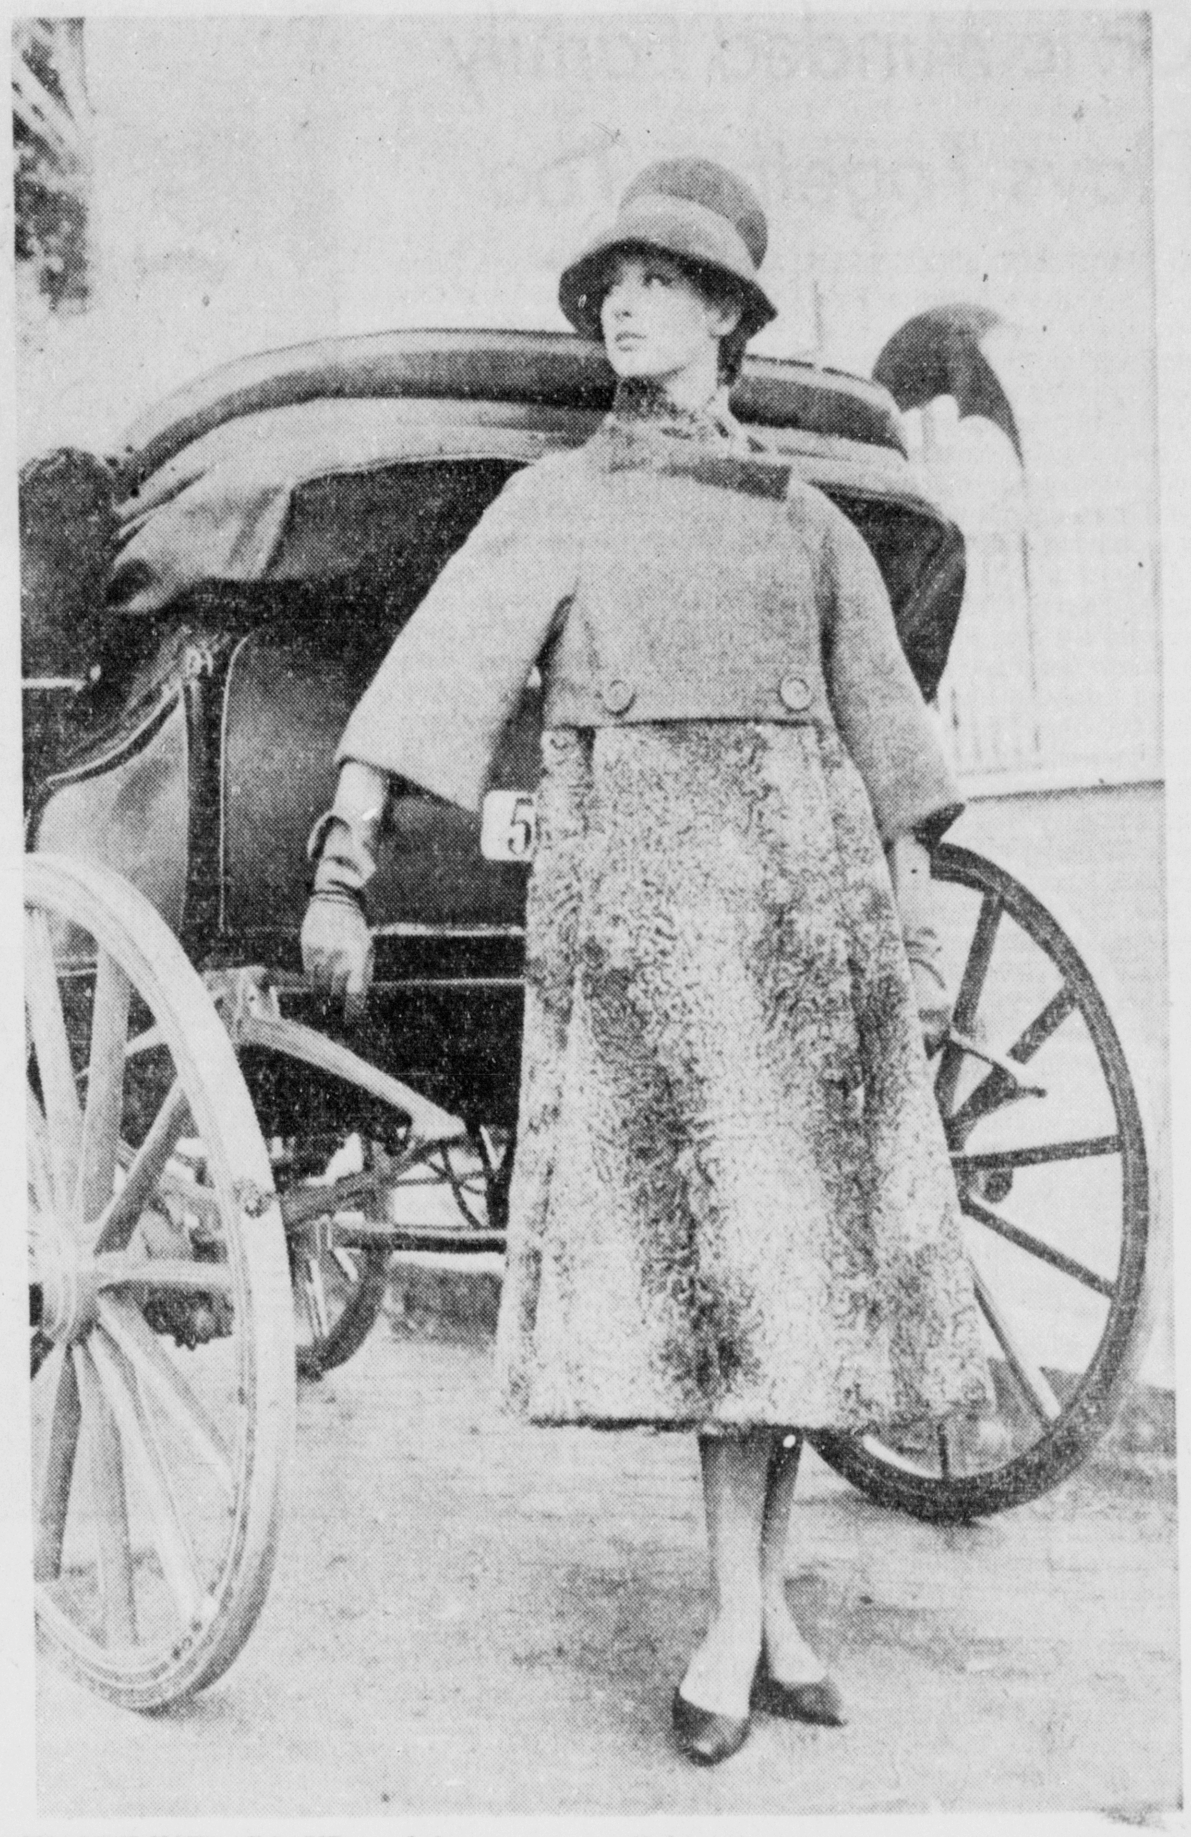
Italian Styles On The Scene



WITH A MILITARY air, sharp angles and a flare, Simonetta of Florence strikes a note of daytime elegance with a grey wool cape coat from her fall and winter collection. The knife-edge seams of the long straight coat are interfaced for angular shape and the attached cape, lined in lighter grey wool, flares over narrow sleeves. UPI Telephoto)



GERMANA MARUCELLI of Rome brightens the night with this evening dress of gold lame. It has designs of black velvet and black fox-bordered cape of same material to match. (AP Wirephoto)



WAISTLINES GO UP and hems go 'way down in Fabiani's fall and winter collection. The flaring skirt of this grey broadtail and wool greatcoat fall a full four inches below the knees. Fabiani cuts the wool bodice like a tiny bolero jacket tucking an ascot of matching grey broadtail fur into the wide, round neckline. (UPI Telephoto)

Civic Minded Family Plays Together Too

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mill Valley's Nathalie Hawley, who is beginning a year as president of the Family Service Agency of Marin for the second time, and her husband, John Vernon Hawley, could well be nominated as candidates in a contest to determine the most civic minded couples in Marin.

They wouldn't be likely to enter one, for if anything they are publicity shy, and they have for more fun than such a title would imply. In fact the Hawleys and their three children, Chrishtoper, 15; John, 13; and Erica, 9; live the kind of life that could be one of the solutions to undesirable trends in families today.

Mrs. Hawley has served on the Family Service Agency of Marin board since 1957, including her year as president at one time and secretary another.

Two of the most frequent kinds of situations handled by the agency, she said, are those concerned with marital conflicts and parent-child relations.

NOT UNIQUE

"I think we are all aware of the enormous stresses in today's life, which have changed the pattern of the family. The problems of growth and rootlessness are not unique to Marin, nor are the results of a family life breakdown.

"But here in family service is a professional counseling agency which directly contributes to restoring people to usefulness in our community, and I believe in the work."

Mrs. Hawley's education and experience have been ideally suited to understanding and dealing with Family Service Agency work.

Born in Seattle, Wash., Nathalie Rice is a graduate of Pasadena High School and Pasadena Junior College. She went on to obtain an A. B. degree in phychology from the University of California and a master's degree from the New York School of Social Work.

After completing this in 1943 she was employed as a phychiatric social worker with the American Red Cross at Camp Shankes near New York City before she was married.

She met her husband, also a Cal graduate, in Honolulu when he was an ensign with the U. S. Navy during World War II, and she was attending the University of Hawaii for part of her senior year while her father, a Naval officer, was there. The Hawleys were married in 1943, and while he completed his tour of duty with the Navy she worked for a Staten Island social service agency. Having grown up in Piedmont, Vern was familiar with the Bay Area and had always wanted to live in Marin. They bought a home in Mill Valley in 1946 and their present home on Marion Avenue in 1952, and began taking part in town and county affairs.

Nathalie joined the Mill Valley League of Women Voters, which has just been organized. She has been almost everything since then—first vice president, second vice president, secretary and a member of the board for ten years.

After the children entered school, she and Vern became leaders in school activities—she in the positions of president of the Old Mill P-TA, vice chairman and holder of other offices in the Mill Valley Education Council—and he as the council's chairman at one time. He was also president of the Mill Valley Democratic Club.

After he established an advertising business with a partner in San Francisco, he wasn't quite so active in community affairs except for Boy Scout Work.

WAS SHOCKED

From the time she first came to Mill Valley as a young social worker from New York, Nathalie was shocked that a place so near San Francisco was practically "in the dark woods as far as mental health was concerned."

Through her interest in getting a child guidance clinic started she first became aware of the Family Service Agency. A large amount of her time has been devoted to it since it was re-organized in 1956, and she is full of plans for the future.

"Now our board looks to the future," she said, "to developing a larger staff of trained social workers to meet our waiting list, currently 87.

"Our statistics show we have seen one out of every 60 residents in Marin since 1956," she continued. "We know the need for our services is here, and our major problem is lack of money. Only with increased public understanding and support of the United Crusade, our main source of funds, can Family Service Agency increase its services to troubled people.

"Two years ago the Family Service League was organized to assist the agency in our struggle to survive and grow. Activities will begin in September with a series of programs on 'Mental Health for the Family.' And there are plans to repeat in November last year's 'Christmas Gift Gallery.' "

Despite all their serious purposes the Hawley family has many other just for fun social and recreational interests. Part owners of "The Fledgling," a 25-foot Golden Gate class sailboat—an excellent way to decide if you want to own one completely, Mrs. Hawley says, the Hawleys and their children are ardent sailors.

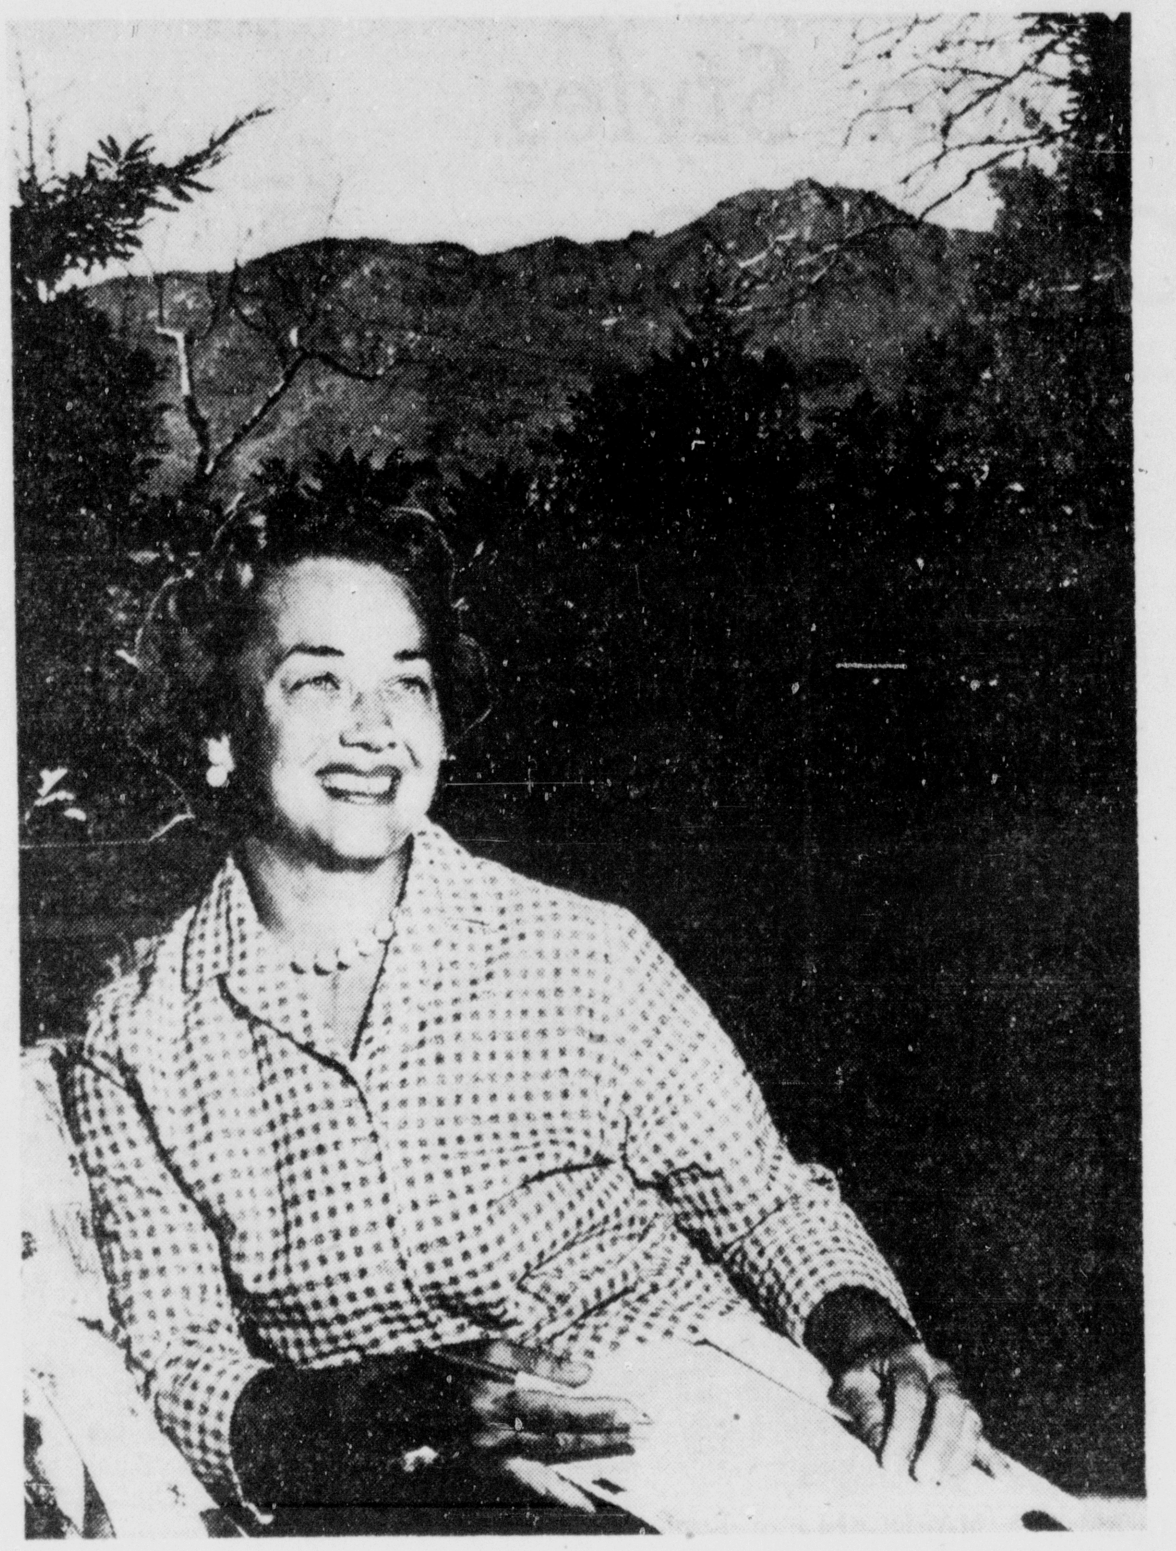
SKIERS TOO

They are also Sierra clubbers, spending much time skiing in the winter, and members of the Mill Valley Tennis Club. Nathalie and Vern like to play golf on the Mill Valley course, and both are avid do-it-yourselfers.

Mother and daughter share interest in music and are proud of their Danish zwicki piano, bought for them by Mrs. J. M. Stubblebine of Strawberry in Copenhagen last year.

Nathalie has picked up her piano playing again to the point where she can play Bach variations, Mozart selections, and some of the sonatas of of Beethoven, her favorite composer. Erica is in her third year of piano study.

If the adage, "the family that plays together stays together" is true, the Hawleys are in a better position than most to tell others how to do it.



THE PATIO of the Hawley home in Mill Valley is a favorite spot for Mrs. J. V. Hawley, president of the Family Service Agency of Marin, as she consults the agency's board manual to plan the new term's work. (Independent-Journal photo)

New College Cry: Pay-As-You-Learn

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Pay as you learn" is the college yell on campuses these days.

In the past three years the Tuition Plan, Inc. — an organization specializing in installment financing of tuition—has helped more than 100,000 families finance their sons' and daughters' educations in monthly payments.

One family is using the plan to finance the expense of sending five children to school — all at the same time.

Millards Return From Cruise To Northern Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Millard of San Rafael and their grandson, Bruce Lindsey of Novato, have just returned from a 47 day cruise to the North Cape and Northern Europe.

They sailed on the M.S. Gripsholm from New York stopping at ports in Iceland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Russia, Germany, Holland, Belgium and Ireland.

Arriving in New York Aug. 15, they spent a few days sightseeing and taking in the shows and the baseball game, and then returned here by jet.

Bruce is a student at the San Rafael Military Academy and will enter his sophomore year of high school.

Academic Cause Needs Home Aid

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Parents of the school set can lend a helping hand to the nation's teachers by conducting at-home practice sessions in penmanship, an authority on handwriting instruction reports.

Wesley E. Scott recommends 15 minutes of home practice nightly to augment classroom instruction.

"Good handwriting is taught most easily and quickly in school," he said, "but parents can perform a valuable service by correcting their youngsters' common handwriting faults at home.

"With parental supervision and encouragement, the average student should make noticeable improvement in penmanship in a month."

FOOD AND THE FAMILY

Mercury Governs The Menu On Nation's Dinner Table

One of a series of articles on the housewife and her family's attitude toward food as expressed in a new survey.

By BARBARA HOSMER

What happens on your dinner table when the thermometer outside goes into the 90s? Maybe you side with the housewife who said,

"You know, in the summer the best thing for dinner or lunch is something light and some cold drink. We like iced tea a lot. I guess we eat more green stuff, salads and light things."

Seasonal variations in menu are the housewife's attempt to strike a temperature balance with the weather. When its hot outside she served iced tea and cold cuts. When the frost is on the lawn in the winter months for breakfast she serves oatmeal and for dinner potatoes, meat and gravy, with soup oftener than salad.

The weight of summer heat is fought on the home front with crisp celery and lettuce and bouyant fruits and frozen desserts.

But when the temperature drops the family cook leans to the heavy and thick things that stay with a person and provide the fuel to get through the day.

The nation wide survey showed that the planning of the menu around the season goes on in nearly every home, whether in mild Marin or the more varied climates of the Middle West and East.

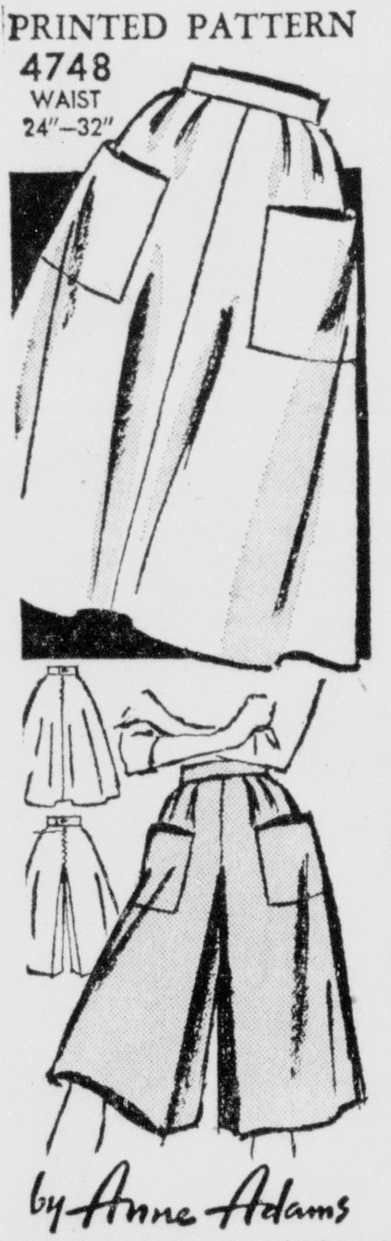
New Print Fabrics Used With Dash In Home Decoration

The latest news from the decorating world is the use of prints that have the excitement of fashion fabrics—vibrant in color, wildly imaginative in design, personal in feeling.

Decorating with these big, bold patterns takes confidence and a practiced eye. Begin slowly and with imagination. Brighten your bookshelves by lining them with a print. A heavy fabric works best here. Cover picture frames in a flowered or stark stylized print. Try this too on dime store wastebaskets.

Revitalize a plain white table cloth with print napkins matching, perhaps, your dining room chair seats. In your kitchen, prints can line cupboards, storage shelves, knife drawers or handsomely cover your cookbooks. Use a print as accent — for instance, glazed chintz printed with life-sized limes and lemons to cushion a rocker, be it stark modern or Early American.

TWICE WONDERFUL PRINTED PATTERN



A gracefully flared skirt to wear everywhere PLUS culottes for an active life! Revolve a wardrobe of tops around these two smart, easy-to-sew styles for city, campus or country.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D.
Guidance Counselor

Youngters Of 10 Needing Guidance For Decent Life

"Are my twins unusually nasty?" a mother asks. "They are 10. My boy tells his sister smutty stories. She laughs uproariously. I thought such stories came later. So far I have not interfered, but I am worried. Their attitudes are unhealthy. Should I teach them the facts of life? Can you advise me?"

I'll try. I'm sorry you have not given your children more guidance. You should have taught them about reproduction when they were tiny. Then they might have avoided their present stage. What is unusual about your son is that he tells the stories where you can hear him. Many boys are interested in smut, but they hide it. Most well-raised girls of ten are not interested. Dirty stories embarrass and offend them.

Talk with your daughter. Almost certainly you'll find she knows the facts of life. Try to interpret reproduction as something sacred. Help her sense the miracle of birth. Teach her the importance of chastity before marriage. Don't delay. She's growing up.

Have your husband talk with your son. Probably he can do a better job than you could. Have him try to replace the boy's present attitude with one of restraint, and reverence. Have him teach chastity too. Does your boy idolize his dad? If so he may accept the lessons.

I hope others will learn from your experience. Please, friends, guide your little ones. Healthy attitudes need to be taught. Bad attitudes are inevitable if you neglect the job. Start before your children enter school. Have pets, and let them reproduce. Answer their questions matter-of-factly. Teach decency. You can do it easily then.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My son has a partial hearing loss. He is seven. He has a chance to get lip reading instruction at school next fall. Should I let him enroll?"
L. de. Ve.

(A) By all means. Lip reading is a Godsend to children with partial hearing loss. The younger they get it the better.

Remodeling Tip

Kitchen remodelers don't always plan for the most convenient use of a refrigerator. For instance, how many kitchens have you seen where ice cube trays can be conveniently filled and returned to the refrigerator without a trickle of water across the kitchen floor. New refrigerators eliminate that nuisance. Water is piped into the freezing unit and freezes in the shape of circles in a basket.

De Bray Collection Will Be Previewed At Sausalito Show

Fashionable good neighbors teaming two young designers, Jacqueline de Bray of Kentfield, creating elegant town and country suits and dresses, and Garth of San Francisco, designing chapeaux to complement Miss de Bray's collection, will highlight Thursday's fashion luncheon at the Ondine, "Good Neighbors for Fall."

The welcome mat will be out for the Consul General of Canada, Dr. Orvile Ault, and Mrs. Ault in a salute to the United States neighbor. Joining the Aults at the guest table will be Arthur Peers, director of the new Canadian government travel office in San Francisco, and Mrs. Peers for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

The fashions of the day will reflect Miss de Bray's rich French heritage and her years of training. Beautiful fabrics, gentle shaping with flare and finesse characterize her first complete collection.

Chapeaux created by Garth Richards in his studio on Columbus Street are worn by the Bay Area's most prominent women and combine flair, imagination, color and styling.

Showing the fashions will be Mesdames Les Vogel Jr., William Donohoe, John Jansheski, Robert Bernheim, John Bellamy Jr., and Yvonne Buchi.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Mrs. Fletcher To Entertain For Visitor From Maryland

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

In honor of her long time friend, Mrs. Francis Cross of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Harold Fletcher is entertaining at a cocktail party Sunday at her Belvedere home. Virginia Fletcher's home was in Baltimore. Several years ago Virginia and Mrs. Cross went abroad together. Mrs. Cross with her daughter, Mrs. Logan Morrill, also of Baltimore, arrived Wednesday night for a several weeks' visit with her son, Henry A. Orrick III of Ross and his wife. They had stopped over in Boulder City, Colo. Mrs. Cross has visited here frequently and has many friends who will attend Sunday's party.

Incidentally Virginia Fletcher's son, David Fletcher, who left in June for a student tour of Europe, will be back in New York Sept. 4. He will go on to Canton, N. Y., to resume his studies at St. Lawrence University.

A BARBECUE had been planned by the Edward Ruffs of Ross Saturday night for 12 of their friends. However, because the nights have turned cool it was decided to have a dinner indoors instead.

SAN YSIDRO in Santa Barbara was the vacation spot of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Eliot of Belvedere who have just returned from the south. The summer has been a busy one for them with many houseguests. Four generations were gathered in the home when Mrs. Eliot's mother, Mrs. Albert F. Bigelow of Chestnut Hill, Mass., arrived for a week's visit and her 80th birthday was celebrated while here. Also visiting the Eliots were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell O'Bryan (Joan Eliot) of Oswego, Ore., and their two children, who stayed for three weeks. Before that, visiting the Eliots were two other grandchildren, Ted and Sally Eliot, children of Theodore Eliot Jr., special assistant to U. S. Secretary of the Treasury, Douglas Dillon, and his wife, the former Patricia Peters. The children flew from Washington, D. C., for the visit. They divided their time between their paternal grandparents and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Van Wyck Peters, formerly of Kent Woodlands, who now live in San Francisco. This summer the Peters' have taken a house in Kent Woodlands. Patricia Eliot was here in the early summer to attend the wedding of her brother, Sidney Van Wyck Peters Jr., and Priscilla Dole.

IT'S BEEN A BUSY summer for Mrs. Edwin L. Blackmore of Belvedere, associate professor of education at Dominican College. She has just returned from Sacramento, where she attended a week-long conference on education conducted by the State Department of Education and the California Council on Teacher Education on the campus of Sacramento State College. Dorothy Blackmore was on the conference staff and was editor of the daily news sheet. Wednesday she will be consultant at the institute for elementary school teachers at the Stinson Beach School. However, she and Ed, who is with the Marin County Superintendent of Schools' office as coordinator of elementary education, with their two children, Bill and Peggy, did have three weeks vacation at their cabin at Silver Lake near Susanville in Lassen County.

INVITATIONS HAVE been received by Marin County friends to the ceremonial being held in Oklahoma City, Okla., today when Helen Brooks receives the veil at the Carmelite Novitiate. She will be in St. Theresa's Order. This is not a cloistered order but a nursing one. Mrs. Brooks, the widow of Dr. Leroy Brooks, and a former Belvedere resident, is a registered nurse and registered anesthetist. Helen's twin brother, Harold Hunn of Pittsburg, Calif., and his wife went to Oklahoma for the religious ceremony.

WHEN LITTLE Phillip William Grundhauser, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grundhauser, was baptized Sunday at St. Raphael's Church he wore the christening robe which his father had worn. Godparents were the baby's uncle, Richard Dapiran, and his wife. Grandparents of the little one are Mr. and Mrs. Nick Dapiran of San Anselmo and Mr. and Mrs. John Grundhauser of San Rafael.

More Education In Years Ahead

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor reports that the women will need more education and training in the years ahead.

"The coming decade will witness the creation of many new jobs and the revision of old ones, as technological and scientific advances change office, laboratory and factory procedures and equipment," the bureau said.

Opening lead — ♡ 9

West opened the nine of hearts, dummy played low and East won with the queen. East thought briefly and then returned the king of diamonds.

South pounced on the trick with the ace of diamonds, lost a trump finesse to the queen and ruffed the next diamond. East got another trump trick, but nothing else. South discarded dummy's remaining low heart on a club, after which he could eventually ruff a heart in dummy.

RETURN HEART: East should return a heart at the second trick. West's opening lead of the nine indicated that South had the jack and ten of hearts, since a player doesn't lead the nine of his partner's suit if he has the jack or ten. It was therefore quite clear that West had led from a singleton or doubleton in hearts.

The idea of returning a heart is to give West a ruff. East can win the first round of trumps and lead a third heart. West ruffs, and the hand is doomed.

East thought he could sit back and wait for his second heart trick, but this was complicated defense. There were too many things that could go wrong with it, as East eventually found out. Nothing could go wrong with the heart return as long as West had two or more trumps.

♥ 9 6
♦ 8 7 4 3 2
♣ 7 5 4 2

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds. You may avoid a double if you bid your long suit, such as it is, at once. If you pass, your partner will surely be doubled and from then on any rescue will likewise be doubled.

Marin Senior Group Meeting Tomorrow

The Marin Senior Assn. will hold its last August meeting from 1:30 to 4:40 p.m. tomorrow in Adaline Kent School in Kentfield, which is near the Kent Woodlands stop of the Greyhound bus line.

Plans for the August picnic, to be held next Thursday in Samuel P. Taylor State Park, will be discussed, said Mrs. E. M. Grote, publicity chairman.

Suit Filed In Sausalito Auto Crash

A Larkspur mother and daughter, hurt in a head-on collision in Sausalito last March, are suing for more than $300,000 in Marin Superior Court.

Mrs. Viola C. Liddy of 44 Francis Avenue, Larkspur, and her daughter, Mrs. Diane McAlister of the same address, contend they were severely injured, to the amount of $150,000 each. In addition, they seek medical and court costs.

The suit, filed by Lou Ashe of Belli, Ashe and Gerry of San Francisco, names as defendants Ronald R. Belt of 310 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, and his father Harley W. Belt.

According to the complaint, a car driven by Ronald Belt jumped the center barrier of Highway 101 in Sausalito last March 23 and struck the Liddy car head-on.

Mrs. Liddy, a telephone operator, says she suffered fractured ribs and numerous other injuries. Mrs. McAllister also lists numerous injuries including a fractured jaw and loss of teeth. She worked as an airline reservation clerk until the accident.

Alarm System At Playground

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Parks officials said at a budget hearing that a siren alarm system at an east side playground has been an effective weapon against vandalism. Damage at the playground has "dropped almost to nothing," the officials reported.

In contrast, a recent weekend of vandalism at another playground resulted in $2,300 damage. The alarms, which cost about $2,000 installed, are planned for all 93 buildings in the city's parks and playgrounds.

Hitler Gang Will Invade U.S. Screens

BY BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — There they were, the whole Hitler gang — Goering, Goebbels, Himmler, Streicher, Bormann, Strasser, Jodl, Keitel and Adolf himself with girl friend Eva Braun.

The gruesome bunch was holed up in Der Fuerher's Berchtesgaden Aerie overlooking the Bavarian Alps. They were once again plotting new conquests as Hollywood was preparing to cash in on the revival of interest in the Nazi chapter of world misery.

NO CHANCES

Allied Artists is making a film called "Hitler," Notably missing from the cast is Rudolph Hess. He is till alive and hence might sue for invasion of privacy. The film company is taking a chance on the missing Martin Bormann. In fact, the studio would be happy if he turned up to file suit.

The film's Hitler is Richard Basehart, and the transformation is amazing. I found him sitting in a corner of the set, as if shunned by his fellow men. Actually, he was saving his voice.

"This is the rougest role I've ever had," he croaked hoarsely. "I'm shouting at the top of my voice most of the time, even when I'm making love."

LACK OF LOVE

Love, or lack of it, plays a major role in the film, Basehart disclosed.

"We'll show the major events of Hitler's life, from the beer hall putsch in the early 1920s to his death with Eva Braun in 1945," the actor said. "But the major aim of the picture will be to show what kind of a man he was."

And what kind of a man was he?

"Apparently a very mixed-up man with megalomania, an Oedipus complex and all kinds of problems," said Basehart.

Welcoming Lunch For New Teachers

Twenty-nine new teachers, 17 elementary and 12 high school, are to be present at the annual Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce welcoming luncheon for new teachers at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday at Sabella's Restaurant at 555 Redwood Highway.

Robert A. Walker of the chamber's civic affairs committee said that, in addition to teachers, principals and school officials, County Supervisor J. Walter Blair, Mayor Robert D. Huber and City Manager A. E. Almcrants will attend. Master of ceremonies is to be Jerry Montizambert.

Alcoholics' Wives 'Don't Understand'

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—The alcoholic who says his wife doesn't understand him is absolutely right, a study has found.

The study showed that only 2 per cent of 262 wives believed their husbands were sick men who needed treatment.

Harold Alkene, associate director of research for the National Council of Alcoholism, said most of them thought their husbands had no one to blame but themselves, and "could cut down if he really wanted to."

REVOLUTIONARY FAN-IN-WING

Wings of a full-scale NASA wind tunnel aircraft model with General Electric X-353 lift fans installed are shown being lowered into place in preparation for the most advanced phase of the lift fan testing to date. The tests, scheduled to begin in September, are being carried out at Moffett Field.

State School Unit To Meet On Merger

The State Board of Education will meet Sept. 8 in San Francisco to consider an election on whether the San Jose and Novato school districts shall be merged.

Exact time and place of the meeting has not yet been set, reported Edwin L. Blackmore, administrative assitant to the Marin County superintendent of schools.

The Marin County committee on school district organization in June approved by a 9-4 vote a proposal to unify the two districts, which would mean election of a new board of five trustees.

The state board will decide whether to allow a resident election on the proposal. If an election is approved at the September meeting it could be set for November.

The public will be allowed to voice opinions during the state board meeting and may write Dr. Roy Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction and secretary of the board, in Sacramento, to state opinions ahead of the deliberations.

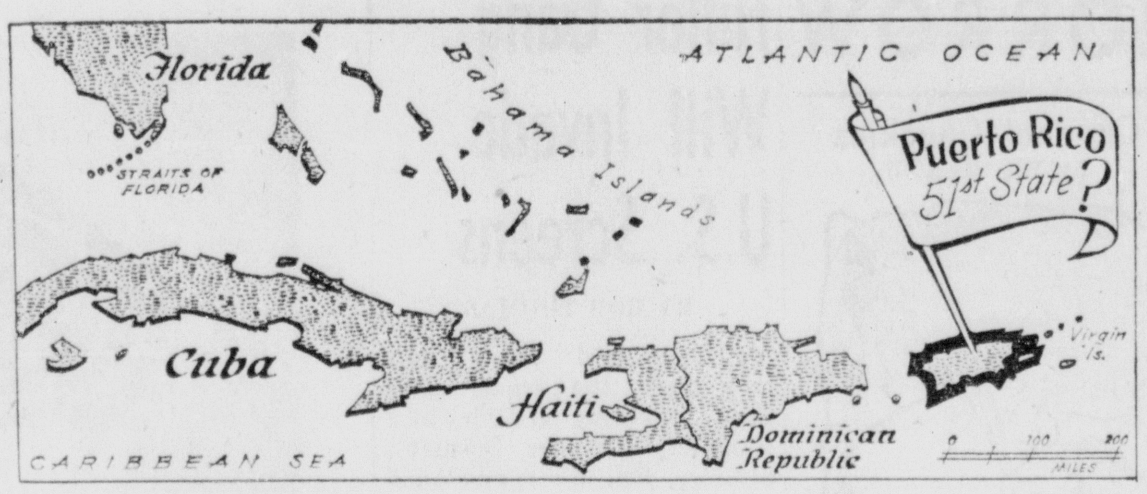
Puerto Rico Fight For Statehood Continues Up Hill

51st State Advocates Cheered By Alaska, Hawaii Admissions



SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—The effort to make Puerto Rico the 51st state in the American Union continues—but it's an uphill battle almost all the way.

Statehood advocates in recent years have been encouraged by the admission of Alaska in 1958 and Hawaii in 1959.

Their hopes leaped again this year when residents of the District of Columbia finally were given the right to vote.

But the obstacles, if not numerous, are big and important.

For one thing, there is now comparatively little agitation in the U.S. Congress to vote statehood for this Caribbean island.

For another, Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico is squarely against statehood in this generation or the next one. Economic lunacy, he called it when a reporter broached the question. Suicidal, he told an inquiring congressman.

On the other hand, former Gov. Rexford G. Tugwell, who served by appointment in the Franklin D. Roosevelt New Deal days, declared on a visit here this spring:

"The island's evolution is toward statehood."

And Luis A. Ferre, who ran for governor against Munoz last year, is still hopefully carrying on the fight for statehood.

Ferre, an important leader of Puerto Rico's business community, contends that statehood would help give stability to the island's economy.

But primarily, he argued, the thing at stake is "the hallowed sacred right of Americans to exercise the right of self-determination and to enjoy the full blessings of representative democracy."

Since 1952, Puerto Rico has existed as a self-governing commonwealth within the American union. Its residents do not have a vote for president or any voting representative in Congress. They do not pay federal taxes.

Governor Munoz contends that federal taxes, on top of those the commonwealth has to impose, would either break the back of the taxpayer or force a ruinous cut-down of public services. Federal taxes would accompany statehood.

In the last 20 years Puerto Rico has made great economic strides, most of them under Munoz' administration, but its per capita income is still far below the lowest of any of the 50 states now in the Union.

During an inquiry into island issues by a visiting U.S. House subcommittee, there was this exchange:

Rep. Jack Westlund (R-Wash.),—"I wanted to ask you, governor, what effect statehood for Hawaii and Alaska has had here in Puerto Rico."

Governor Munoz—"A psychological effect rendering the understanding of economics obscure."

That itself sounded obscure to Westland, so the governor expanded:

"I mean congressmen, that some people that are for statehood have become so enthusiastic about it that they forget all the economic facts of life."

Ferre's reply to that line of argument:

"Whatever additional taxes were paid, we would gladly pay to assure the stability which would come to Puerto Rico from the enjoyment of its sovereign rights, convinced that in the long run they would be greatly compensated by increased economic activity."

In an interview, Munoz reminded that some statehood advocates had spoken of him as their only real obstacle, and he commented:

"I doubt it very much. Their obstacle is that the people of Puerto Rico like the commonwealth government. They have shown so repeatedly at the polls."

The people showed most recently, in the election last November, that they certainly liked Munoz, or his party, or both. They gave Munoz' Popular Democrats 457,887 votes, or more than 130,000 more than the other three parties combined.

Still, Ferre's Republican Statehood party could find reason to feel encouraged. Its backers point out that their total of 249,446 was a 43 per cent improvement over four years earlier.

Munoz is conceded by all to be an extraordinarily popular individual. The party-by-party returns might have been vastly different had he not headed the Popular Democratic ticket.

Munoz is 63 years old now and some day, of course, he'll be out of the political picture. When that day comes, Puerto Ricans of all sorts say, anything can happen.
